On April 5, from 2-3, Eli will be meeting with D.J. Jensen and Uri Treisman (a MacArthur Fellow) from the Charles Dana Foundation. They would like to talk about coordination between federal agencies and with the private sector for national service. They have been very enthusiastic about national service and I anticipate that the Dana Foundation will be underwriting two national direct proposals in the area of education. It would be very helpful if you were able to join Eli at this meeting. Please RSVP to me if you can come. Thanks.
