Dear Mr. Segal:

As President of Women in Government Relations (WGR), and on behalf of our 750+ members, I extend our heartiest congratulations on your appointment as the President's Assistant for Appointments and Scheduling. Welcome to Washington.

WGR consists of government relations professionals responsible for Federal and state legislative/regulatory/political issues. Members represent corporations, trade associations, consulting and law firms, public interest concerns, Capitol Hill and Federal agencies before state governments, Congress and the Executive Branch. Although WGR is prohibited by its By Laws from taking positions on issues, you will find support/opposition among our membership on every imaginable issue. Our members look forward to helping implement the Clinton agenda, thus extricating our country from its current morass. This assistance can take the form of active support for a position, or constructive criticism and information on the opposition's positions. A copy of our last Annual Report is enclosed; the back pages list our members' organizations.

I look forward to the opportunity of providing any assistance you or your staff may require from WGR, my organization or me. My business card is attached; please call on me at any time.

Our best wishes on your new challenges.

Sincerely,

Cynthia Lebrun-Yaffe
President

WGR...an organization committed to the professional and educational development of women in the field of government relations.
