Please fill in all columns for all objectives. It is important to make sure that each objective is listed with its own "OP site" (Operating site) code; this ensures that we know precisely what service is performed at each site. Please fill in all columns for each objective. Under "Obj No.," please give each new objective a number different from the number used for any of the objectives on the proceeding page. Under "PGM Code", please use a one-letter and three-digit code to describe the service from the code list provided at the end of this report. Under "Obj/Impact statement," provide a several-word summary of the nature of the service project -- this verbal summary should roughly match the "PGM Code" listed in the previous column. Under "Year's QTY Target," provide a hard number for the people or things aided. Under "Target Unit of Measurement," specify what unit of measure was used in the previous column -- such as miles, number of people served, acres, etc. Under "1st QTR Quantity," provide a hard number indicating progress towards the "Year's QTY Target" that was accomplished during this reporting period. Under "Year's Success Target," provide a hard number for a way of measuring how well the service was provided. Under "Successes Unit of Measure," specify exactly what the number in the previous column meant. Under "1st QTR Success," provide a hard number indicating progress towards the "Year's Success Target" that was accomplished during this reporting period.

15. Community Service Objectives Narrative:

If you feel it is necessary and/or helpful, you may use this space to describe in more detail accomplishments towards the original community service objectives reported in question 14. Please make sure you include the Operating Site ID Number in each narrative description so we can be clear which accomplishment is matched to which site.

OP SITE P21A: Burnam helped a Korean War veteran receive a V. A. Grant for $38,000. He made a total of 40 housing contacts in a three county area.

OP SITE P21C: Robby has been assisting with plans to renovate a homeless shelter called Ashlee's House. Presently, one of the two units added to the structure is almost complete, and preparations are beginning to start constructing a second unit. Also, he does budget counseling, client updates, site visits and inspections, and referrals. He helped tear down the ceilings in an old homeless shelter, so the building could be renovated.

OP SITE P21E: At her non-profit site, HANDS, Inc., Amanda was contacted by a lady who lived with her mother and was unable to get a bank loan for a house because her income was too low. However, her income was too high to get assistance through HANDS, Inc. Amanda referred the lady to the local RECD, Rural Economic and Community Development, office. The lady received a guaranteed home loan through RECD, and Amanda helped process the loan.

OP SITE P21H: This quarter, Lori has had three 504 loans for approximately $12,081 and four 504 grants totalling $17,450 approved.

OP SITE P21J: Lance has helped 15 families in five counties explore avenues for improving their living conditions; has packaged three RECD 504 Home Improvement loans/grants; and has assisted one family with an RECD/HPG, Housing Preservation Grant. In addition, several non-profits asked for Lance's help with outreach and packaging of loans, and Lance extended his service area by adding two additional counties.

OP SITE R21A: Becky has been compiling a list of resources to help make the lifeskills classes as effective as possible. This list of resources will include facilities that can be used for classes, volunteers who will teach the classes, and group activities in which the participants will be involved. As a result, Becky has located a computer lab to hold a computer literacy class in, a Legal Aid to teach the adult learners about vital legal issues, and a local cosmetology school which will do makeovers for the students. Classes should begin in the next quarter.

She has also helped plan a litter pick-up project for volunteers in Laurel, Rockcastle and Jackson Counties. The clean-up will take place in April.

OP SITE R21B: Mona has mailed 20 Adopt-A-Room contracts with letters explaining how the program works to civic and church groups. This has resulted in five invitations for Mona to speak to these groups at upcoming meetings about the shelter and the Adopt-A-Room program.

Mona has also been contacted to work with a group of at-risk teens. She will present the classes from the lifeskills course she developed last year for AmeriCorps and is developing additional classes including one dealing with conflict resolution and controlling anger geared toward troubled teens. The students in her class have volunteered to put together welcome packets for residents at the emergency shelter when it opens.

OP SITE R21I: Justin reports: "The measure of success has not changed from the first quarterly report due to a change in the computer road management system. The change is a computer program called 'Streets on Disks' that will enhance the road management system that is currently being administered. The new program is a computer generated system that allows users to alter or overlay any desired changes to the map of their county.

"I have been working with the program to set it up to work with the road management system. This has altered my original work plan and detoured the road management system for a short period. This system allows the user to change the road name, type, direction, length, etc. However, the map is not up-to-date and does not include many new roads or road numbers. Therefore, I have to update each map on the road and draw in some roads. This is a long and tiresome task, but it is essential to make the system work.

"The purpose of the program is to allow user-friendly interaction to road information and to keep an illustrated version of current road maps. (State provided county maps are revised generally every ten years.) This program was purchased to allow users to instantly identify any road in the county by clicking a mouse and gathering sufficient information by viewing the road. If additional information is needed, the user can click on icons which are placed by sections of the road. These icons interface with the road management database system and allow surveyed information about the road to be shown instantaneously. This information is not just road related; it will also make information about bridges, minor structures, and signs easily accessible. The system has GPS (global positioning capabilities to overlay on the maps. In the near future, the McCreary County Water Department will use the same program to route water lines and share information with the road department to limit the amount of water lines being damaged by road work.

"The sign project has been temporarily delayed due to lay offs within the county road department; however, through a small grant, I obtained a new sign machine that will take fewer people to operate, fulfill every signing need, and save a small fortune for the county."

16. Community Building Objectives Narrative:

OP SITE P21A: Burnam continued working with the Kentucky River Housing Task Force formed by Kentucky River Area Development District and Kentucky Housing Corporation. He also began talking with the City of Jackson about applying for a CDBG grant to repair downtown housing complexes and revitalize the downtown area.

OP SITE P21B: Paula reports: "I worked with Tony Snell from the Laurel County Rural Economic and Community Development (RECD) office, Ruth Martin at Daniel Boone Development Council, and Dottie Levine from Community Cooperative Care (CCC) to provide safe and sanitary housing. For example, with one client Tony's office made an emergency 504 loan, Ruth's office leveraged in weatherization funds, and Dottie's office helped by donating money and materials. The combined effort offered much needed assistance that the client, Joyce Coots, could not have received from any one program or agency."

OP SITE P21C: Robby is continuing to work with the Daniel Boone Development Council, the Flatwoods Project, the Kentucky Housing Corporation, the Kentucky Housing Foundation, the Rockcastle County Board of Education, the governor's office, Rockcastle County Fiscal Court, Livingston Economic Alternatives in Progress, and the citizens of Livingston to plan the restoration of an old school in Livingston, Kentucky.

OP SITE P21E: Amanda states: "In verifying clients' applications for affordable living, I have ran into a great many people who cannot read or even write their name. Recently while I was interviewing a client, she mentioned the problems with adult literacy in Warren County. She talked about a project to improve the West side of Bowling Green. She asked me to spearhead and help teach adult literacy classes on the West side. In constructing this program, my objective is to teach people to read well enough to get a GED, allowing them to have better job opportunities. By doing this, I hope to decrease the amount of aide handed out locally to people who wish to do better but can't because of lack of education."

OP SITE P21H: Lori says: "I am currently working on bringing Habitat For Humanity to my county. I feel if this project goes through and has the support of the community, it will bring several different groups of people together, such as skilled and unskilled laborers, low, moderate and high income families, and people of various ethnic backgrounds. It will give the community a sense of respect and admiration for the structures they erect and for other citizens in the community."

OP SITE P21J: Lance states: "In this second quarter I have continued an excellent working relationship with the many social and community organizations that I established ties with in the first quarter. I have received no less than ten referrals from these organizations, and likewise, I have referred some cases to them.

"This quarter I have been involved in the following community building activities:

Appalachian Regional Commission-Advisory Council on Housing and Infrastructure. Involved in assisting a group of housing specialists to discuss and shape housing policies of the Appalachian Region of Kentucky. I serve with a contingency that specifically is involved with the rights and policies of low-income homeowners.

Synergy '96-Attended a conference in Louisville, Kentucky, which presented workshops on community service and service learning. During this conference, I joined AmeriCorps Members from my team and other programs to "Get Things Done" through a one-day service project. Our group painted one story of a Salvation Army Shelter."

OP SITE R21B: The Adopt-A-Room project keeps the community involved in an ongoing support role for the shelter. The work with the teens-at-risk will help these young people to realize they are an important part of society.

OP SITE R21F: Joe serves with the Service Connection which is partnered with Big Sandy Area Development District (BSADD). BSADD has an AmeriCorps Program with 20 Members. Through his association with those ACM's, Joe has a greater connection with the community. On a daily basis, Joe is partnered with community members, and he interacts with different community members when he does joint projects, like the Repair Affair, with the other AmeriCorps Members serving in his community.

OP SITE R21H: On March 29 and 30, volunteers from throughout Bowling Green came together to help clean up the West side neighborhood.

17. AmeriCorps Member Development Objectives Narrative:

Briefly describe how the AmeriCorps Members themselves have benefited from serving in the program, particularly in regard to expanding their own educational opportunity and increasing their own ethic of personal responsibility. Describe specific skills learned by Members through either their service or training. Describe any Members that earned a GED or otherwise advanced their education. Describe any Member that left public assistance to join AmeriCorps. Relate how AmeriCorps allowed Members to continue college or graduate school. Describe how Members may have changed their ethic of work, citizenship, or community volunteerism.

OP SITE P21A: Burnam comments: "The program has given me first hand construction planning experience from drawing plans to surveying and bidding jobs. [I also] completed RECD RH packaging training."

OP SITE P21B: Paula states: "My term of service has enabled me to complete my bachelor's degree after I receive my educational award. Without this opportunity, I may not have been able to return to school or may have had to borrow the money to complete my degree.

"[One] short term benefit of my service has been my realization of the plight of many people in Southeastern Kentucky. Many families in the area lack adequate and safe housing and cannot afford to improve their own state of affairs or at least don't know how to go about finding any help."

OP SITE P21E: Amanda says: "I have learned of the lack education [prevalent in this area]."

OP SITE R21B: Mona has discovered that there are more troubled teens in Kentucky than she realized. "When I first encountered my group of teens, I was deeply saddened," she says. "They have little sense of self-worth or purpose. The group [consists of] 10-15 girls a week, ages 12-14. As the mother of a 14-year-old daughter, it is difficult to see these girls with [so] little hope. The lifeskills classes will hopefully encourage them."

18. Unique Successes or Great Stories:

OP SITE P21A: Burnam enjoyed working "closely with a disabled Korean War veteran to finish [the vet's] home with VA grant monies to make it handicap accessible."

OP SITE P21D: Christel helped plan a local repair affair in her community. The project will take place in April. The Repair Affair targets low-income homes for one day exterior repairs. Eighty volunteers are expected to participate.

OP SITE P21E: Amanda comments: "I met a lady who is truly a champion of her community. She lives in a less fortunate part of town and her profession is as a manager of low-income apartments. She asked me to teach her friends and tenants to read. She wanted me to head a program geared to teaching adults to read. I have consented to volunteer my time after work to teach these adults to read."

OP SITE R21D: Will said: "I have helped almost 100 people in my community find employment. It is very rewarding to help the people in this area because they are so appreciative."

OP SITE R21F: "All our stories," comments Joe, "are successes in that many low-income families are served each month. Daily we are recruiting third party payors to subsidize repairs for these eastern Kentucky families/individuals. Even with the weather problems encountered this quarter, 29 services were performed-five of which were entirely at no expense to the homeowner. The others served were assisted at below market rates for the area. Plumbing, electrical work, roofing repairs, and accessibility ramps are some of [the services provided] this quarter."

OP SITE R21H: Lisa reports that one of her most positive experiences has been with the spring clean-up project she has been working on because of the tremendous community response. "I am gathering a broad-base of support," she says, "including volunteers, supplies and donations." Wal-Mart, Lowe's, Dollar General Store, and several local businesses have donated supplies and/or money. She has 100 volunteers signed up to help with the project, and a local realtor donated an ad. A radio station will do a live remote from the clean-up site.

19. Difficulties Faced by the Program:

OP SITE P21C: Robby reports: "The problems that were mentioned in the last quarterly report seemed to be taken to heart. It seems as if there is more communication between all AmeriCorps Members and the staff. I appreciate this very much. No [other] problems right now."

OP SITE P21D: Christel states: "Due to poorly defined site objectives, I was unable to function in a most productive manner serving as a Member who fulfills needs through my host non-profit that would go unmet. Productivity has been increased by my adding another, more housing focused non-profit organization as my service site. I did not completely break ties with the first non-profit, but added a second."

OP SITE P21E: "I have found," comments Amanda, "that people do not understand how first time home buying works. They do not know what goes on in a bank loan interview and how the loan is conducted. I would like to see a seminar for AmeriCorps Members on first time home buying. If we understand how first time home buying works, we can better educate and relieve the fear of our clients."

OP SITE P21H: Lori states: "I have had difficulty with the senior citizens I have worked with. They like the idea of having their house repaired, but they don't have the patience to wait for it to be done. It seems to me that they expect everything to be done overnight. I have a difficult time trying to explain that the paperwork and the construction itself is going to take a little bit of time."

OP SITE R21A: "Jury duty is still interfering with scheduled meetings," Becky states.

OP SITE R21B: Mona comments, "The [emergency] shelter is still not open (plumbing problems). There is still a lot of work going on, just not with my main objective. The weather has been horrible!"

OP SITE R21C: Laura explains that the weather has been a problem for her as well, "Road conditions were bad for much of the time and groundbreaking for the new rental housing project was delayed. I'm happy to say that ground was finally broken during the second quarter, however."

OP SITE R21D: "No difficulties with the problem," Will says, "just with trying to help find enough jobs for the people in the community. I have assisted with the placing of close to 100 people so far, but there are still so many unemployed people in the community who want to work."

20. National Identity Activities:

Kentucky AmeriCorps Members: One Member (R21B) continues to serve on a state member council. Four members joined a state-wide AmeriCorps recognition of MLK day by attending a celebration in Lexington, Kentucky. The festivities included a march through downtown Lexington, a program featuring young Kentuckian speakers from local schools, and numerous AmeriCorps service projects. Our Members joined 6 other AmeriCorps Members from various programs across the state at the Salvation Army where they cleaned the dining facility and sorted, stored, and displayed winter coats which had been donated.

On February 28 and 29, 1996, ten Members attended the Synergy '96 Conference in Louisville, Kentucky. This conference brought together educators, AmeriCorps and VISTA Members, and project managers from all over the state. There were numerous sessions including several on service learning, one on legal issues, one on grant writing, one on team building, one on future job searching, one called train the trainer, etc. The Members had the opportunity to interact with numerous AmeriCorps Members throughout the conference. Several of them also participated in the five service projects which the AmeriCorps Member Council had arranged.

We had a training meeting in Shelbyville on February 27, 1996. We reviewed documenting and reporting, addressed issues, planned upcoming projects, viewed a video tape (made by one of Members), looked over the first quarterly report, and discussed possibilities for additional training.

A USDA AmeriCorps Member from Virginia, Paula Bailey, participated with us in both our training meeting and the Synergy Conference.

Eleven Members attended a national training session for USDA Rural Development Team Members in Jackson, Mississippi. The training was March 24-29, 1996. Sessions covered a range of broad-based skills including community assessment, facilitation, media relations, group dynamics, managing and motivating volunteers, and strategic planning. The Members also had a chance to interact with AmeriCorps Members from across the nation who dealt with similar issues on a day-to-day basis.

OP SITE P21C: Robby attended an Expo in London, Kentucky, in which organizations within the community set up displays about their organizations. Robby met and talked with numerous community members and local high schoolers.

OP SITE P21D: In addition to participating in all group activities listed above, Christel helped plan and will participate in the Big Sandy Area Repair Affair with numerous community volunteers and around 20 other AmeriCorps Members from the area.

OP SITE R21A: To promote her sense of connection to AmeriCorps Members throughout the country, Becky introduces herself as an AmeriCorps Member at all meetings she attends, wears her AmeriCorps button whenever she is working, and hands out business cards.

OP SITE R21H: Lisa has been working with another USDA AmeriCorps Member, Amanda, to coordinate housing arrangements for other USDA Members who will be travelling to their site for an upcoming service project. Phase one of Lisa's clean-up project began March 29 and 30. Lisa invited AmeriCorps Members throughout the state to participate in all three phases of the project.

21. Organizational Changes:

OP SITE P21D: Christel added another non-profit organization to her service area.

OP SITE P21J: Lance added two counties to his service area and by request, began working with several more non-profits in his service area.

OP SITE R21D: Jennifer Jones, Will's site supervisor, is retiring from her job at the state employment office, one of Will's offices. She will continue to supervise him at his other office, the Bell County Chamber of Commerce since she is still the president of that organization. Will expects no substantial changes to his daily routine.

22. Organizational Improvements:

OP SITE P21C: "Efforts are being made to improve the (USDA) AmeriCorps program (in Kentucky), and it is appreciated."

OP SITE P21D: "USDA should require site supervisors to have well defined primary, secondary and supplemental objectives in order for Members to function in the most efficient and productive manner."

23. Primary Training and Technical Assistance Needs:

OP SITE P21A: "Open more doors for funding resources"

OP SITE P21D: "For those in rural housing, housing issues and problem identification training. (Hints and tips on major and minor points to check at an initial inspection and how to identify and correct potential and existing problems.)"

15. Community Service Objectives Narrative:

If you feel it is necessary and/or helpful, you may use this space to describe in more detail accomplishments towards the original community service objectives reported in question 14. Please make sure you include the Operating Site ID Number in each narrative description so we can be clear which accomplishment is matched to which site.

OP SITE P21A: Burnam is working with the development and acquisition phase of a subdivision project in Breathitt County, Kentucky.

OP SITE P21B: With one particular client, Paula found that the man was not eligible for weatherization assistance even though his house was greatly in need of repair. Paula contacted Christian Appalachian Project which agreed to supply the materials if she could find someone to do the labor.

OP SITE P21C: A lady who had just bought a home with her husband was suddenly widowed. The lady could no longer afford the mortgage payments on her new home. Robby packaged an emergency 502 loan to refinance the lady's mortgage. Now the lady will be able to keep her home.

OP SITE P21E: Amanda helped a man whose home had been gutted with fire get a loan to repair the home his family had lived in for nearly 30 years. The money helped the man to rebuild floors, restore windows, siding, and the roof as well as decorate the interior of his house.

OP SITE P21H: Lori helped a couple of elderly women each get a grant of $5,000 to repair their homes. She helped a disabled couple to get a 502 loan for $51,000. She helped another couple ineligible for an RECD loan to get on the waiting list of the Kentucky Housing Corporation's homeowner's program. She also helped another couple find jobs and open a savings account so they could get a loan to buy their first home.

OP SITE P21J: Lance stated: "A great deal of time, this quarter, was committed to training and 'learning the ropes' of the low income housing field. As in any form of learning, experience is the best teacher. The sum of trial and error experience has left me with an excellent working knowledge of low-income housing, and strategies to effectively assist [in this area]." Lance is working with 12 families in 5 counties, helping these families to have "safe, sanitary and decent housing".

OP SITE R21A: Several dumpsites and litter sites have been located, and with the help of the community more will be located. During the winter storms, clean-up plans have been started and will be carried through in spring and summer. Life skills classes are being planned and are scheduled to begin in April. Classes will include environmental components. Becky will teach two classes with 15 students in each class.

OP SITE R21H: In addition to working with her service objective, Lisa has been planning and organizing a community repair project and a spring clean-up project.

16. Community Building Objectives Narrative:

Briefly describe how projects have brought together diverse groups of people, empowered communities to solve their own problems, built long-term structures that will last beyond each AmeriCorps Member's term of service, and generally improved the abilities of local citizens to help improve their own lives.

OP SITE P21A: Burnam has participated in the Kentucky River Housing Task Force formed by Kentucky River Area Development District and Kentucky Housing Corporation. The group is working with local non-profit organization to form a strategy for sharing resources and dealing housing problems within the Kentucky River area.

OP SITE P21B: Paula helped with a project for elderly assisted living and economic revitalization of the Livingston community. The proposed project will join the resources of Kentucky Housing Foundation, Kentucky Housing Corporation, Rockcastle Board of Education, Rockcastle Fiscal Court, Daniel Boone Development Council, LEAP, and the governor's office.

OP SITE P21C: Robby is working with Paula (above) on the same project Paula discusses above. The goal is to rebuild an eastern Kentucky community. Ten assisted living housing units for the elderly will be constructed and an old gym will be restored and turned into a community center.

OP SITE P21E: Amanda worked with a man who had been divorced for years, but whose former wife decorated his new house. The couple's son was the building contractor. The lines of communication were reopened for this split family as they worked together on building a home for one of the family members.

OP SITE P21J: Lance has worked with numerous local, regional, state, and federal agencies in an effort to improve housing conditions of low-income families. Among others, he has worked with the Kentucky Homeless and Housing Coalition, Kentucky Housing Corporation, Christian Appalachian Project, and ARC. In addition, he noticed that a great many of the houses he visited lacked fire safety devices. He initiated a project in which local corporations that manufactured fire safety devices would donate these products to a local service organization which would distribute them to needy families. To date, 37 fire safety devices have been distributed. Lance also has been involved with organizing and conducting Homeowner Classes through Frontier Housing, a local non-profit organization.

OP SITE R21B: Mona has been working with numerous community members to address the issue of a local high school's upcoming closing. The group includes doctors, lawyers, retirees, blue-collar workers, accountants, and students from the community.

OP SITE R21H: Lisa has organized people on both sides of the political fence to come together for the good and benefit of the community. She is working with the Westside Neighborhood Association (WSNA) and her host agency (OPERATION PRIDE) to help the community of Bowling Green.

17. AmeriCorps Member Development Objectives Narrative:
Briefly describe how the AmeriCorps Members themselves have benefited from serving in the program, particularly in regard to expanding their own educational opportunity and increasing their own ethic of personal responsibility. Describe specific skills learned by Members through either their service or training. Describe any Members that earned a GED or otherwise advanced their education. Describe any Member that left public assistance to join AmeriCorps. Relate how AmeriCorps allowed Members to continue college or graduate school. Describe how Members may have changed their ethic of work, citizenship, or community volunteerism.

OP SITE P21E: Amanda states: "As as AmeriCorps Member in the field, I have received a true education with experience being my biggest teacher. I have been able to have a first hand look at the poor, how and why they are there, and how they stay there. I learned that I was not as poor as I thought I was, and some of these people have never been given the chance to move forward. I am proud that I have been given the chance to move forward, to continue my education. AmeriCorps has allowed me to do this and that is the sole reason why this program works."

OP SITE P21H: Lori says: "I have learned from this program that there are a lot of people that desperately need help...some people who are very grateful for the services provided, and that makes the whole thing worth it."

OP SITE P21J: Lance stated: "Thus far AmeriCorps has been one of the most rewarding experiences of my life. It has allowed me to view the world from an entirely different, yet positive perspective. It has also influenced my role as a citizen and a responsible member of the community. AmeriCorps, although rewarding is full of challenges and obstacles. However, to assist in my service I have had the fortune of attending many meetings and seminars that have enhanced the skills and knowledge I need to be a successful AmeriCorps member."

OP SITE R21A: "The programs that I have helped plan have taught me some leadership skills and planning skills," states Becky.

OP SITE R21B: Mona feels that she has benefitted by being able to serve a need with both the high school and elementary students by helping them cope with stress and diversity.

OP SITE R21D: Will said: "Being an AmeriCorps Member I have learned that no matter how big the task is if you have people who are willing to work together you can accomplish anything. AmeriCorps has allowed me to further my college education. It is a great program that should stay in existence in the future."

OP SITE R21H: "This is an excellent opportunity," writes Lisa, "valuable work skills, both written and verbal communication. Networking- I have met so many important and influential people by doing this. I met the mayor my first week and I call him by his first name as I also do the county judge executive."

18. Unique Successes or Great Stories:

OP SITE P21A: Burnam distributed toy bags for local children. Along with United Christian Ministries, Burnam helped give out over 400 food and toy bags for Christmas.

OP SITE P21C: Robby helped with the Town Hill project. The Town Hill project was a statement to challenge private and non-profit agencies to develop low income rental property which will "blend in". Four delapidated houses were turned into an eye catching part of the community. The governor of Kentucky attended the open house held for these housing units. Four more units are currently being constructed.

OP SITE R21C: Laura stated: "For 30 some odd years, two families in Clay County have had no road to their homes. Their only access to their homes has been a swinging bridge across the river. Appliances and other heavy objects must be hauled across the river by boat and carried up a steep, muddy slope. Working with the Clay County Judge Executive, I assisted in obtaining the necessary easements to build a road. This was difficult due to problems among the landowners. I also worked with the landowners in deciding where the road would be constructed on their properties."

OP SITE R21D: Will said: "I have helped over 50 people who were jobless into the workforce in my community. Some of them have either called or came in the office to show appreciation for our help."

OP SITE R21I: Justin: "I coordinated a small project called 'Operation Clean Sweep', an effort to clean litter along the county roadways." The project had about 80 people picking up litter. Similar projects are being planned for the future. Justin also had an article about his work published in LINK, a Kentucky Transportation magazine.

19. Difficulties Faced by the Program:

Kentucky AmeriCorps Members: There were two common problems that Members shared. One was lack of readily available funds for loans. The other was lack of advance notice given to them for meeting times, particularly the national USDA AmeriCorps meeting, which was rescheduled numerous times.

OP SITE R21A: "The only difficulty I have faced in this quarter has been with jury duty. Jury duty has interfered with scheduled meetings and AmeriCorps training meetings. It makes it hard to complete projects in a timely manner. I realize it is our civic duty, however, due to the fact that we only have 9 to 12 months to complete our service, we should be able to postpone our jury duty until our year of service is over. I am on a federal district court jury, in which I can be called to serve on for up to a year."

OP SITE R21B: One problem is that the emergency shelter, scheduled to open in August, is not yet opened.

OP SITE R21C: Laura feels she will be unable to attain primary objective due to the Home Buyer's Program in her area not receiving funding. Her objective, therefore, has to be modified.

OP SITE R21H: Finding a place to live was Lisa's most difficult challenge. She had to relocate to become a Member, and according to Lisa, "I almost had to turn this wonderful opportunity down because I couldn't find a nice apartment that was less than $450 a month." Lisa found a nice apartment in a safe neighborhood which she shares with a roommate, but she would like her own place.

20. National Identity Activities:

Kentucky AmeriCorps Members: Most Members now have all or part of their uniforms. In training, the Members learned about the Corporation for National Service, AmeriCorps and related service programs, USDA AmeriCorps programs, and the history of national service in this country. One Member on a state member council. Several Members know Members from other programs who live in their area. Several Members participated in a conference call with Joel Berg and two other USDA AmeriCorps Teams.

OP SITE P21J: "My fellow AmeriCorps Members and I have engaged in many activities to foster the national identity of AmeriCorps. For example, at my host organization, there are two other AmeriCorps Members from the Kentucky Homeless and Housing Coalition. On various occasions we have spoken to groups such as high school seniors, about the AmeriCorps program. Giving them a definition of what AmeriCorps is, telling them what we each do as an Americorps Member, and giving our own personal view and aspects of volunteer service."

OP SITE R21H: Lisa is planning a clean-up project for our whole USDA Team.

21. Organizational Changes:

OP SITE P21H: Lori's office site had to be changed. She was in the local county judge's office, but she did not have access to a phone or office supplies. All she had was an office. She appealed to the Chamber of Commerce to sponsor her. They agreed. She switched offices, and all is going well now.

OP SITE R21D: Will's first site supervisor took another job. Will has a new site supervisor, Jennifer Jones. Everything is going fine with his new supervisor.

OP SITE R21H: An intern from Western Kentucky University who worked with Lisa at OPERATION PRIDE graduated from school and left her internship.

22. Organizational Improvements:

OP SITE P21A: "Training should be more focused on objectives; not what, but how and why structures are to be remodeled, codes to be met."

OP SITE P21C: "Improvements would be to have more advanced notice for activities and meetings and more communication between AmeriCorps state leaders and site sponsor/supervisors."

OP SITE R21B: "We have the best program in the nation!"

OP SITE R21H: " Better communication at the national level and the team leader level. More assistance finding affordable housing in a safe place; don't have meetings all of the time because the community (of service) is more important."

23. Primary Training and Technical Assistance Needs:

OP SITE P21A: "Immediate training and certification for packaging loans."

OP SITE P21E: "A seminar for those who would need to know how to calculate house loan payments, and do financial budgets for these clients."

OP SITE R21B: "Internet training."

17. AmeriCorps Member Development Objectives Narrative:

OP SITE R21F: "Through the ADD-based AmeriCorps Program I have gained skills and confidence in carpentry and organization of people. I have become more aware of my community around me. Last Christmas I participated in donations for a local orphanage which was motivated by a newer sense of personal responsibility which I have gained through the AmeriCorps program. Due to the educational award I will be receiving at the end of my term, I will have greater freedom to continue my college education."

16. Community Building Service Narrative:

OP SITE R21F: "Work through The Service Connection, Inc. and a project done semi-annually, known as the Repair Affair brings together the community (as volunteers), existing contractors, and the home owners regularly. Repairs on homes such as painting to preserve homeowner investment, structural repair, ramp installations, etc. are done daily by The Service Connection using a variety of local people. Vocational school students, Job Corps members, etc. are just some of the diverse persons who regularly participate in upgrading conditions of homes in the region."

19. Difficulties Faced by the Program:

OP SITE R21F: "Of course, on-going problems surrounding funding for repairs is constant. Of utmost concern this winter has been the weather, which relating to the type services we perform has prevented us from traveling into some locales of the region. Many services cannot/could not be performed during the snow/cold temperatures. This has delayed many of the projects; however, all will be continued as the weather improves. Volunteers have not been as available during this time of year. Efforts will continue and improve as conditions improve."

18. Unique Successes or Great Stories:

OP SITE R21F: "We feel all the work we do are great stories. For instance, an accessibility ramp built in Wayland for an elderly, low-income lady needing dialysis was completed free of charge recently. A concrete 25 foot walkway was poured for a child with spina bifida in Johnson County free of charge. Roofing jobs needed, flooring repairs, plumbing problems, to name a few, are done daily to assist area residents in need."
