Kosovo
Humanitarian Compliance as of Oct. 24, 1998

Following is information on the various issues raised in UNSCR 1199 and subsequent documents, related to GOFRY compliance on humanitarian issues. This information has been collected since 9/23. Kosovo Humanitarian Working Group members, including DOS/PRM, EUR/SCE, DRL, PM, USAID/OFDA, OSD/PKHA and NSC have cleared this document in draft.

Refugee/IDP Return: According to KDOM, DART and UNHCR reports, many internally displaced persons (IDPs) have reported that they are not returning because of the continued deployment of MUP and VJ, as well as continued low-level skirmishes. Of the estimated 250,000 IDPs, approximately 30,000 have returned since 9/23. However, there have been an equal number of newly displaced. We estimate the total number of IDPs has remained virtually unchanged since 9/23. The Washington Post reported on 10/24 that four refugees were killed by FRY border patrol on 10/22, while attempting to return home from Albania. There are an estimated 17-20,000 Kosovo refugees in Albania.

Access for Aid Agencies: DART, UNHCR and NGOs report that access has improved greatly since 9/23. Serb authorities have not denied access for aid agencies to any areas of Kosovo, and have not delayed convoys at checkpoints. It is worth noting, however, that World Food Program canceled two convoys on 10/19, following weekend fighting, due to its own assessment of dangerous conditions.

Freedom of Movement for Aid Agencies: DART, KDOM and NGOs report greatly improved freedom of movement for aid agencies. Serb authorities have not limited these agencies from traveling on main roads. However, UNHCR and NGOs report significant concern about the extent of mining and traveling on secondary roads, which may be potentially mined.

Customs: DART, UNHCR and NGOs report no problems importing goods into the FRY or into Kosovo since 9/23. Flight clearance for OFDA humanitarian airlift was received on 10/23.

Visas: Five of eight visas requested by humanitarian NGOs have been issued as of COB 10/23. No visas have been issued to the Physicians for Human Rights workers and DRL representative, who will form the USG forensics assessment mission. Approximately 18 staff of ICTY, including 13 investigators from the Office of the Prosecutor, have not been issued visas. Visas have been issued to 12 DART members and the five Finnish forensic experts.

Radio and Radio Frequency Use: Seven NGOs applied for registration with the GOFRY this week, in order to formalize their status and legally use radios and radio frequencies. NGOs have not reported a response to their request.

Limitations on Commercial Imports: Reports from the field state that the GOFRY's prohibition on the import of commercial goods, including basic food commodities, to non-state stores in Kosovo remains in effect. Given the small number of state stores, this leaves much of the population without access to newly imported goods.
