Summary of Conclusions

It was agreed that:

- The USG should press NATO to authorize by October 2 the issuing of an Activation Request (ACTREQ) for the limited air option and phased air campaign; this should be followed by a public statement by the NATO Secretary General explaining the decision as a response to the latest atrocities and Belgrade's continued non-compliance with UNSCR 1199. (Action: State) (S)
- The USG should agree to a meeting of Contact Group political directors in London on October 3 to discuss inter alia the possible elements of a political settlement; if other Contact Group members request, this could be followed up with a demarche in Belgrade by the United States, Russian and EU Presidency ambassadors. (Action: State) (S)
- The USG should press the UN Secretary-General to issue his report on compliance with UNSCR 1199 no later than October 5 while working to convince the French and German governments not to seek a further UNSCR following the report. (Action: NSC, State, DoD, USUN) (S)
- The USG should propose a special PJC meeting with the objective of keeping Russia on board while making clear that the Alliance is prepared to act despite Russian objections if necessary. (Action: State) (S)
- Subject to the President's approval, the USG should aim to secure NATO agreement on October 7 to authorize the issuing of an Activation Order (ACTORD) covering both the limited air option and the phased air campaign. (Action: State) (S)
- General Clark should be requested to consult with the USG prior to actual execution of air strikes to ensure close coordination of diplomatic and military activities. (Action: JCS) (S)
- The USG should plan to dispatch Ambassador Holbrooke to Belgrade immediately following the issuance of the ACTORD and prior to execution of air strikes to confront Milosevic with a clear set of demands aimed at attaining full compliance with UNSCR 1199. (Action: State) (S)
