Dear Mr. Segal,

Congratulations on your appointment to the office of Director of the Office of National Service. Those of us who are deeply involved with volunteers through our Governor's Commission on Volunteers, Viva (Vermonters in Volunteer Administration) and the Vermont Board of National and Community Service are looking forward to working with you and your office as this country becomes increasingly aware of the value and importance of volunteer involvement in community service.

As you might expect, we have a request.

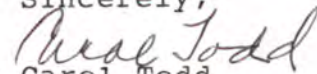

On May 4, 1993, the three organizations mentioned above will hold a Celebration of Volunteerism for the volunteer community of Vermont. This event will be a day long conference of volunteer managers, direct service volunteers of all ages, and others committed to the ideals and values of bringing non-paid staff, into the problem solving process through commitment caring, and above all, service.

The program will include educational workshops, a keynote address by a national figure in student community service and a series of award presentations to outstanding volunteer programs, exceptional volunteers and successful school-community partnerships.

We would like very much to have either President or Mrs. Clinton close the day with an inspirational message to the 350 anticipated participants. If that is not possible we would like to have one or both of them appear on a brief video we might show the attendees. If this video could address our gathering directly and serve as a springboard for increased service in the next year, we would be most grateful.

Please call me if I may be of assistance or offer further information.

Sincerely,

Carol Todd
