

FOIA MARKER

This is not a textual record. This is used as an administrative marker by the Clinton Presidential Library Staff.

Folder Title:

Chronos for July 1999 Part II [6]

Staff Office-Individual:

Kosovo Office-Schulte, Gregory

Original OA/ID Number:

1707

Row:	Section:	Shelf:	Position:	Stack:
39	1	6	3	V

TO: BARCIA, JAMES A
ET AL

FROM: PRESIDENT

DOC DATE: 24 JUN 99
SOURCE REF:

KEYWORDS: KOSOVO
CO

MILITARY POSTURE

PERSONS:

SUBJECT: CONGRESSIONAL CORRESPONDENCE ON KOSOVO

ACTION: PRESIDENT SGD LTRS

DUE DATE: 21 MAY 99 STATUS: C

STAFF OFFICER: HURLEY

LOGREF: 9902911 9903197

FILES: PA

NSCP:

CODES:

DOCUMENT DISTRIBUTION

FOR ACTION

FOR CONCURRENCE

FOR INFO

MOYN

NSC CHRON

SARGEANT

SCHULTE

COMMENTS: _____

DISPATCHED BY EMU DATE 6/29 BY HAND W/ATTCH

OPENED BY: NSEMK

CLOSED BY: NSEMK

DOC 6 OF 6

DOC ACTION OFFICER

CAO ASSIGNED ACTION REQUIRED

001 HURLEY	Z	99051014	PREPARE MEMO FOR BERGER
002 BERGER	Z	99052419	FWD TO PRESIDENT FOR SIGNATURE
002 MOYN	Z	99052515	FOR REDO
002 BERGER	Z	99052617	FWD TO PRESIDENT FOR SIGNATURE
002 STEIN, L	Z	99052720	FOR SIGNATURE
002 EXECSEC	Z	99052914	FOR FURTHER ACTION
002 STEIN, L	Z	99052914	FOR SIGNATURE
003	X	99060210	KERRICK SGD MEMO
003 PRESIDENT	Z	99060210	FOR SIGNATURE
003 HURLEY	Z	99060518	FOR FURTHER ACTION
004 BERGER	Z	99061613	FWD TO PRESIDENT FOR SIGNATURE
004 STEIN, L	Z	99061716	FOR SIGNATURE
004 EXECSEC	Z	99062414	FOR FURTHER ACTION
005 PRESIDENT	Z	99062520	FOR SIGNATURE
006	X	99062913	PRESIDENT SGD LTRS

DISPATCH DATA SUMMARY REPORT

DOC	DATE	DISPATCH FOR ACTION	DISPATCH FOR INFO
------------	-------------	----------------------------	--------------------------

003	990602		VICE PRESIDENT
003	990602		PODESTA, J
006	990624	BARCIA, JAMES A	CIA
006	990624	ABERCROMBIE, NEIL	STATE
006	990624	BARTLETT, ROSCOE G	DEFENSE
006	990624	BOSWELL, LEONARD
006	990624	BROWN, CORRINE
006	990624	CAPUANO, MICHAEL
006	990624	CARSON, JULIA
006	990624	CLEMENT, BOB
006	990624	COLLINS, MICHAEL
006	990624	CONYERS JR, JOHN
006	990624	COSTELLO, JERRY F
006	990624	CRAPO, MIKE
006	990624	CUMMINGS, ELIJAH
006	990624	DAVIS, DANNY
006	990624	DOMENICI, PETE V
006	990624	ESHOO, ANNA G
006	990624	FARR, SAM
006	990624	FORD, HAROLD JR
006	990624	GIBBONS, JIM
006	990624	HAYES, ROBERT
006	990624	HINCHEY, MAURICE D
006	990624	JACKSON, JESSE JR
006	990624	KILPATRICK, CAROLYN
006	990624	KLECZKA, GERALD D
006	990624	KUCINICH, DENNIS
006	990624	MCDERMOTT, JIM
006	990624	MCNULTY, MICHAEL R
006	990624	MEEK, CARRIE
006	990624	MEEKS, GREGORY

UNCLASSIFIED
DISPATCH DATA SUMMARY REPORT

RECORD ID: 9903550

DOC	DATE	DISPATCH FOR ACTION	DISPATCH FOR INFO
006	990624	MILLER, GEORGE
006	990624	MINK, PATSY T
006	990624	OWENS, MAJOR R
006	990624	PAYNE, DONALD M
006	990624	PHELPS, DAVID
006	990624	PITTS, JOSEPH
006	990624	RUSH, BOBBY L
006	990624	SANDERS, BERNARD
006	990624	SAXTON, H JAMES
006	990624	SHERWOOD, DONALD
006	990624	UDALL, MARK
006	990624	VOINOVICH, GEORGE
006	990624	WATT, MELVIN
006	990624	WELDON, CURT
006	990624	WOOLSEY, LYNN C
006	990624	WH STRIPPING DESK

UNCLASSIFIED

TO: PRESIDENT

FROM: ^{Rep.} VOINOVICH, GEORGE
CRAPO, MIKE

DOC DATE: 14 APR 99
SOURCE REF: 301680

KEYWORDS: KOSOVO
CO

MILITARY POSTURE

PERSONS:

SUBJECT: REQUEST CONSENT OF CONGRESS BEFORE SENDING GROUND TROOPS TO KOSOVO

ACTION: PREPARE MEMO FOR BERGER

DUE DATE: 10 MAY 99 STATUS: S

STAFF OFFICER: HURLEY

LOGREF:

FILES: PA

NSCP:

CODES:

D O C U M E N T D I S T R I B U T I O N

FOR ACTION
HURLEY

FOR CONCURRENCE
LACKEY
SCHULTE
VON LIPSEY

FOR INFO
BELL
BLINKEN

COMMENTS: IF FINAL REPLY CANNOT BE PREPARED BY DUE DATE, AN INTERIM RESPONSE
MUST BE PREPARED FOR MILES LACKEY'S SIGNATURE.

DISPATCHED BY _____ DATE _____ BY HAND W/ATTCH

OPENED BY: NSEMK

CLOSED BY:

DOC 1 OF 1

TO: PRESIDENT

FROM: DOMENICI, PETE V

DOC DATE: 04 MAY 99
SOURCE REF: 303498

KEYWORDS: KOSOVO
CO

MILITARY POSTURE

PERSONS:

SUBJECT: ASKS POTUS SEND REQUEST IF KOSOVO REQUIRES MEANS BEYOND AIR CAMPAIGN

ACTION: PREPARE MEMO FOR BERGER

DUE DATE: 21 MAY 99 STATUS: S

STAFF OFFICER: HURLEY

LOGREF:

FILES: PA

NSCP:

CODES:

D O C U M E N T D I S T R I B U T I O N

FOR ACTION
HURLEY

FOR CONCURRENCE
LACKEY
SCHULTE
VON LIPSEY

FOR INFO
BELL

COMMENTS: IF FINAL REPLY CANNOT BE PREPARED BY DUE DATE, AN INTERIM RESPONSE
MUST BE PREPARED FOR MILES LACKEY'S SIGNATURE.

DISPATCHED BY _____ DATE _____ BY HAND W/ATTCH

OPENED BY: NSEMK

CLOSED BY:

DOC 1 OF 1

UNCLASSIFIED

NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL

THE WHITE HOUSE

PROOFED BY: _____ LOG # 3550
URGENT NOT PROOFED: _____ SYSTEM PRS INT ARS
BYPASSED WW DESK: _____ DOCLOG TTC A/O _____

	SEQUENCE TO	INITIAL/DATE	DISPOSITION
JACOBSON	_____	_____	_____
POWELL	_____	_____	_____
SARGEANT	_____	_____	_____
DAVIES	_____	_____	_____
KERRICK	_____	_____	_____
STEINBERG	_____	_____	_____
BERGER	_____	_____	_____
SITUATION ROOM	_____	_____	_____
WEST WING DESK	1	TTC 6/29	φ
RECORDS MGMT.	2	EMK 6/29	φ
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____

A = ACTION I = INFORMATION D = DISPATCH R = RETAIN N = NO FURTHER ACTION

CC: _____
COMMENTS: DATE 6/24/99

EXEC SEC OFFICE HAS DISKETTE _____

NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL

THE WHITE HOUSE

PROOFED BY: _____

LOG # 3550 Redu

URGENT NOT PROOFED: _____

SYSTEM PRS INT ARS

BYPASSED WW DESK: _____

DOCLOG JTC A/O _____

	SEQUENCE TO	INITIAL/DATE	DISPOSITION
Cen JACOBSON	_____	_____	_____
POWELL	_____	_____	_____
RICE	1	RC 6/17	_____
DAVIES	_____	_____	_____
KERRICK	2	DK 6/17	_____
STEINBERG	copy	_____	_____
BERGER	copy	_____	_____
SITUATION ROOM	_____	_____	_____
WEST WING DESK	3	DMK 6/17	DAGR
RECORDS MGMT.	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____

A = ACTION I = INFORMATION D = DISPATCH R = RETAIN N = NO FURTHER ACTION

CC: _____

COMMENTS: Response to Letters on Kosovo

EXEC SEC OFFICE HAS DISKETTE

When additional letters are approved, need to ~~to~~ refer to letters in responses to Voinovich and Collins.

NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL
THE WHITE HOUSE

PROOFED BY: _____ LOG # 3580
 URGENT NOT PROOFED: _____ SYSTEM PRS INT ARS
 BYPASSED WW DESK: _____ DOCLOG _____ A/O _____

	SEQUENCE TO	INITIAL/DATE	DISPOSITION
JACOBSON	_____	_____	_____
POWELL	_____	_____	_____
RICE	_____	_____	_____
DAVIES	_____	_____	_____
KERRICK	_____	_____	_____
STEINBERG	_____	_____	_____
BERGER	_____	_____	_____
SITUATION ROOM	_____	_____	_____
WEST WING DESK	1	6/2 DMC	X copy 1
RECORDS MGMT.	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____

A = ACTION I = INFORMATION D = DISPATCH R = RETAIN N = NO FURTHER ACTION

CC:

COMMENTS:

EXEC SEC OFFICE HAS DISKETTE _____

NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL
THE WHITE HOUSE

PROOFED BY: _____ LOG # 3580
 URGENT NOT PROOFED: _____ SYSTEM PRS INT ARS
 BYPASSED WW DESK: _____ DOCLOG _____ A/O _____

	SEQUENCE TO	INITIAL/DATE	DISPOSITION
JACOBSON	_____	_____	_____
POWELL	_____	_____	_____
RICE	_____	_____	_____
DAVIES	_____	_____	_____
KERRICK	_____	_____	_____
STEINBERG	_____	_____	_____
BERGER	_____	_____	_____
SITUATION ROOM	_____	_____	_____
WEST WING DESK	1	D 6/5	D
RECORDS MGMT.	_____	_____	_____
Huxley	2	_____	A
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____

A = ACTION I = INFORMATION D = DISPATCH R = RETAIN N = NO FURTHER ACTION

CC:

COMMENTS:

EXEC SEC OFFICE HAS DISKETTE _____

NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL
THE WHITE HOUSE

3550

PROOFED BY: _____ LOG # 3550
 URGENT NOT PROOFED: _____ SYSTEM PRS INT ARS
 BYPASSED WW DESK: _____ DOCLOG _____ A/O _____

	SEQUENCE TO	INITIAL/DATE	DISPOSITION
JACOBSON	_____	_____	_____
POWELL	_____	_____	_____
RICE	_____	_____	_____
DAVIES	_____	_____	_____
KERRICK	_____	_____	_____
STEINBERG	_____	_____	_____
BERGER	_____	_____	_____
SITUATION ROOM	_____	_____	_____
WEST WING DESK	1	D 6/5	D
RECORDS MGMT.	_____	_____	_____
Hawley	2	_____	A
_____	_____	_____	_____

on Kosovo

Crapo regarding that you submit a ed States to

 n. Senators
 ter with the same

A = ACTION I = INFORMATION D = DISPATCH R = RETAIN N = NO FURTHER ACTION

CC:

COMMENTS:

EXEC SEC OFFICE HAS DISKET

6-4-99
 BACK TO NSC
 FOR UPDATE
 (S)

yard to ground aken any option deployment of onal security

8 to consult upport before non-permissive

Tab 5 Incoming Correspondence to senators Domenici, Voinovich, and Crapo

cc: Vice President
 Chief of Staff

NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL
THE WHITE HOUSE

NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL
THE WHITE HOUSE

PROOFED BY: _____ LOG # 3550
 URGENT NOT PROOFED: _____ SYSTEM PRS INT ARS
 BYPASSED WW DESK: _____ DOCLOG 72 A/O _____

PROOFED BY: _____ LOG # 3550 page
 URGENT NOT PROOFED: _____ SYSTEM PRS INT ARS
 BYPASSED WW DESK: _____ DOCLOG ENK A/O _____

	SEQUENCE TO	INITIAL/DATE	DISPOSITION
JACOBSON
POWELL	1	has seen
RICE
DAVIES
KERRICK
STEINBERG
BERGER
SITUATION ROOM
WEST WING DESK	2	UCS/25	✓
RECORDS MGMT.
Moyn	3		A

	SEQUENCE TO	INITIAL/DATE	DISPOSITION
k JACOBSON
POWELL
RICE	1	PS/27
DAVIES
KERRICK	2	OS/27
STEINBERG
BERGER
SITUATION ROOM
WEST WING DESK	3	ENK 5/27	✓ plek
RECORDS MGMT.

A = ACTION I = INFORMATION D = DISPATCH R = RETAIN N = NO FURTHER ACTION

A = ACTION I = INFORMATION D = DISPATCH R = RETAIN N = NO FURTHER ACTION

CC:
COMMENTS:

Consolidated from 3147

CC: Domenici letter received 10 May. Voinovich letter received 28 Apr

COMMENTS: Cons. Correspondence on Kosovo

EXEC SEC OFFICE HAS DISKETTE yes

EXEC SEC OFFICE HAS DISKETTE yes

THE WHITE HOUSE

PROOFED BY: _____ LOG # 3334
 URGENT NOT PROOFED: _____ SYSTEM ~~PRS~~ INT ARS
 BYPASSED WW DESK: _____ DOCLOG ~~ZE~~ A/O _____

TMAA

	SEQUENCE TO	INITIAL/DATE	DISPOSITION
JACOBSON	_____	_____	_____
POWELL	1	has seen	_____
RICE	_____	_____	_____
DAVIES	_____	_____	_____
KERRICK	_____	_____	_____
STEINBERG	_____	_____	_____
BERGER	_____	_____	_____
SITUATION ROOM	_____	_____	_____
WEST WING DESK	2	TCS/25	Ø
RECORDS MGMT.	_____	_____	_____
Moyn	3	_____	A

Recommend these letters be answered w/ ONE Presidential response

V/R
 [Signature]

DISPATCH R = RETAIN N = NO FURTHER ACTION

per Powell note, combine these 6 packages into one. Print off 1 letter. Additional letters will be printed off once language of letter is approved by Berger + Stein

E yes

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Jim:

Thank you for your letter on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Barcia". The signature is written in a cursive, slightly stylized font.

The Honorable James A. Barcia
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-2205

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Neil:

Thank you for your letters on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Bill", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Neil Abercrombie
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-3704

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Representative Bartlett:

Thank you for your letters on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Bill Clinton". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style with a prominent initial "B".

The Honorable Roscoe G. Bartlett
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-2006

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Leonard:

Thank you for your letter on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Boswell". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large initial "B".

The Honorable Leonard L. Boswell
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-1503

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Corrine:

Thank you for your letters on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Brown". The letters are cursive and somewhat stylized.

The Honorable Corrine Brown
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-0903

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Michael:

Thank you for your letters on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Bai" or "Baiu", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Michael E. Capuano
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-2108

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Julia:

Thank you for your letter on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Bill", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Julia M. Carson
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-1410

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Bob:

Thank you for your letter on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Bob", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Bob Clement
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-4205

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Representative Collins:

Thank you for your letter on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Bill Clinton". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style with a prominent initial "B".

The Honorable Michael A. "Mac" Collins
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-1003

thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Bill Clinton". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style with a prominent loop at the end.

The Honorable Jim Gibbons
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-2802

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear John:

Thank you for your letter on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Bill", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable John Conyers, Jr.
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-2214

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Jerry:

Thank you for your letter on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Bill", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Jerry F. Costello
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-1312

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Senator Crapo:

Thank you for your letter on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Bill Clinton". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a prominent "B" and "C".

The Honorable Michael D. Crapo
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510-1205

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Elijah:

Thank you for your letter on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Eliot Rubin". The signature is written in a cursive, slightly slanted style.

The Honorable Elijah Cummings
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-2007

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Danny:

Thank you for your letter on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

1

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Danny K. Davis
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-1307

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Thank you for your letter on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Bill Clinton". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style with a prominent initial "B".

The Honorable Pete V. Domenici
Chairman
Committee on the Budget
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510-3101

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Anna:

Thank you for your letter on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Sam:

Thank you for your letter on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Bill", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Sam Farr
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-0517

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Harold:

Thank you for your letter on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

2

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Bill", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Harold E. Ford, Jr.
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-4209

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Representative Gibbons:

Thank you for your letter on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Representative Hayes:

Thank you for your letter on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Bill Clinton". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style with a prominent loop at the end.

The Honorable Robert C. "Robin" Hayes
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-3308

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Maurice:

Thank you for your letters on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Bill", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Maurice D. Hinchey
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-3226

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Jesse:

Thank you for your letter on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Bill", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Jesse Jackson, Jr.
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-1302

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Carolyn:

Thank you for your letter on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Bill", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Carolyn Cheeks Kilpatrick
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-2215

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Jerry:

Thank you for your letter on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Bill", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Gerald D. Kleczka
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-4904

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Dennis:

Thank you for your letters on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "DK", is centered below the word "Sincerely,".

The Honorable Dennis J. Kucinich
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-3510

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Jim:

Thank you for your letter on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Jim". The letters are cursive and somewhat stylized.

The Honorable Jim McDermott
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-4707

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Mike:

Thank you for your letter on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Bill", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Michael R. McNulty
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-3221

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Carrie:

Thank you for your letter on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Carrie". The signature is written in a cursive, slightly stylized font.

The Honorable Carrie P. Meek
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-0917

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear Gregory:

Thank you for your letter on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Greg", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable Gregory W. Meeks
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-3206

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 24, 1999

Dear George:

Thank you for your letter on Kosovo. I greatly valued your thoughts as we worked to bring the NATO air campaign to a successful conclusion.

Now that Serbian leaders have accepted NATO's conditions, it is clear that force and diplomacy have worked in partnership to bring a necessary conflict to a just and honorable conclusion. Although we could not undo all the terrible things that happened to the people of Kosovo, our firmness finally brought an end to a vicious campaign of ethnic cleansing.

NATO met its objectives as an alliance. Nineteen democracies, each with different domestic pressures and historical ties to the Balkans, came together and stayed together through the longest, most difficult military engagement in NATO's 50 year history. The great partnership between the United States, Canada and Europe, on which our security depends, has emerged from a stern test stronger than ever.

I know you share my pride in the achievements of those who brought us to this point: above all, the fine men and women of our armed services whose performance throughout was outstanding. International diplomatic efforts -- including those of our Russian allies -- were also critical in bringing an end to the conflict on NATO's terms.

Now we are entering a new phase, bringing short-term security and long-term stability to this troubled region. I have decided to commit 7,000 troops to the largely European Kosovo Force (KFOR) that NATO has organized to restore peace to Kosovo. With KFOR's rapid entry into Kosovo, under NATO command and control and NATO rules of engagement, the process of bringing the refugees home to Kosovo in safety and under self-government is underway. Already, the United Nations and relief agencies are channeling vital humanitarian supplies to the hundreds of thousands of ethnic Albanians driven from their homes by Belgrade's brutal repression.

We will also be a driving force in the international community's longer-term effort to promote democracy and stability in this region. We are working closely with the European Union on a Stability Pact for Southeast Europe. Our European partners must provide most of the resources for this project, but it is in America's interest to do our part as well in order to help build a democratic future for the region and better lives for those who live in it.

The NATO action in Kosovo beat back the greatest remaining outpost of violent, aggressive nationalism in Europe, and opened the way to a Europe that can be, for the first time in its history, undivided, democratic and at peace. We have also reminded the world that when our values and our interests are threatened, Americans will stand up to defend them, today as we have throughout our history.

I hope I can count on your support as we work to bring a brighter future to the people of southeastern Europe.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Bill", written in a cursive style.

The Honorable George Miller
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515-0507