THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

March 7, 2000

Dear Vaclav:

Thank you for your kind letter inviting me to participate in "Forum 2000." Hillary fondly recalls her participation in the previous conference you mentioned. I share your conviction that one of our most important challenges is to better understand how we can spread the benefits and share the burdens of globalization.

It is too early to say if my schedule permits attending this event, but I will keep it in mind as we look to the fall.

Hillary joins me in sending you our warmest regards and best wishes.

Sincerely,

UNOFFICIAL TRANSLATION

Prague, 13 January 2000

Dear Mr. President, Dear Bill,

Allow me to wish you, once again, all the best in the New Year. I wish you and your family great success, health, and satisfaction.

The end of the old Millennium and the beginning of the new one poses, to us, a series of questions and challenges. Elie Wiesel and I thought about the meaning of this turning point a few years ago and agreed on a joint project - an annual meeting of personalities from various cultural and civilization spheres of the world, at a conference named FORUM 2000.

This project aims to articulate, describe and analyze hopes and, above all, the risks that face mankind now, on the threshold of the new Millennium, and it is an attempt to find ways to change certain evolution trends which - despite some positive aspects - can also be very dangerous. One of the serious problems of the present time is globalization, a phenomenon to which the series of FORUM 2000 Conferences is dedicated.

As you are probably aware, three extremely successful and interesting conferences have already taken place, one of which was attended by your wife Hillary. This year's Conference will take place from 15 - 18 October 2000 and its topic will be: Education, Culture, and Spiritual Values in the Age of Globalization.

I would like to take this opportunity to invite you most cordially to visit the Czech Republic and participate at this Conference. We would like to welcome you to learn your views about the past and the future of mankind. I am certain that your thoughts will help the FORUM 2000 Conference acquire a deeper understanding of current world ills.

Dear Mr. President, I realize that you will certainly be occupied by your duties as Head of State at the time of the Conference. Nevertheless, your presence at this event would give me great pleasure.

It seems to me that the FORUM 2000 could be an appropriate opportunity for your message to mankind at the end of your Presidential term, since you are the President who led the United States into the 21st Century.

The program of your visit will be accommodated according to your desires.

Please accept the assurances of my highest esteem and I look forward to our next meeting.

My wife and I extend to you and Hillary our warmest greetings.

Yours

(Václav Havel)

Bill Clinton, President

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

Dear Vaclav:

Thank you for your kind letter inviting me to participate in "Forum 2000." Hillary fondly recalls her participation in the previous conference you mentioned. I share your conviction that one of our most important challenges is to better understand how we can spread the benefits and share the burdens of globalization.

It is too early to say if my schedule permits attending this event, but I will keep it in mind as we look to the fall.

Hillary joins me in sending you our warmest regards and best wishes.

Sincerely,

His Excellency
Vaclav Havel

UNOFFICIAL TRANSLATION

Prague, 13 January 2000

Dear Mr. President, Dear Bill,

Allow me to wish you, once again, all the best in the New Year. I wish you and your family great success, health, and satisfaction.

The end of the old Millennium and the beginning of the new one poses, to us, a series of questions and challenges. Elie Wiesel and I thought about the meaning of this turning point a few years ago and agreed on a joint project - an annual meeting of personalities from various cultural and civilization spheres of the world, at a conference named FORUM 2000.

This project aims to articulate, describe and analyze hopes and, above all, the risks that face mankind now, on the threshold of the new Millennium, and it is an attempt to find ways to change certain evolution trends which - despite some positive aspects - can also be very dangerous. One of the serious problems of the present time is globalization, a phenomenon to which the series of FORUM 2000 Conferences is dedicated.

As you are probably aware, three extremely successful and interesting conferences have already taken place, one of which was attended by your wife Hillary. This year's Conference will take place from 15 - 18 October 2000 and its topic will be: Education, Culture, and Spiritual Values in the Age of Globalization.

I would like to take this opportunity to invite you most cordially to visit the Czech Republic and participate at this Conference. We would like to welcome you to learn your views about the past and the future of mankind. I am certain that your thoughts will help the FORUM 2000 Conference acquire a deeper understanding of current world ills.

Dear Mr. President, I realize that you will certainly be occupied by your duties as Head of State at the time of the Conference. Nevertheless, your presence at this event would give me great pleasure.

It seems to me that the FORUM 2000 could be an appropriate opportunity for your message to mankind at the end of your Presidential term, since you are the President who led the United States into the 21st Century.

The program of your visit will be accommodated according to your desires.

Please accept the assurances of my highest esteem and I look forward to our next meeting.

My wife and I extend to you and Hillary our warmest greetings.

Yours

(Václav Havel)

Dear Mr. Munter: Cameron,

With reference to our conversation earlier today I am delighted to herewith enclose the letter from President Vaclav Havel addressed to the President of the United States, William J. Clinton.

I respectfully request that you forward this correspondence to the addressee.

Sincerely yours,

Alexandr Vondra

Prezident republiky

V Praze 13. ledna 2000

Vážený pane prezidente, drahý Bille, dovolte mi, abych Vám ještě jednou popřál vše nejlepší v novém roce. Přeji Vám i Vaší rodině mnoho úspěchů, zdraví a spokojenosti.

Konec tisíciletí a počátek nového před nás klade řadu otázek a výzev. Již před několika lety jsme se s Elie Wieselem zamýšleli nad významem tohoto přelomu a shodli jsme se na společném projektu - každoroční setkání osobností z různých kulturních a civilizačních okruhů světa na konferenci nazvané FORUM 2000.

Cílem tohoto projektu je artikulovat, popsat a analyzovat naděje a především rizika, před kterými stojí lidstvo na zlomu dvou tisíciletí, tedy pokusit se najít cesty ke změně takových vývojových trendů, o nichž již nyní víme, že přes jistá pozitiva mohou být i velmi nebezpečná. Jedním z takových závažných fenoménů dnešní doby je i globalizace, jev, kterému je série konferencí FORUM 2000 věnována.

Jak asi víte, proběhly již tři mimořádně úspěšné a zajímavé konference a jedné z nich se zúčastnila i Vaše choť Hillary. Letošní konference proběhne ve dnech 15. - 18. října 2000 na téma vzdělání, kultura a duchovní hodnoty v procesu globalizace.

Rád bych Vás v této souvislosti co nejsrdečněji pozval na návštěvu České republiky a k vystoupení na této konferenci. Rádi bychom Vás uvítali a vyslechli Vaše názory na minulost i budoucnost lidstva. Jsem si jist, že Vaše myšlenky pomohou k tomu, aby FORUM 2000 přispělo k hlubšímu poznání problémů současného světa.

Vážený pane prezidente, uvědomuji si, že budete v době termínu konference jistě velmi zaneprázdněn státnickými povinnostmi, přesto by mě Vaše přítomnost na této akci velice potěšila.

Zdá se mi, že FORUM 2000 by mohlo být vhodnou příležitostí pro Váš vzkaz lidstvu v závěru Vašeho funkčního období prezidenta USA, prezidenta, který přivedl svou zemi do 21. století.

Program Vaší návštěvy samozřejmě přizpůsobíme Vaším přáním.

Přijměte prosím, ujištění o mé nejhlubší úctě a těším se, že se spolu budeme moci opět setkat.

Se srdečným pozdravem Vám i Hillary ode mne i od mé ženy,

Váš
