TRINITY COLLEGE

WASHINGTON

June 19, 1995

Ms. Shirley Sagawa
Executive Director
Corporation for National Service
1201 New York Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20525

Dear Shirley:

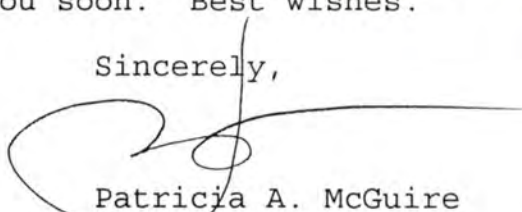

How pleased and delighted I was to have an opportunity to meet you during the National Roundtable on Women in Public and Nonprofit Leadership. I was so pleased to be included in your program, and grateful to my good colleague Anita Pampusch for all of the energy that went into planning the day. What a stellar gathering!

Trinity College is eager to continue to work with you, Anita and our other colleagues in the advancement of this agenda. Through Trinity's Center for Women in Public Policy, we believe we can make some significant contributions to the Corporation for National Service and the agenda of the National Roundtable. Perhaps you and I could get together at some point over the summer to talk about opportunities that Trinity might be able to support with you.

I also want to take this opportunity to thank and compliment members of your staff who came to Trinity and made stellar presentation during our Alumnae College Salute to Community Service. In particular, Janet Peters-Mauceri organized a team from the Corporation for National Service, and her eagerness to assist us was only matched by the pleasure of her presentation. We are so grateful to her and to everyone from the Corporation for National Service who made our day on community service really worthwhile.

Thanks again for all of your fine leadership, and I look forward to talking with you soon. Best wishes.

Sincerely,

Patricia A. McGuire
