HEADLINE: Lazio, Clinton campaigns may discuss ads, 'soft money'

SOURCE: Associated Press

DATELINE: ALBANY, N.Y.

BODY:

ALBANY, N.Y. - Rep. Rick Lazio issued a campaign finance challenge to Hillary Rodham Clinton on Wednesday, saying that more than a dozen groups have agreed to stop advertising against her if she agrees to ban "soft money" from their Senate race.

Mrs. Clinton quickly responded that she was ready to have her campaign begin serious discussions with Mr. Lazio's aides. She had said the agreements were required before she would call ...

Speaking to the reporters and editors later Wednesday, Mrs. Clinton said she would have to "figure out if what he's offering is compatible with what my campaign has been offering for months, and we'll get to work on that right away."

While Mr. Lazio has not collected soft money for the race, outside groups have been spending money to attack Mrs. Clinton in television, radio and newspaper ads. The Lazio camp has said there has been no coordination with those groups over anti-Clinton advertising.

On Wednesday, Mr. Lazio characterized Mrs. Clinton's response to a soft-money ban as "more ducking, more evasion." His campaign manager, Bill Dal
