Dear Michael:

I just wanted to drop you a note to say that you were missed here at the White House last week. As I know how proud your father is of you, I'd been looking forward to meeting you.

I hope you'll keep working hard, learning all you can and believing in yourself. You have a very bright future ahead of you.

Sincerely,

Bill Clinton

TONIGHT:

PROPOSED PHONE CALL TO THE CONTRACT SIGNING CEREMONY
BETWEEN THE BOEING COMMERCIAL AIRPLANE GROUP AND SINGAPORE AIR

You would need to step out of your convention meeting this evening between 9:30 and 10:00 in order to place this phone call.

The purpose of this call is to emphasize the Administration's support of international trade, American jobs that depend on it, and the resurgence of the American aviation industry.

Singapore Airlines (SIA) announced on November 14, 1995, that it will order 34 Boeing 777 aircraft and place options for an additional 43 of the same. The total value of the order with options is approximately $12.7 billion.

Dear President Clinton,

I know this is a far fetched idea, one that may be looked at as a folly, but I believe in the way things are done.

I would like to photographically document you and your family from today until the election, focusing on values and the strength of the family in America. There are many choices that families can make and most of them are influenced by someone who has taken on the responsibilities of a family. A family that is solid and focused. One thing is clear, you have a wonderful family and you are leading this country in a direction that deals with problems that all families are up against.

I am an independent photojournalist, with a wife, Cathaleen and two children, Hannah age 7 (she will be 8 on the 5th of July) and Ella who is 5. I know what the values of family life are and I am willing to dedicate my personal time to expose these principals of your family to the citizens of our great country. (just as they are being done by the other political movements) If there is no family strength in this country, then what is there?

I realize that this letter will find a file somewhere, but I am looking out for the benefit of all the people that live in this great land.

Hope all is well. Call if you our interested, or would like to discuss my ideas. I'm sure that no one has made such a request.

Sincerely,

Rick

All we need are hungry friends to have a good time!

Please plan on attending!!

If you've never been, you've missed out! Don't miss this year!

As always the whole family is welcome! Give us a call if you have any questions.

Otherwise..... "We'll see ya, when we see ya!"

Thanks for you invite AND we both extend to you and your family an invite to ours.

I know this asking, but why not.

Directions: from Washington, take Rt. 50 (John Hanson Highway) east toward Annapolis. Exit at the Davidsonville, Rt 424 exit, take road to right, stay on 424 until you come to a traffic light (not the blinking yellow light) at Rt. 214 (central Ave.) Turn left you will pass Homestead Gardens. Stay on 214 until you come to Pike Ridge RD. There is a "Frank's" and a "South County Animal Hospital" on the right. It only goes to your left. Our house is on the left. White mailbox #3426. If you get to 7-11 you went to far turn around we are the second house on the right. On Rt. 214 you will have only one traffic light. If you get to a second light you've went to far. That second light is Rt. 2 turn left and then left again at Pike Ridge Rd. (just past 7-11), again second house on the right.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: Robert E. Rubin RE

SUBJECT: Potential Prepayment by Mexico

Mexico is working to arrange prepayment of a substantial portion of the $10.5 billion still owed to the United States. The prepayment would not be received until August. However, a transaction supporting the prepayment is now going to the market. Rumors and press reports are beginning to surface.

The prepayment would entail a "carve-out" (release) of some of the Mexican oil export revenues associated with our financial support program. The balance of the U.S. swaps will remain fully protected.

- A majority of the prepayment would come from proceeds of a bank loan, backed by released oil export revenues in a structure akin to the U.S. facility. Mexico and its bankers are targeting a deal of $2.5 billion, or possibly more.
- Mexico has also committed to make an additional prepayment to the U.S. from other recent or prospective market financings.
- Because of the benefits to the U.S., we are prepared to release our claim to some oil export proceeds to facilitate these prepayments. The share of oil proceeds carved-out would be less than the share of U.S. swaps prepaid, preserving adequate coverage of Mexico's remaining obligations.

Now that prospects of completing a deal are encouraging, we will inform key players in advance of a public announcement.

- We could receive criticism of the transaction from some in Congress. However, most Members - and the public - will likely view Mexico's large prepayment - the results of a transaction structured to protect U.S. interests - as a major sign of the program's success.
- Other G-7 members and the IMF may question why a large prepayment should be made to the U.S. without a corresponding reduction of the IMF's exposure. The answer is that the prepayment is justified by the release of oil flows that we now control and the extraordinary nature of the U.S. program.

RECOMMENDED TELEPHONE CALL

TO: Mr. Pat Taylor, 504-581-5491
of HOPE Scholarships program in Louisiana.

DATE: When convenient.

RECOMMENDED BY: Carol H. Rasco

PURPOSE: Thank you.

BACKGROUND: I've heard from a couple of people that it would be a nice gesture if you would call Pat Taylor in Louisiana who really started the first HOPE Scholarships program. Bruce Reed confirms that Louisiana first implemented the idea, although the program there hasn't done as well as in Arkansas. This is in part because they capped eligibility at something like $20,000 or $25,000 in family income. I believe that our Arkansas legislature had Taylor come speak to a Joint Session of the Arkansas legislature as the bill was being debated.

CONTACT PERSON: Pat Taylor's assistant is Adm. Jack Smith, 504-581-5491.

Dear Mr. President:

We commend your decisive action and swift response to the outbreak of church burnings which have and are occurring throughout the South. You have focused the nation's attention on these fundamentally wrong and cowardly acts. As a nation, we can resolve to bring to justice the perpetrators of these crimes which violate the freedom and dignity of every United States citizen.

We agree with United States Attorney Redding Pitt's analysis of the motivation behind these crimes. Mr. Pitt recently stated: "There is not a doubt in my mind that the bulk of these church burnings are racially motivated in one manner or another. Whether or not there is a conspiracy, the key to it is understanding the pervasive racism that triggers these acts."

While the burnings thus far have been primarily in the South, this is a crisis for the nation and only can be solved through national leadership and national resolve.

It is important that we not allow perpetrators of these criminal acts to escape justice. We urge you to continue to focus the nation's attention on solving these crimes of hatred. We cannot exist as a nation of hate and we must not tolerate this desecration of our nation's moral conscience.

Sincerely,

President William J. Clinton
Honorary Chairman of the FDR Memorial Commission
President of the United States
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear President Clinton:

I have become aware recently that the plans for the FDR Memorial do not call for depicting the disability of this great American President. I write in my capacity as Honorary Co-Chairman of the FDR Memorial Commission to ask that this situation be reviewed and, I would hope, corrected. After all, President Roosevelt was all the greater because he surmounted his disability.

Indeed, FDR's triumph over adversity inspired all Americans to triumph over the adversity in the Great Depression and World War II. Certainly within the 7.5 acre Memorial site that has been set aside for the several statues there is ample room for depicting FDR as the man he was - a great President and statesman who also happened to have a disability.

I hope you will take this action because FDR was and will be in the future a hero of all Americans, in no small part because of his experience with disability.

With best personal regards,

Sincerely,

Gerald R. Ford
