WATERCOLOR OF FIRST FAMILY'S LIVING ROOM PRINTED ON WHITE HOUSE
HOLIDAY GREETING CARD BY AMERICAN GREETINGS*American Greetings and Painter Ray Ellis Once Again
Collaborate to Create White House Holiday Greetings

CLEVELAND, OHIO (December 4, 2000) -- Today, First Lady Hillary Rodham Clinton unveiled the White House holiday greeting card, which was produced by American Greetings for the eighth consecutive year.

"This year the President's holiday card features a watercolor painting of the White House Yellow Oval Room decorated for the holidays," said Morry Weiss, American Greetings Chairman. "Located on the second floor of the White House, in the First Family's living quarters, the room pictured on the card serves as their living room.

"We are very pleased to have provided the President with his holiday cards for the past eight years. This is the third year that nationally acclaimed artist Ray Ellis was selected by the Clintons to collaborate with us in creating their card," added Weiss.

The First Family's holiday greetings inside the card read: "With warm and treasured memories of our special time in the White House, our family sends you and yours our heartfelt wishes for a joyous holiday season and a new year filled with peace and good will."

The cards were designed at American Greetings world headquarters in Cleveland, Oh., and printed at the company's Corbin, Ky., plant, with finishings completed at its Bardstown, Ky., facility.

White House card artist Ray Ellis, of Martha's Vineyard, is renowned for his exquisite watercolor and oil paintings, which are in museums and private collections worldwide.

American Greetings is the world's largest publicly owned creator, manufacturer and distributor of greeting cards and social expressions products. Based in Cleveland, Oh., American Greetings employs 21,000 associates around the world and has one of the largest creative studios in the world. For more information, visit the company's site on the World Wide Web at www.americangreetings.com.

Subject: Christmas decorations

Gayleen:

I will be covering the press preview of the White House Christmas decorations for the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette. I have covered this event for the past seven years for the Little Rock-based newspaper. But since I left the paper earlier this year, I will be freelancing the story from my home. I would appreciate it if you could send me any advance releases you have -- either by calling me at (703) 257-3320 or by sending e-mail to janefullerton@cs.com. (Sorry, but I don't have a fax machine!)

I'll be writing a major story for the following Sunday's paper. In addition to the overall info that your office usually puts out, I'll be looking for the names of any Arkansans who contributed ornaments or who will be performing during the holiday season. Also, a group of five to ten Arkansans has come to the White House every year during the Clinton administration to help put the decorations up, usually working with florist Nancy Clark. These people's names aren't generally included with the stuff for the press, but I've been able to get them either through your office or from Nancy Clark. I would like to be able to include these people in the story again, if you can help me get their names.

I've got a hard pass, but just in case, my SSN is (b)(6) and my DOB is (b)(6)

If you have any questions, please feel free to call me anytime. My home number is: (703) 257-3320.

Thanks!

Jane Fullerton
