Dear Mr. President:

On March 28th in New York City, Lew Rudin will be hosting a tribute to the people of Billings, Montana who successfully stood up to a campaign of intimidation and violence from hate groups.

This dinner provides an opportunity for the whole country to applaud the bravery of the people of Billings - a chance for everyone to recognize a community that did the right thing in the face of hatred, threats and intimidation. All of us can learn from the Billings experience.

Your acknowledgement of the courage shown by the people of Billings would have a very special meaning. I hope you will be able to attend the event. If that is not possible, I know that everyone attending the dinner would greatly appreciate a message of support from you.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Charles Schumer
