And that message is that American ...

The picture, Hillary Clinton quickly assured the New York press, showed that her Republican opponent has been "saying one thing and doing another." Imagine that, a ...

... state.

All of this is nonsense, of course. The picture of the Republican congressman was made when he was part of an official delegation led by President Clinton and including Hillary Clinton that had gone to the Middle East to encourage steps toward peace in the negotiations. It was one of those standard receiving line pictures, and it would be no surprise if the White House photographer also took one of Hillary Clinton shaking hands with Mr. Arafat. That one, however, will never see the light of day.

So what was Mr. Lazio supposed to do? Turn his back, spurn the handshake, leave the room?

Hillary Clinton's willingness to trade air kisses with Suha Arafat was also more benign than the extremists have chosen to make it. It happened at ...

HEADLINE: WHITE HOUSE RELEASES LIST OF 361 PEOPLE WHO WERE OVERNIGHT GUESTS OF CLINTONS

BYLINE: The Associated Press

DATELINE: WASHINGTON

BODY:

* About a fourth were donors to Hillary Rodham Clinton's Senate campaign. The list was made public to answer charges that Mrs. Clinton rewarded donors by letting them stay in the White House or Camp David.

- President Bill Clinton and his wife, Hillary, hosted 404 overnight guests at the White House or Camp David over the last 14 months, the White House said Friday. Collectively, the guests gave $ 624,000 to Mrs. Clinton's Senate campaign, according to an analysis by a watchdog group.

... Arkansas and others.

The list identified 361 sleepover guests but omitted the names of 43 other people who are friends of Chelsea Clinton or are family members.

The guest list was released in the face of accusations that Mrs. Clinton had rewarded donors with sleepovers since she began her Senate campaign. Roughly one in four of the guests contributed to her race, aides said.

"There's certainly no basis for believing that they are anything other than what they are, which is friends and supporters," Mrs. Clinton said while campaigning in Greenburgh, N.Y., north of New York City. "There just really isn't any reason for anybody to raise any questions about it."

Republican Rep. Rick Lazio, Mrs. Clinton's rival, said the accounting was "absolutely insufficient" because it did not specify when guests stayed, or whether they were at the White House or the presidential retreat ...

... for Responsive Politics, a nonpartisan watchdog group, said 98 of the guests gave a combined $ 108,000 directly to Mrs. Clinton's Senate committee and an additional $ 516,000 to affiliated committees operating on her behalf.

BODY:

* About a fourth were donors to Hillary Rodham Clinton's Senate campaign. The list was made public to answer charges that Mrs. Clinton rewarded donors by letting them stay in the White House or Camp David.

The White House made public the names of 361 overnight guests Friday to answer political charges that Hillary Rodham Clinton rewarded big campaign donors by letting them stay in the executive mansion or at the presidential retreat at Camp ...

All have been guests since Mrs. Clinton announced her Senate candidacy in July last year and about one out of four contributed to Mrs. Clinton's Senate race, her campaign said. In all, there were 404 guests, including 43 friends of Chelsea Clinton, whose guest list was not released.

"The campaign of innuendo here is without any basis," said Joe Lockhart, the White House press secretary. "Who do you expect you'd go to if you were running for office other than your friends?"

Mrs. Clinton said the list would not hurt her Senate candidacy in New York.

HEADLINE: Lazio, Clinton campaigns may discuss ads, 'soft money'

SOURCE: Associated Press

DATELINE: ALBANY, N.Y.

BODY:

ALBANY, N.Y. - Rep. Rick Lazio issued a campaign finance challenge to Hillary Rodham Clinton on Wednesday, saying that more than a dozen groups have agreed to stop advertising against her if she agrees to ban "soft money" from their Senate race.

Mrs. Clinton quickly responded that she was ready to have her campaign begin serious discussions with Mr. Lazio's aides. She had said the agreements were required before she would call ...

Speaking to the reporters and editors later Wednesday, Mrs. Clinton said she would have to "figure out if what he's offering is compatible with what my campaign has been offering for months, and we'll get to work on that right away."

While Mr. Lazio has not collected soft money for the race, outside groups have been spending money to attack Mrs. Clinton in television, radio and newspaper ads. The Lazio camp has said there has been no coordination with those groups over anti-Clinton advertising.

On Wednesday, Mr. Lazio characterized Mrs. Clinton's response to a soft-money ban as "more ducking, more evasion." His campaign manager, Bill Dal
