A few other odds and ends while we're gone:

1. Mark Golodetz, Wine Enthusiast 914/944-0835

He's interested in doing a "behind the scenes" story about the wine selection process for any inaugural events. I think these will be organized by a committee named by whoever wins the election...although I'd guess the WH would have some role. Can you check with Gary or the Social Office next week and get the scoop on it? Once you get the info, call Mark and let him know how things work. If he's still interested in doing something, tell him I'm on vacation and we can discuss things in more detail when I return. Thanks.

- 1) Interview with WH chef and pastry chef in the kitchen
- 2) Film any preparations underway for the holidays (e.g. fruit cakes)

Deadline: End of August

Executive Residence -

History Channel

Actuality Productions is producing a special for the History Channel entitled "Save our History: The White House." The show is expected to run sometime in November in conjunction with the 200th anniversary of the house. They've done a brief interview with the First Lady and have also interviewed all living former Presidents and First Ladies (with the exception of the Reagans).

They've requested permission to film several rooms in the White House (see list) as well as some of the exteriors.

This is a good project....we should try to at least get them in to film the public rooms....Pls. check with Gary and Capricia about which rooms might be possible to film and try to schedule an afternoon with Bob Petrella, who is the contact. His phone number is 818-377-7200. He's on the West Coast.

(In case anyone asks, their equipment would include Digi Beta camera with minimal lighting and a dolly with soft wheels. They'd have a crew of 4-5 people.)

Deadline: WH filming by first week of September.

*Wednesday = Presidents in their own voices.
* Lissa Muscatine.*

That's about it for now. I'll call in next week to check in with you –

Thanks!
