Dear Ms. Klein:

Following up on our phone discussion of last week, I have enclosed some of GAO's recent reports on child care. I hope these will be useful to you and your staff who are organizing the White House Conference on Child Care. Also, as discussed, I have attached my business card so that I can be included on the mailing list for the conference.

If you or your staff have any questions about the reports, our on-going child care work, or other related child care research, please feel free to call me on 202/512-7263.

Sincerely,

Janet L. Mascia
