✓ spoke to Charlie Harmon in the Chamber of Commerce re dinners-- he is inclined to not do the dinners b/c he's concerned about keeping people out too late (considering that the reception could easily run until 9:00 p.m. and he's not sure how late restaurants would be open.) Please call her.

9:24 a.m.

✓ John Emerson

notes on cabinet members...Rubin, Tyson, Rivlin, Ramenger should be session I; McLarty, Shalala, Rasco should be session II; Reich, Riley should be session III; Brown, Kantor, Lader, Spero should be session IV. He thinks you should put the ceiling for each panel at 26 total, leaving c.20 non-administration folks at each table. Run those lists out and see where you are on for

numbers. Also, we need to add a National Service person for II or III which may mean that we'll need to bump someone from one of those sessions. Meetings today: the 10 a.m. communications meeting you are welcome to attend but should not feel obligated to go to; 11 a.m. your Real People meeting; 2 and 3 p.m. Jonathan Sallet meetings; 2:30 p.m. press briefing in the press room which you're welcome to attend if you want.

John, as a former small business woman, major supporter and the Secretary's representative on empowerment communities, I would appreciate being invited to the President's Economic Summit to be held in Atlanta.

Has the Georgia list been updated? I will speak to Gordon Giffin about this. This continues to be a problem.

My home address is 675 Mountain Drive, Atlanta, Georgia 30342.

I would suggest four other business persons. Thanks for your attention to this matter.

Kellogg

March 8, 1995

Kate Carr
Office of Public Liaison
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Ave., NW
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Kate:

Congratulations on your new job. We have known each other a long time and I am glad that we will have the chance to continue to work together on projects of mutual interest.

Our recent conversations have included discussion of Kellogg's concerns with the process by which certain issues are initially raised by public officials. There is a great deal of concern with procedures that are directed at third parties without first giving us the opportunity to respond to any questions or concerns being raised. As we have discussed this matter presents more general issues of how the workings of government are perceived by those who live and work outside of the beltway. Kellogg's is a fine company that directly and indirectly employs thousands of Americans, pays taxes, and conducts its business in a responsible and accountable manner.

I would like to ask your assistance in obtaining a meeting with Alexis Herman and myself and two other Kellogg officials this Friday late in the morning or early afternoon. Joining my will be Richard M. Clark, Senior Vice President and General Counsel, and Joseph M. Stewart, Senior Vice President, Corporate Affairs.

Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,

John P. Ford
