Dear Ms. Quinn:

Your words of support and encouragement meant so much to me during the past weeks. It was very kind of you to take the time to write as you did and I am grateful.

Please accept my thanks and best wishes.

Sincerely,

Margaret A. Williams

A letter of support
concerning the hearings

December 14, 1995

Ms. Margaret Williams
Chief of Staff
to The First Lady
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Ms. Williams:

I wanted to let you know how very proud I am of you.

Senator D'Amato's hearings have become a source of entertainment (or maybe it's irritation) for me. As I watch you sit there time and time again, very calmly and with so much dignity, and put up with the stupid nonsense and abuse heaped on you by these ridiculous old senators, I have to salute you.

I don't know how you do it! I'm sure if Faircloth called me a "liar", I would either jump up and hit him over the head or worse yet, start crying. I'm sure your character and strength are some of the reasons you are the First Lady's Chief of Staff. She is very lucky to have you and I'm sure she knows it.

Don't ever let those ridiculous old fools "get to you". Just keep on infuriating them - you have so much more character than they will ever have and there are millions of us cheering you on.

Sincerely,

Charlene G. Quinn
