Dear Ms.Muscatine,

Thank you for the opportunity to introduce to you HW Media & Publishing Group, Inc., and its exceptional publication HW Magazine, (A health magazine for Ethnic Women). HW Magazine is a full service magazine focusing on health and well-being issues that significantly benefit Women of Color.

In our next issue due out in August 2000, special emphasis will be placed on Pediatric / children's issues. Given, the First Lady's extensive professional experience and public service we would be honored to feature her in the upcoming August issue. In our most recent issue the Honorable Donna Shalala was featured on the front cover and also served as Guest Editor to HW Magazine. In previous issues Ms. Patricia Thompson-Reed from the CDC and Dr. Louis Sullivan who serves as the President to Moore House School of Medicine served as guest editors. HW magazine has set very high standards of excellence for headliners which few aside from Hilary Clinton can Match.

As the featured person on the front cover we would ask the First Lady to share her views and opinions on the health care industry as it relates to Ethnic Women and children. A series of questions would be asked . If there's a special subject you would like to focus on, please let me know. I am sure something can be worked out that will be mutually beneficial to both parties.

I look forward to a favorable reply. If you would like to discuss our request, or if I can personally answer any questions please feel free to call me at 561-967-9788.

I will forward previous issues of the magazine for your perusal. I look forward to working with you on this endeavor.

Sincerely,

Audeanne Donaldson, RN

HEADLINE: Sisters to share tales of life, success

BYLINE: Helena Effgen

BODY:

Come along and take a peek "Outside the Box," with Sisters Too, Inc.

The Oak Brook Women's Club March 16 luncheon will feature the dynamic duo, Mary Ann Warton and Virginia Sweeney of Sisters Too, Inc. The sisters share their personal life adventures, appropriately subtitled "This is what happens after the estrogen kicks in."

"I first read about Sisters Too, Inc. in Healthy Woman magazine," said Dawn Mugnolo, vice president of programs for the Oak Brook Women's Club. "Their go-ahead-and-do-it outlook on life is so inspirational for women of all ages." Warton and Sweeney are the two creative sisters behind Sisters Too, a decorative box enterprise. The sisters literally boxed themselves into the business.

Warton, the artist, and Sweeney, the marketing pro, began selling hand-painted silk lampshades at the Barrington Sidewalk Days. When Sweeney decided to submit a promotional sample shade to the Bradford Exchange Collectibles Retailer, Warton decided to decorate the wooden shipping box. The response from the Bradford Exchange was a simple, "We love the box."

Sisters Too, Inc. was suddenly launched in a different direction. The keepsake boxes are now featured at Starbucks, Disney's Jungle Up and Close, Nordstrom, Marilyn Miglin, Nicion, Cellular One, the San Diego Zoo, the Mirage Hotel in Las Vegas and at local boutiques and gift shops.

Locally, the sisters appeared on Harry Porterfield's "Someone You Should Know," Pat Cheffer's "Lifestyles," CLTV's "Around Chicagoland" and "Crain's Chicago Business."

"The sisters are not promoting their product at our luncheon, they are sharing their tale as inspiration for everyone," Mugnolo said. "Meeting with them to discuss the March luncheon was two hours that seemed like 20 minutes - I laughed and I was energized. Their outlook on life and life's changes is contagious."

The Oak Brook Women's Club invites everyone to the March 16 luncheon at Magnum's Steak & Lobster House, 777 E. Butterfield Road, Lombard. Reservations must be made by Thursday. The $ 25 ticket includes the luncheon with a variety of entree options.
