
Clinton Presidential Records Digital Records Marker

This is not a presidential record. This is used as an administrative marker by the William J. Clinton Presidential Library Staff.

This marker identifies the place of a publication.

Publications have not been scanned in their entirety for the purpose of digitization. To see the full publication please search online or visit the Clinton Presidential Library's Research Room.

"A serious blueprint for change." — George F. Will

MARKET LIBERALISM

A Paradigm for the 21st Century

edited by
David Boaz and Edward H. Crane

$15.95

"If Bill Clinton is serious about change, here is a blueprint for it. If he is not, the person who will replace him in 1997 can begin preparing for power by reading this book. It contains practical applications of two lessons taught by modern history—the sterility of statism and the fecundity of freedom."

—GEORGE F. WILL

"Market Liberalism bristles with uncomfortable ideas: personal, as opposed to government choice of schools, retirement security, and health care. It argues for smaller government, a smaller United Nations, and a minimal World Bank. The trouble is, Boaz and Crane are uncomfortably close to being right."

—PETE DU PONT

"Market Liberalism should be the principal compass for policy makers and public servants. More to the point, Americans should demand that it be the lodestar in such areas as education, privatization, and environmentalism."

—MALCOLM S. FORBES, JR.

"Here are facts. Here is reason. Look upon the clear-eyed and disinterested analysis within. Voilà logic! But will the Clinton administration harken to this book? Or is Bill Clinton too busy getting great big ideas to spend any time giving a little thought?"

—P. J. O'ROURKE

"President Clinton was elected to bring about overdue change in America, tending to our neglected problems while restoring responsibility and fiscal discipline. Market Liberalism serves as a road map for our new president, guiding him through the morass of partisanship, failed ideologies, and interest-group politics. This provocative volume offers a valuable glimpse at some new ideas that could form the basis of America's new progressive majority."

—GOV. L. DOUGLAS WILDER

"Here's a futuristic vision grounded in old principles. Market Liberalism takes off from today's political malaise and charts new territory for the decades ahead, casting aside the tired old labels that have constrained imaginations and stultified thinking on both the left and the right for the past 20 years."

—GOV. WILLIAM F. WELD

Cato Institute
224 Second Street, S.E.
Washington, D.C. 20003

Distributed to the trade by
National Book Network

"A serious blueprint for change." — George F. Will

MARKET LIBERALISM

A Paradigm for the 21st Century

edited by
David Boaz and Edward H. Crane

Contributors

Doug Bandow
David Boaz
Ted Galen Carpenter
Edward H. Crane
Bert Ely
Jeffrey R. Gerlach
Thomas W. Hazlett
Kent Jeffreys
Brink Lindsey
Christopher Layne
Patrick J. Michaels
Stephen Moore
William A. Niskanen
Lewis J. Perelman
Roger Pilon
Robert W. Poole, Jr.
A. Haeworth Robertson
Fred L. Smith, Jr.
Melanie S. Tammen
Michael Tanner
Jerry Taylor
Ian Vásquez
Aaron Wildavsky

The Cato Institute

cordially invites you to a reception celebrating the publication of

Market Liberalism:
A Paradigm for the 21st Century
edited by David Boaz and Edward H. Crane

Tuesday, January 26, 1993
5:00 p.m. until 6:30 p.m.

*Cato Institute
224 Second Street, S.E.
Washington, D.C. 20003*

RSVP
(202) 546-0200

Acceptances Only

PHOTOCOPY PRESERVATION

Ms Lisa Caputo