Dear Ms. Sherwood:

Thank you so much for your note. Of course I remember you. I am still anxious to have you come and talk to our staff. As you know, from the news, we began the new year with a bang. There has been very little time to arrange any gathering of my staff for "pleasure". Believe it or not things are slowing down some and I hope to extend an invitation to you in the near future.

Sincerely,

Dear Maggie,

It was very nice meeting you at the Media party at the White House on December 20th.

As you may remember, I give historic lectures about the First Ladies.

You mentioned that you might like for me to speak to Mrs. Clinton's staff about the history of the role of the First Ladies.

If you ~~are still~~ interested, please give me a call at 703-931-9286, and we will set up a time and specifically discuss what you would like for me to talk about.

I hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

Deborah Sherwood

Dear Maggie:

Per Mrs. Clinton's request that we keep her informed of developments at Girls Incorporated through your good offices, I send you the following information.

Since Bill Galston has left the Administration and has been succeeded by Deborah Fine on the Domestic Policy staff, we want to be sure that Mr. Galston's enthusiasm for our work continues. I am sending you information about our very effective, research-based pregnancy prevention program in the hope that you will pass it on to Deborah Fine and also want to alert you to our current work on violence in the lives of girls.

Secondly, I am delighted to know, on the heels of Mrs. Clinton's extraordinary presentation at the Beijing Conference, that Betsy Meyers will oversee women's, and I trust, girls' issues for the White House and move the U.S. commitments forward. Betsy was certainly impressive during the recent Women's Leadership Forum. (Did I miss you there? Veronica was on hand and we had a grand reunion.) So much of what Girls Incorporated does is relevant to girls' situations in the international environment. I would appreciate your passing the enclosed documents on to Ms. Meyers.

Finally, if there are any girls of television-watching age in your extended family, please pass on the enclosed Girls Re-Cast TV kit, another of our girls' advocacy initiatives.

Hope to see you one of these days,

Isabel C. Stewart

Dear Ms. Williams:

We have been asked by the University of New Mexico School of Law Graduation Committee chairman, Jake Taylor, to contact you and seek your assistance. The enclosed letter from Jake asks your help in enlisting the First Lady as keynote speaker at the 1996 University of New Mexico School of Law commencement exercises. We would be so grateful for your assistance in this matter. Apart from the benefit to the University students of such a visit, New Mexico Democrats would love a chance to show Mrs. Clinton their support and admiration. 1996 will be an extremely busy year for all Democrats, and, if Mrs. Clinton would be kind enough to spend a day of it in New Mexico, we assure you, it would be greatly appreciated. I look forward to hearing from you.

Dear Ms. Williams:

Born just outside of Washington, D.C., I grew up visiting the Smithsonian, the Lincoln Memorial, Vietnam Memorial and other such beautiful sights. However, it was not until last year that I finally visited the White House for the first time.

However, I did not go as a tourist, or as a Washingtonian, but rather as a journalist. I was chosen to represent the Daily Northwestern at National College Journalist Day. What an experience--my first visit to the White House doing what I love to do most--journalism. Hearing speeches from various politicians, including President Clinton, I spent the day scribbling notes, carrying around my tape recorder and taking everything in. I couldn't contain my excitement when the President called on me to ask one of the 15 questions during his press conference.

From that day on, I knew that journalism and Washington, D.C. are an amazing combination. An exciting field set in an exciting city. After my experiences at the Daily, I continued my pursuit of broadcast journalism and began working for WNUR, a FM radio station based on campus. In addition, I began writing for Focus Magazine, a weekly feature magazine insert to the Daily. Having dabbled in the three major sects of journalism, I have narrowed my interest to periodical and broadcast journalism.

I hope I have the opportunity to work in D.C. this summer and am very anxious to meet with you and discuss any possibilities. I will be back in the area for Thanksgiving, from Wednesday, Nov. 22 to Sunday, November 26 and then again for winter vacation from December 8 to December 25.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I hope to speak to you soon.

Dear Ms. Sloan:

Your letter to Hillary Rodham Clinton dated August 9, 1995 has been referred to me for a response. Please excuse our delay in getting back to you.

As you might imagine, Mrs. Clinton receives numerous requests to participate in book projects. Her busy schedule and the difficulty of distinguishing among many worthwhile requests make it impossible for her to comply. As you also may know, Mrs. Clinton is heavily engaged in work on her own book project at this time.

We hope that you will understand. Mrs. Clinton asked me to thank you for writing and for your kind words.

Thanks very much.

Your letter of August 17, 1995 to Hillary Rodham Clinton has been referred to me for a response. Please excuse our delay in getting back to you.

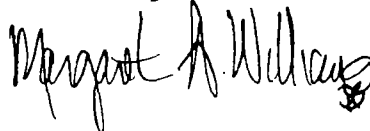

Mrs. Clinton will not receive any money for her column, and she will not direct any proceeds to specific charities. This result is necessitated by various legal and tax restrictions.

You may have read that the syndicator is donating a portion of its profits to charity. We, however, can have and do have no control over that.

Mrs. Clinton asked me to thank you for writing and for the information about your group. She particularly appreciates your kind words.

Dear Ms. Clinton:

I read with interest that the proceeds from your new weekly column will be donated to children's charities. Would you and Creators Syndicate consider Children Now when disbursing those funds?

In the six years since its founding, Children Now has become one of the nation's leading advocates for children. Briefly, our mission is to make kids the top priority on the nation's agenda, and to see that all children have health care, a quality education, a safe environment, affordable child care and such basic essentials as adequate food and shelter. Using a unique blend of substantive policy expertise, sophisticated mass communications, and outreach strategies, we develop programs which address key concerns of children. Among other projects we've spearheaded are a Contract With America's Children, which we released in partnership with the Benton Foundation; a national conference on Children and the Media, a Vote for Kids Campaign, a violence prevention campaign, a public information campaign to let low income working families know about the Earned Income Tax Credit, and a new program to increase parent involvement in specific public school districts. Later this year we plan to release a report on how children's health needs are met by managed care plans.

You are probably most familiar with our Children and the Media Program because you graciously consented to appear via satellite at our first National Conference on Children and the Media, which focused on news media, and President Clinton was kind enough to videotape an address to our second conference at Stanford this past March. Both appearances helped to bring serious attention to our research and work in this area. In addition, Jim Steyer, our president and founder, was invited to address the Family Re-Union IV Conference on The Family & The Media last month in Tennessee. We are very grateful for your and President Clinton's support, as well as that of Vice President and Mrs. Gore.

I have enclosed copies of our Special Report on Children, Values, and the Entertainment Media, the Contract With America's Children, and an overview of our education project for your information and review. All of us at Children Now hope you will agree that our work is worthy of your support.

Please accept our thanks for your own support and advocacy for America's children. In addition to the work I do here at Children Now, I am also a working

Children Now's Education Program

Americans lack faith in our public schools' ability to educate our young people well. This disillusionment with schools leads, in part, to a decreased willingness to invest in public education and less interest in supporting schools' efforts. Many parents and community members are concerned with the quality of schools, yet they do not get involved because they feel removed from what is occurring in schools today, lack an understanding as to how they can contribute to improving children's education, and/or face language or cultural barriers to participating in their child's education or helping schools in their neighborhood. Parents, especially, can play a critical role in their child's education -- at home and through their interactions with school personnel -- yet, too often, the public school system does not benefit from their participation.

Children Now is beginning to work with reform-oriented educators, parents and community groups in major urban areas across the country -- initially, the Bay Area, Long Beach, Los Angeles and New York City -- to launch a multi-focus campaign which engages parents and others in supporting and demanding improved local public schools. The campaign, which seeks to educate the public about good teaching and learning practices, the potential for all schools to be good schools, and the importance of parent and community support and feedback to schools, will connect parents and others to specific ways they can get support and improve their neighborhood school.

The campaign's regional approach responds to the existing dynamic in school reform, where geographically-based coalitions have formed to engage their communities and improve their schools.

- Bay Area. We are working with the Bay Area School Reform Collaborative -- a broad collective of educators, reformers, community representatives and funders formed to promote educational reform on a regional scale. Children Now serves as Chair of the Public Engagement Subcommittee.
- Long Beach. We are working with the Long Beach Unified School District (LBUSD) and the Long Beach Community Partnership (LBCP), a coalition of concerned business and civic leaders, to engage parents and the broader community in supporting the middle school reform effort already underway as well as their public school system as a whole.
- Los Angeles. We are working with key education reform organizations, including the Los Angeles Educational Partnership, the Achievement Council, Los Angeles Educational Alliance for Restructuring Now (LEARN) and the Los Angeles Metropolitan Project (LAMP) to broaden public understanding and support of school reform in Los Angeles.
- New York City. We are working with the Fund for New York City Public Education, which is dedicated to increasing private sector support for lasting system-wide excellence in New York City schools.

The multi-year campaign will utilize a variety of innovative communications strategies to reach our target audiences: parents, primarily, and the broader community. Certain elements of the campaign will be common to all sites (e.g., some of the initial background research, analyses of targeted audiences and certain communications strategies). However, each local effort will be tailored to the uniqueness of the area. The campaign components will be determined through research, focus groups and our partners in each community, but are likely to include local media partnerships, a free media program, response materials, an outreach video, sports teams and other high visibility partnerships, and neighborhood and community outreach materials.

Children Now plans to form an expert Advisory Committee to guide this project. The Advisory Committee will include our colleagues in this field, such as: Donald Kennedy, President Emeritus of Stanford University and Chairman of Children Now's Board of Directors; Ted Mitchell, Dean of University of California at Los Angeles' School of Education; Phyllis Hart, Achievement Council; Peggy Funkhauser, Los Angeles Educational Partnership; Henry Levin, Accelerated Schools Project; Sandra Treacy, San Francisco School Volunteers; Hedy Chang, California Tomorrow; Deborah Wadsworth, Public Agenda Foundation; Mike Kirst, Stanford University and Policy Analysis for California Education; and Marjorie Wilkes, Urban Strategies Council.

Children Now's entire organizational background and record of accomplishments to date lend themselves naturally to these exciting program plans, and our staff resources are exceptionally well suited to undertake this effort. For more information, contact Amy Abraham, Development Director, in our Oakland office at (510) 763-2444.

Contract with America's Children

THESE ARE THE PROMISES WE MAKE TO AMERICA'S CHILDREN:

1. CHILDREN FIRST.

We promise to consider children's needs and well-being first and foremost in evaluating health and welfare reforms, or any other national policy.

2. HEALTHY CHILDREN.

We promise to ensure that all children get the basics they need to grow up healthy including safe food, clean air and pure drinking water.

3. CAPABLE CHILDREN.

We promise all children the chance to realize their potential, and we expect all parents to join in the promise by becoming active partners in their child's education.

4. SAFE CHILDREN.

We promise to reduce the exposure of children to violence—on television, on our streets and in our homes—and to educate the public about the risks of firearms.

5. FAMILIES TOGETHER.

We promise to support marriage, help families stay together, and help young people understand the responsibility of parenting.

6. WORKING FAMILIES.

We promise to help working families stay out of poverty.

7. FAIR CHANCE.

We promise to support a family's efforts to get ahead by making sure that continuing education and job training are available to people of all means.

8. VALUE YOUTH.

We promise to provide young people with places to go and things to do that will help them become responsible members of our society.

9. COMMUNITY RESPONSIBILITY.

We promise to do our part in our own communities to support all children's healthy development.

10. LEADERSHIP ACCOUNTABILITY.

We promise to hold our elected leaders accountable for their responsibilities to safeguard the future of America's children.

Ms. Margaret Williams
The Chief of Staff to the First Lady
OEOB, Room 100
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Ms. Williams:

My wife Jean and I are the President and the First Lady's constituents from Stafford, Virginia with 100% voting record since 1978. This letter is to inform you of our recent experience so that you will be aware of what is going on in some part of the Executive Office Operations.

Spencer is attending his high school reunion in LA and his classmates asked him to bring the President and the First Lady's photos. Several weeks ago, Spencer requested in writing as it was instructed by the Photo Distribution Office, 15 copies of the President and the First Lady's photo that will be distributed at his high school reunion in California on June 12, 1995. By the way, we wrote a little note to the First Lady with the photo request, regarding how your voters think about the country's education - have you seen one? He waited to June 7, 1995, but, they were never delivered. He was concerned about it, so he made phone calls to the Photo Distribution Office, and other various offices to contact a person to take care of the request. Spencer explained to the members of Mr. Jim Dorskin's office, however, this urgent situation was never taken seriously and denied the prompt response. Mr. Stephen Nolet was keep repeating that it is impossible to fill his request by this weekend (it was Wednesday, June Th).

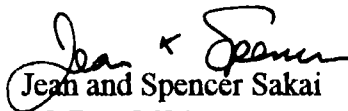

After spending more than two hours, he was exhausted and frustrated. Spencer finally gave up and called Senator Robb's office for help. A member of Senator Robb's staff promptly contacted EOP and had them sent to the Senator's office right a way. It was clear that EOP wasted no time. Spencer walked to the Senator Robb's office and received photos the following day. Spencer raised the following questions from this experience:

1. He was completely blocked and unable to talk to a person above Stephen Nolet's level who may have understood the situation and taken an appropriate action. He was always asked to leave a message by secretaries and other staff members, but, he was never contacted by anyone after leaving the messages. If Mr. Jim Dorskin is not available, could someone take his place to help exception cases. Nobody seems to know who that person would be at that time because later, Spencer was informed by a secretary that Mr. Dorskin's will not be in until Monday.
2. The second issue is - if the US Senators or the Member of Congress can get the photo right away, why an ordinal citizen is denied the same? Under democratic President, we expect the same treatment. If the security is Mr. Dorskin's concern, Mr. Nolet should have asked Spencer, if he has the Government Security Clearance. Our suggestion is that there should be a way to help exception cases.

The Vice President has been saying to employees of the Government to reengineer the Government Process. I recommend that your office look into this matter to reengineer the Photo Distribution Office to see if the photo distribution process could be streamlined to put customers first. The Vice President's spirit of "Customer First" never conveyed to Spencer from this experience.

Sincerely,

Jean and Spencer Sakai

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Sakai:

I recently received your letter of June 8 detailing the problems you encountered with the Photo Distribution Office. For the last two weeks my staff tried unsuccessfully to call you to respond.

I appreciate you taking the time to write us about your frustrating situation. As you may know, there are restrictions on the number of photos distributed because of budget constraints. Consequently, staff has been instructed to be careful, but some follow this directive too rigidly. I'm afraid you became the victims of some overzealous or inexperienced interns or staff.

Nonetheless, I am happy that you were able to get the photos from Senator Robb in time for your reunion. Please let me know if you have any problems in the future.

Sincerely,

Margaret A. Williams

Dear Mrs. Clinton:

I very much enjoyed your remarks at the American Booksellers Association Convention Author Breakfast in Chicago last week. It Takes A Village sounds like a wonderful and needed book.

Should you wish to visit New Haven once again, the Co-op would be honored to host an event for you and the book. We could do something either in the bookstore or, for a more controlled setting, in the Law School Auditorium. In the latter setting, tickets could be sold with the proceeds going to the local literacy campaign. In any case, the Co-op would be willing to donate part of the proceeds of book sales.

The University, the Co-op, and the community of New Haven would welcome the opportunity to have you visit, draw attention to a good book, and help a good cause.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Williams:

I am presently working with the Boy Scouts of America (Orange County Council) on a very unique event. The Orange County Council will be hosting a Past, Present, and Future Dinner for prominent business people, athletes, entertainers, and other community leaders. The dinner is the first step in a fundraising project designed to expand the Southern California Exploring Program in several new directions.

The co-ed Exploring Program for youths between the ages of 14 and 21 presently provides internship training for high school students in police, fire, and rescue sciences. The Exploring Scouts will use the Past, Present, and Future events to expand these programs in the following areas:

Career Horizons

- To include all areas of business, science, art, and the professions

Outreach and Advocacy

- Aggressively re-establish groups in the inner city, targeting the at-risk youth in the Hispanic, African-American, and Asian communities
- Aggressively recruiting young women into Exploring Programs

On September 12th, 13th, 14th, 16th, and 17th, the Orange County Council will host a concert series that will publicize and promote these new programs.

The Orange County Council is leading the country with these innovative pilot programs. Through these efforts, millions of young people will have a chance to become successful and lead productive lives.

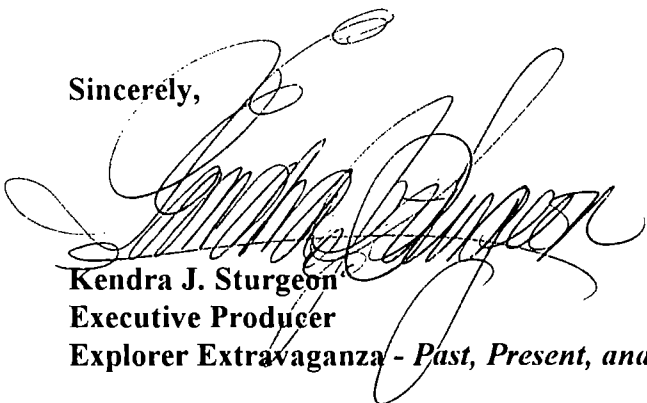

We understand the enormous task that President Clinton has in terms of solving the major issues of the day. In our view, we are taking local ownership of the President's crime prevention plan by taking the initiative to establish such a bold and inclusive program.

The Boy Scouts also realize that they can not ask the federal government for funding at this time since the message that we get from C-SPAN is less spending rather than more. What is needed from the White House is not money--it is moral support and endorsement of what we are attempting to do.

The Council would appreciate having Mrs. Clinton and/or Mrs. Gore actively involved with our project. As our spokespersons are making the rounds on the major talk shows (e.g. Oprah Winfrey, etc.) we would like to call on them to assist us in the information dissemination effort. I would like to invite the First Lady and Mrs. Gore to attend (or support in an alternative manner) any of the events that can be worked into their busy schedules as the Boy Scouts expand into dramatic new areas for the good of the country. We have kept the dinner date intentionally open, to allow for the greatest flexibility in accommodating Mrs. Clinton's and Mrs. Gore's schedules. Here are some possible suggestions: July 6th, 13th, 20th or 27th.

I look forward to talking to you directly about this project and determining how it can best support the Clinton Administration's goals. I can be reached at (714) 640-1840.

DATE-JULY,7,1994

TO PRESIDENT CLINTON:

DEAR PRESIDENT CLINTON, REFERRING TO MY LETTER DATED JUNE,15,1994. I STATED THAT MY SON WAS LEFT WITHOUT AN ATTORNEY. THIS SHOULD HAVE READ, "MY SON WAS DENIED EQUAL JUSTICE UNDER THE ACT." HIS constitutional RIGHTS WERE VIOLATED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES AND THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE FOR THE UNITED STATES CLAIMS COURT. THE CHILDHOOD VACCINE INJURY ACT OF 1986, AMENDED 1987 AND 1989 clearly STATES THAT CHILDREN MUST BE REPRESENTED BY A QUALIFIED ATTORNEY, IN NO WAY DOES THE ACT. SUGGEST THAT A MOTHER AND HOME MAKER WOULD HAVE TO REPRESENT HER CHILD IN THE FEDERAL COURT SYSTEM. THIS HAS TAKEN PLACE WITH MY WIFE AND SON, BECAUSE H.H.S. AND THE JUSTICE SYSTEM CHOSE TO LITIGATE THIS CASE FOR THREE YEARS. CONGRESS NEVER ENVISIONED NOR WAS IT THE INTENT OF THIS ACT. THAT MOTHERS/HOMEMAKERS SHOULD BE FORCED TO PRACTICE APPELLANT LAW. IF THIS WAS THE CASE CONGRESS WOULD HAVE NEVER ALLOCATED ATTORNEY FUNDS IN THE ACT. THE INTENT OF CONGRESS WAS THAT EACH CHILD BE REPRESENTED BY A PROPER QUALIFIED ATTORNEY.

THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT AND H.H.S. WAS FULLY AWARE THAT THERE WAS A 30,000 DOLLAR CAP PUT ON THIS CASE BY CONGRESS FOR ATTORNEY FEES, PAIN AND SURFING AND THE LOSE OF WAGE EARNING CAPACITY. THE CASE WAS TO BE COMPLETED IN NO MORE THAN THREE HUNDRED AND SIXTY FIVE DAYS. THE ACT. POSITIVELY STATES, THAT THESE CASES WOULD BE COMPLETED IN NO MORE THAN THREE HUNDRED AND SIXTY FIVE DAYS. DUE TO THE EXTENSIVE LITIGATION ON BEHALF OF THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES AND THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE. ALL THE MONEY FOR ATTORNEY FEES WAS EXHAUSTED, LEAVING MY SON WITHOUT REPRESENTATION BY AN ATTORNEY UNDER THE ACT. IN THE LATER CASES CONGRESS INCREASED THE MONEY FOR ATTORNEY FEES, BECAUSE THEY REALIZED 30,000 DOLLARS WAS NOT ENOUGH TO FIGHT THESE CASES. THIS INCREASE FOR OTHER children's ATTORNEYS ,VIOLATED MY SONS RIGHTS BY "DISCRIMINATION" TO GIVE ONE CHILD MORE MONEY THAN THE OTHER FOR ATTORNEY FEES IS NOTHING LESS. THIS ENTIRE CASE HAS VIOLATED MY SONS RIGHTS. THIS CASE VIOLATED EVERY FIBER ON WHICH THIS COUNTRY WAS BUILT ON. TO LET THIS STAND WOULD BE A CRIME. I CAN NOT AND WILL NOT LET THIS STAND. MY LAST LETTER TO YOU PRESIDENT CLINTON, WAS SENT TO H.H.S. BY MR. JAMES A. DORSKIND, ACTING DIRECTOR OF CORRESPONDENCE AND PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGES, FOR REVIEW FOR REASONS UNKNOWN TO

ME. PLEASE SEE ATTACHED COPY OF MY LAST LETTER.

THIS CASE DOES NOT NEED A REVIEW FROM THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES UNDER YOUR ADMINISTRATION. THIS INJUSTICE TOOK PLACE UNDER THE BUSH ADMINISTRATION AND H.H.S. WILL NOT LOOK FOR THE INJUSTICE THAT MY SON RECEIVED, THEY WILL ONLY LOOK AT THE DECISION HANDED DOWN BY JUDGE RANDEL RADER OF THE CLAIMS COURT. THIS WILL TAKE AN EXECUTIVE DECISION. THIS IS THE REASON I WROTE YOU FOR YOUR HELP PRESIDENT CLINTON. THE FIRST LADY HAS A LAW DEGREE. WOULD YOU PLEASE ASK HER WHAT QUALIFIES A MOTHER AND HOMEMAKER TO PRACTICE APPELLANT LAW IN THE APPELLANT COURT OF THE GOVERNMENT AND HOW FAR DOES SHE THINK A MOTHER WOULD GET IN THE FEDERAL APPELLANT COURT SYSTEM PRACTICING APPELLANT LAW, ESPECIALLY WHEN THE JUDGE OF THE CLAIMS COURT THAT OVERTURNED SPECIAL MASTER BAIRD DECISION FOR COMPENSATION FOR HER SON ON TWO DEFERENT FINDINGS, WAS PROMOTED TO THE APPELLANT COURT. THE FIRST LADY/ MOTHER HAD TO OBTAIN A LAW DEGREE TO BE QUALIFIED TO PRACTICE LAW.

MY WIFE WORKED VERY HARD TO PUT YOU IN OFFICE PRESIDENT CLINTON. SHE WAS CAMPAIGN CAPTAIN IN PENSACOLA, FL. FOR YOU AND VICE PRESIDENT GORE. YOU RAN ON THE PLATFORM THAT YOU WOULD PUT CHILDREN FIRST. NOW IS THE TIME FOR YOU TO LIVE UP TO YOUR PLATFORM ON WHICH YOU RAN FOR PRESIDENT.

"I TRUST THAT YOU WILL DO THE RIGHT THING, TO SEE THAT MY SON RECEIVES WHAT IS HIS, THE COMPENSATION THAT WAS UNJUSTLY TAKEN FROM HIM BY THE BUSH ADMINISTRATION" AN OR SEE THAT HE RECEIVES A JUST DAY IN THE FEDERAL COURT SYSTEM WITH AN ATTORNEY TO REPRESENT HIM, THIS IS THE LEAST YOU CAN DO FOR A DISABLED CHILD THAT HAS NO VOICE OF HIS OWN. MY SON GAVE HIS ALL WHEN HE RECEIVED THE M.M.R. VACCINE. HE IS SEVERALLY DISABLED AND STAYS EXTREMELY SICK. HE HAS SEEN SEVERAL DOCTORS AND THEY ALL COME TO ONE DECISION AFTER THEIR EXAMINATION OF HIM AND "HIS MEDICAL RECORDS" THAT THE M.M.R. VACCINE DID CAUSE HIS INJURY. HE HAS NEVER HAD A HIRED DOCTOR/GUN IN HIS VACCINE INJURY CASE. WE EITHER WONT YOU TO ORDER H.H.S. TO REOPEN THIS CASE OR GRANT THE COMPENSATION THE SPECIAL MASTER SAID HE WAS INTITLED TO NOT ONCE BUT TWICE.

VERY RESPECTFULLY YOURS

HAROLD D. STROTHER, SR.

"THE PRESIDENT ISSUES EXECUTIVE ORDERS"

THE PRESIDENT'S POWERS INVOLVE FUNCTIONS THAT ARE NOT PURELY EXECUTIVE BUT OF A QUASI-LEGISLATIVE AND QUASI-JUDICIAL NATURE. THE NATURE AND SCOPE OF THESE MANY-SIDED ACTIVITIES ARE GIVEN ONLY BROAD OR GENERALIZED DEFINITION IN THE CONSTITUTION AND IN SPECIFIC ACTS OF CONGRESS. IT WOULD BE IMPOSSIBLE FOR EVERY LAW AND TREATY TO BE DROWN UP IN SUCH A WAY AS TO PRESCRIBE EACH STEP THE PRESIDENT IS TO TAKE IN ENFORCING THEM. CONSEQUENTLY, CONGRESS IN FRAMING LAWS USUALLY OUTLINES A GENERAL POLICY AND LEAVES THE DETAILS OF ADMINISTRATION AND ENFORCEMENT TO BE WORKED OUT BY THE PRESIDENT AND HIS ASSISTANTS. THESE DETAILS ARE IMPLEMENTED BY MEANS OF DIRECTIVES AND REGULATIONS KNOWN AS EXECUTIVE ORDERS. SUCH ORDERS ARE REGARDED AS HAVING THE FULL FORCE OF THE LAW AND THUS CONSTITUTE ANOTHER POWER OF THE PRESIDENT-THE ORDINANCE POWER. EXECUTIVE ORDERS CAN BE ISSUED ON ALMOST ANY GOVERNMENT MATTER, AND THEY NEED NOT RELATE TO SPECIFIC STATUTES PREVIOUSLY PASSED BY CONGRESS. THEY MAY REPRESENT AN IMPLEMENTATION OF THE BOARD OR INHERENT POWERS OF THE PRESIDENCY.

PETITION

WE THE UNDER-SIGNED, HEREBY PETITION THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA TO GRANT HAROLD D. STROTHER, JR A MINER CHILD, COMPENSATION FOR HIS VACCINE INJURY, UNDER THE EXECUTIVE power order.

Dear Ms. Shamvili:

Thank you for your letter. Your support of the President is greatly appreciated. I have forwarded your correspondence to the Social Office for their consideration.

I wish you the very best in 1995.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Williams:

Please, kindly pass onto the First Lady and the President my very best wishes and deep gratitude for the New Year's greetings addressed to me. I am also very grateful to the Vice President and Mrs. Gore for their greetings.

I would like to wish you personally a wonderful 1995. Once more thank you for giving me a chance to welcome President Yeltzin at the White House. (You may probably remember that CNN widely covered my return performance in Moscow on Yeltzin's call during August coup d'etat.)

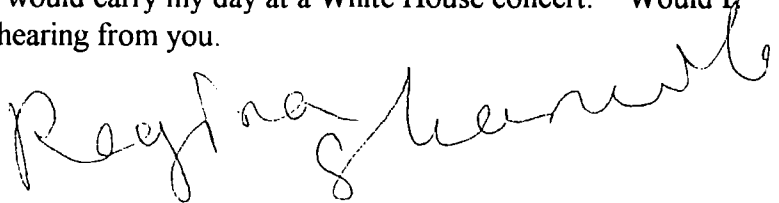

President Clinton in one of his recent letters to me wrote: "Regina, you played such a crucial role in our historic 1992 campaign and I sincerely need your help once again". In one of his earlier letters to me, he also wrote that he was looking forward to listen to my music... At the same time my sincere offers of a performing at the White House concerts are being denied by the Social Office.

Recently I have been approached by James Carville, David Wilhelm, Debra DeLee, Al Gordon... Quoting James Carville's letter to me-- "You and other loyal DNC supporters have already carried the day for the President. ...the President can count on you". Indeed, I never miss a chance to express my support for the First Lady and the President in my numerous TV and radio interviews and otherwise.

I still hope that I too would carry my day at a White House concert. Would I? Looking forward to hearing from you.

Very sincerely,

Regina Shamvili

My concerts around the world are often hosted by the US Ambassadors. The Ambassador to Mexico described one of such concerts as "a milestone in our cultural exchange". My musical films are aired by many National TV channels. The Social Office has on file a video tape with my recent Belgium BRTN production - and other TV films. My collaboration with Mother Teresa in India and UNESCO Asia-Africa tours are highly recognized. My special concert tours in Eastern Europe and recent Israeli-Arab Nations tour were regarded by the media as the All-American success. I wonder why I am not good enough for the Social Office?!

Regina Shamvili

Regina Shamvili pianist

Regina Shamvili achieved international acclaim as a concert pianist after leaving Russia in 1983.

While in the Soviet Union she studied under the tutelage of such legendary concert pianists as Maria Grinberg, Yakov Flier and Gregory Ginzburg, and was graduated from both the Tbilisi Conservatory and the Tchaikovsky Conservatory in Moscow. She gave her first orchestral performance at the age of ten, although, she became well known throughout the USSR, she was prevented from performing abroad. This eventually led her to leave the country.

Since settling in the United States she has toured extensively, appearing at the most prestigious concert halls and festivals from New York to Hong Kong, Paris to Bombay, Amsterdam to Buenos Aires, Berlin to Manila, Prague to Taipei. And recently UNESCO launched a series of Shamvili concerts in the developing countries of Asia and Africa.

A celebrated Steinway Artist, Ms. Shamvili is recognized for her outstanding orchestral and solo performances. She is also an accomplished recording artist with a catalogue that includes numerous best selling albums.

Ms. Shamvili appears frequently on international TV. The special coverage by CNN of her return performance in Moscow, which fell on the notorious days of the August coup d'etat, was broadcast throughout the world.

Shamvili's international appeal is also documented in a special TV presentation of the USIA. This feature joins the growing list of videos and films that have spot-lighted her career. These include "From Russia with Love" (Dutch); "Regina" (Swiss); "Bangkok Report" (Thailand), and "The Homecoming" (a Russian-American production).

This second phase of Ms. Shamvili's career has led to unanimous praise by music critics world-wide.

"A star arrived from the East. Shamvili is a connoisseur's dream."

—Paul Hertelendi San Jose Mercury News

"Unlike too many of her contemporaries, Shamvili does not fear the expressive indulgences of the romantic spirit. Her playing reveals an impeccable technique at the service of extraordinary interpretative breadth, originality and dynamic fervor." —Martin Bernheimer Los Angeles Times

"... exciting display of her range of interpretative abilities. The orchestra matched its mood to hers, keeping it in balance when it was the soloist's moment to shine. ... the audience gave Shamvili a standing ovation ..."

—Jenania R. Wakaland Contra Costa Times

"Superstar ... Shamvili is a pianist with impeccable technique, which in itself is not rare. But what distinguishes this Russian artist is the musical insight and unerring sense of line she brings to her performance."

—Richard Pontzius San Francisco Examiner

"Splendid pianist ..." —Robert Kimball New York Post

"Regina Shamvili: le talent sans frontière." —Centre-Press (France)

"An extraordinary pianist." —René Brenes La Estrella Di Panama

"Ms. Shamvili has a riveting stage presence in the style of a young Simone Signoret ... Virtuoso ... Superstar" —Vernon Ram Hong Kong Standard

"The recital given by Russian-born pianist Regina Shamvili at the Amsterdam Concertgebouw was very exciting ... she is technically perfect ... her playing reveals magnificent effects..." —Rockland Hazenfonk De Telegraaf (Holland)

"She has an internal fire, grace and virtuosity. She is gifted with a rare Lyricism."

—Aram Hachaturian Sovetskaya Cultura
