Dear Mr. Segal:

On behalf of the Congressional Youth Leadership Council, it is a pleasure to extend to you an invitation to address the Winter 1993 National Young Leaders Conference (NYLC). The Council is a non-profit educational organization dedicated to the civic education of our youth. This winter select groups of 350 outstanding high school juniors and seniors from across the country will come to Washington for an intensive study of the three branches of government, the media, and international affairs.

Believing that we can be of no greater service to our country than by instilling an appreciation and an understanding of our heritage and democratic institutions in the "successor generation," the NYLC provides a unique opportunity for students to gain an insider's view of government by interacting with those individuals who shape public policy.

As Assistant to the President for National Service, we would like you to reflect upon your role in the new administration and address the issues currently on your agenda that are certain to challenge you during the next four years. Your address will give these students a perspective on the difficulty of affecting change and implementing new ideas at a time when government is bound by economic constraints and societal demands.

Congratulations on your new position, we wish you the best of luck. If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Rob (ext. 111) or Ellen (ext. 109) at (202) 638-0008. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Ellen D. Patterson
