21st Century Community Learning Centers

Regional Workshops To Offer Technical Assistance for Potential Grantees

The U.S. Department of Education, with the National Community Education Association (NCEA) and the National Center for Community Education (NCCE), is offering a series of one-day regional workshops to assist people who may apply for grants under the 21st Century Community Learning Centers program. The workshops will assist potential applicants to plan and implement high-quality after-school programs, and will feature:

- technical assistance -- tips on how to prepare the grant application
- research results
- examples of high-quality after-school programs and activities in the region

The conferences are being sponsored by the C. S. Mott Foundation and are free of charge to applicants. Each workshop will begin at 9 am and conclude by 6 pm. Please note the dates and locations below and complete the registration form, which must be received by NCEA no later than January 26.
