Dear Mr. President:

It has come to my attention that Arthur (Butch) Schecter is being considered for the post of Ambassador to Denmark.

I believe that Butch would do an outstanding job in this post or, frankly in any other to which he could be assigned. He is at the point of his life where his success would allow him to afford such service. In addition to his competence I really don't believe that I know a more loyal, political and personal supporter that you and Mrs. Clinton have.

Regards

Bob Lanier
