White House Local Press Vehicle

As a member of the local press pool, my organization assumes responsibility for paying the rental cost of the local pool vehicle for the First Lady's trip to Skaneateles, New York in August/September. The entire rental cost will be billed to us by the White House Travel Office, and my organization will be responsible for securing payment of the proportional share of this cost from the other members of the local press pool. The Office of the First Lady will aid you in collecting the names of the organizations with whom billing expenses are shared. The payment is required within 15 days following receipt of the bill. Please send bills to:

Below please write the details on the person responsible for payment of the bill:

Name: James Tator
Title: Asst. News Director - WIXT
Address: 5904 Bridge St.
East Syracuse, NY 13057
Telephone: 315-446-9999
Signed: [Signature]

Please fax this form to the Office of the First Lady at 202/456-7035. Thank you.

The Morning Call (Allentown), July 8, 1999

"Each flower is used at its peak moment. After that, it's not good enough. After all, it is the White House."

GRAPHIC: 3 PHOTOS by CESAR L. LAURE, The Morning Call CAPTION: Andy Wentz, owner of New York Floral Co. in Allentown, has volunteered to arrange flowers at the White House for five years. CAPTION: 'They show you the sample, and you start immediately because you may have to make 120 of them,' Wentz says.

CAPTION: When Andy Wentz handed his business card to a White House florist during a private tour about five years ago, he didn't expect it to turn into a recurring commitment. 2 PHOTOS by UNKNOWN, Special to The Morning Call CAPTION: From time to time, the White House floral staff solicits help from outside contractors when the workload increases. Volunteers duplicate the flower arrangements chosen by the staff. CAPTION: Before a special dinner, the White House floral staff prepares sample centerpieces for outside contractors to replicate.

Dear Marsha:

On behalf of the Syracuse Newspapers, I wish to secure at least one reporter position in the media pool covering President Bill Clinton's vacation in Skaneateles.

The Syracuse Newspapers is the largest circulation newspaper in Central New York. We are committed to providing two full pages of coverage to the president's vacation each day with photos.

The lead reporter will be Erik Kriss. Please include Erik in any pools. His cell phone number is 247-9507. In the event that Erik becomes ill or the first family members make separate day trips, I would like to have Fred Pierce included in pool coverage on those occasions. His cell phone is 447-6313.

I am the lead editor on these stories and can be reached at 470-2265. In the event that I am not available, please ask for Barry Katz at that number. If you need to call me at home, my number is (315) 487-6517.

I would also like to remind you that Dennis Nett, a photographer, has also applied to be in the small pool. His cell phone number is 247-7987.

Dear Marsha:

As we discussed, I am writing to request an interview with first lady Hillary Rodham Clinton during her vacation in Skaneateles.

As a political reporter for the Syracuse Herald-American, a paper that reaches nearly 400,000 readers every Sunday, I represent the dominant paper-of-record in Central New York. People turn to us to learn what policy makers and candidates think about issues important to the area.

As upstate New York becomes increasingly important in a possible U.S. Senate race between Mrs. Clinton and Rudolph Giuliani, a one-on-one interview with the local paper could show Central New Yorkers she genuinely cares about the region. Through us, she could explain to voters why she might be the best person to represent them in the senate.

Like many people in the area, I have great respect for Mrs. Clinton. I would be honored to interview her.

Please call me at work, 315-470-6062, or at home, 315-488-6149, to talk about this further. My resume and some story samples can be made available at your request.

Thanks again for your consideration. I look forward to speaking with you soon.

Sincerely,
