Chris Cane/IBM/He has a meeting in Corporate headquarters on Wednesday. An update on the initiative for the Administration is conducting an Affirmative Action review. There was a rumor that the Administration was going to set up a commission to address the issue and that the timeline was the end of April. I think that George was handling this. He wants a status report as to where the Administration's view is. This issue will be on their agenda with the Senior Level Executives at IBM/Human Resources in Wednesday's meeting. He wants to describe accurately and fairly where the Administration is. He wants to have open communications with the Administration on this. 515-5036.
