NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20504

March 4, 1999

Dear Ms. Vranesh:

Thank you for your recent letter on Serbia to Mr. Samuel Berger, the President's National Security Advisor. The Administration appreciates your thoughts as we and our allies attempt to resolve the conflict and end the suffering in Kosovo.

United States and allied diplomacy brought both sides involved in the Kosovo conflict to Rambouillet for peace talks last month. While the talks did not yield an agreement, they were a significant step forward in the peace process. To date, Belgrade has not agreed to sign but has agreed to substantial parts of the political agreement on Kosovo self-government. The next phase in the peace process will take place when the talks re-convene on March 15.

If the parties reach agreement, NATO is preparing to help implement the settlement. By the terms of the settlement, Belgrade and the Kosovar Albanians explicitly will have agreed to cooperate in implementation. The agreement is fair and reasonable and when implemented will provide protections for both the Albanian and Serb communities in Kosovo.

Current conditions in Kosovo threaten Albanians and Serbs. The United States is committed to ending the violence there. The March 15 implementation talks offer an important opportunity to end the conflict and it is up to both sides to grasp its importance and begin to build a better future.

Again, Ms. Vranesh, thank you for your thoughts.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Greg Schulte', with a stylized flourish at the end.

Dear Mr. Berger:

Your appearance on the McNeil/Lehrer News Hour, Monday, February 22, 1999, created quite an impression upon me. I listen very closely to administration people when they speak with the authority and force of the government of my country.

So you will understand then why I felt rather more than a jolt when I heard you say "...Kosovars have an ethnic allegiance to Albania"... The full significance of that statement only confirmed what I have come to conclude over the months and years of this administration's approach to Serbia (now interchangeable with "rump Yugoslavia, Yugoslavia, Kosovo"). This administration has threatened and delivered military punishment and global warnings to a sovereign nation, Serbia, without benefit of Congressional formal Declaration of war. Among other things, you refer to a "humanitarian catastrophe"...

...rather selectively to my judgment, presumably to the people of Albanian descent (who have enjoyed living on land in what is the ancient and modern seat of Serbian history - well fought for and never Abandoned by Serbians). Albanians, to repeat everlastingly; "ethnic Albanians". Your use of those particular words were gone missing when some 300,000 Serbians fled from Croatia. Shown out by the Albanians without benefit of civilized and correct diplomatic protocol.

"Kosovo" is a word I first heard this past week from Mrs. Albright in France and reiterated (drummed in, I presume, by repetition for future identification of Muslim Albanians - assuming they steal (without help) and kick the Serbians out of Kosovo.) Finding it necessary to coin a name for a part of a sovereign nation is a bit theatrical.

To quote you further, "our interests and our values are at stake" ... in answer to Mr. Lehrer's question to you as to why this action concerns us;
I would not have stopped there, I would ask why and in what way. Put bluntly Mr. Berger, "our interests and our values" in this instance are those only of the ethnic Albanians. Something I personally find only nominally deceptive.

Why do I get the distinct feeling our American military will be told to fight and die in a battle benefiting directly and only Albanians (let's dispense with "ethnic" just this once). Why do I believe we are being told by Albanians "... we'll hold your coast - you fight the Serbs and we'll pick up the pieces."

Let me recommend a little book to you.
There is a Dares Press 1989 Edition of R.G.D. Laffan's September 19 1917, lectures,
"THE SERBS," THE GUARDIANS OF THE GATE. It's history first hand and could just possibly enlighten you as to just who the Serbians are (I know,
"who cares?"). I could also recommend "ALL BETRAYED" by Canadian David Martin. And,
THE SERBS CHOOSE WAR, by Ruth Mitchell, Grand Billy Mitchell's sister. And for far more current reading, any of DR. ALEXANDER N. DRAGNICH's books on Serbia and Serbian history.
You have stepped into a world known only to Serbians - it might prove useful to know who they are.

Respectfully
Lela B. Vranes L

- The USG should request the North Atlantic Council to task the NATO Military Authorities to plan for air operations beyond the initial package of strikes already planned in NATO. The planning should include options to respond to: (1) FRY offensive operations in Kosovo and (2) FRY attacks on NATO forces. (Action: State) (S)
- The VJ should be warned through military channels of the consequences to the VJ of NATO air strikes, so as to undermine VJ support for launching a military offensive in Kosovo. (Action: DoD) (S)
- Assuming that the talks in Paris will not produce an agreed interim settlement, the Principals should reconvene to consider the following two paths:
 - First, using a Kosovar Albanian "yes" and Serb "no" to pose a credible threat of NATO air strikes with the aim of securing Belgrade's acceptance of the interim settlement, while ensuring that NATO is ready to execute air strikes to reduce Belgrade's capability to conduct offensive operations in Kosovo;
 - Second, disengaging from the talks without a concluding threat of air strikes, while keeping NATO ready to respond to further FRY offensive operations or atrocities. (Action: NSC) (S)

- Deputies should prepare a timeline that takes into account the need for (1) deliberate planning for air strikes; and (2) intensive diplomatic efforts in Belgrade. (Action: NSC) ~~(S)~~
- The first round of air strikes should not be launched without agreement in principle on a substantial follow-on package. With this in mind, Secretaries Albright and Cohen and Chairman Shelton will contact their counterparts to emphasize the need for careful planning and to build consensus for substantial air operations. (Action: State, DOD, JCS) ~~(S)~~
- Secretary Richardson should not accept Milosevic's invitation to visit Belgrade unless Milosevic provides assurance that (1) he will not begin an offensive during or immediately after the trip; and (2) will discuss all implementation issues. Principals will consider further whether the Secretary should carry with him a letter from the President. (Action: State) ~~(S)~~
