Ms. Kate Frucher
National Service Trust Fund
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Ms. Frucher:

Thank you for agreeing to arrange for us a meeting with Mr. Segal during the week of March 22-27. The group with whom Mr. Segal will be speaking will consist of 25 first and second-year MBA students, four J.D. students, and three Stanford faculty members.

Most of the MBA students in the group are participants in the Stanford Graduate School of Business' Public Management Program (PMP). The PMP has both an official academic component and a student-run extracurricular component. Each year, PMP participants pour their energies and creativity into a Public Management Initiative (PMI), consisting of a series of lectures, workshops, and projects that directly impact our community. The theme for next year's PMI will be Urban Development. The PMP prepares Stanford GSB graduates with the necessary skills for leadership in public service positions. The MBA students fall into three segments:

1. Those who intend to work in the public sector after graduation.
2. Those who intend to work in private corporations but are interested in supporting and developing public service initiatives from this vantage point.
3. International students with interests in United States public policy.

We envision a 1-2 hour meeting that begins, after introductions, with remarks from Mr. Segal regarding the activities of the White House Office for National Service. He may speak for as long as he wishes, or only briefly. We would like to leave ample room for an informal question, answer and discussion period following Mr. Segal's remarks, as we anticipate a great amount of interest and input from the group itself. A list of topics that would be of interest, as well as questions that Mr. Segal may anticipate, follows:

1. An overview of the Clinton Administration's national service corps program. (Participants will have read briefing materials gathered from press. Nonetheless it may be useful to provide an overview and bring the group "up to date" on the status of the program.)

2. How will the program mesh with the Administration's other domestic policy initiatives (e.g. education, training, environmental cleanup, economic development, etc.).
3. How will the program be managed/implemented?
4. What will be the content and location for jobs in the pilot program? For the broader program?
5. What should/will be the role of businesses and corporations in both the implementation of the program and the development of a public service ethic in the United States?
6. What role(s), if any, does Mr. Segal envision for public-service minded business school graduates both within the program itself, and as liasons to the program from within the business community? ✓
7. What is Mr. Segal's personal vision for public service in the United States?

Information regarding Mr. Segal's background would be very useful for our briefing book. If possible, could you fax a short biographical sketch or other information to me at (415) 723-7967?

I realize that we've not yet managed to speak on the phone to arrange a time and place for the meeting. May I start by suggesting Monday March 22 (other than 11:00am-12:00pm) or Tuesday March 23 (early morning or late afternoon)?

Again, thank you. I look forward to speaking with you.

Kindest Regards,

Jeffrey J. Pelletier

MESSAGE:

Per our conversation, attached is a list of the names and birthdates of the persons who will be meeting with Ms. Rivlin in the morning on Friday, March 26. As I mentioned, our group will be reconvening on Sunday March 21 in Washington, at which time I will finalize the shorter list of the fifteen people to attend our 11:30 meeting. I will fax this list to you on Monday, March 22.

Note that my name is not on the list, as I will not be in Washington on March 26. With the information I send to you on March 22, I will include the name of a new contact person to coordinate with you any further arrangements for the Friday meeting.

If you wish to contact me or the new contact person from our group during the week of March 22-26, you may leave a message on our voice mailbox in Washington: (301)-702-6971.
