- The United States should discourage allies from seeking a further UN resolution specifically authorizing the use of force. (Action: State, USUN) (S)
- The United States should continue to seek an ACTORD later this week. (Action: State) (S)
- The United States should clearly warn the Kosovar Albanians that provocative actions that disrupt our efforts, or seek to provoke a response by Serbian security forces, will cause NATO to adjust its response accordingly. (Action: State) (S)
- NATO should be asked to examine the full range of options to implement an agreement, including a civilian monitoring force (perhaps based on an augmented KDOM). (Action: State, DOD) (S)
- The United States should seek NATO agreement to a single ACTORD for the Limited Air Option and Phased Air Campaign, recognizing that the further NAC would likely be needed on the transition from the Limited Air Option to the Phased Air Campaign and on the transition between each phase in that campaign. (Action: State) (S)
- JCS should notify SACEUR of the U.S. forces committed to the Limited Air Option and Phased Air Campaign, recognizing that a Presidential decision would be required prior to an ACTORD authorizing their employment. (Action: JCS) (S)
- Any forward deployment of B-52s committed to the NATO operation should wait until after ACTORD approval. (Action: JCS) (S)
