REMARKS/MESSAGE:

Dear Betty,

Enclosed please find a thank you letter
for the President's tribute which he completed for President Reagan's new book, A Shining City.

Also, if you could see that President Clinton or a representative could sign the release for Simon & Schuster that would be fantastic. You can fax it back to us.

THE
RONALD REAGAN
PRESIDENTIAL FOUNDATION

September 23, 1997

Dear Mr. President:

On behalf of the Ronald Reagan Presidential Foundation, thank you once again for your invaluable participation in A Shining City.

As you know, A Shining City will include some of Ronald Reagan's most memorable reflections on America and her greatness, his love for its people, his views on the world and his personal fondness for the individuals who have shaped history. Ronald Reagan's words, like his life, are shining examples of service, dedication, hope and a contagious spirit of optimism. It is our desire to honor the impact of his life by re-living through excerpts some of his greatest post-presidential speeches. We hope to use these words to inspire in others the same traits that make Ronald Reagan great.

A Shining City is scheduled for publication and release by Simon and Schuster in February of 1998. All proceeds from the sale will go to the Ronald Reagan Presidential Foundation.

Enclosed is a letter of permission to use your contribution in A Shining City and a stamped self-addressed envelope. Kindly sign and return the letter of permission at your earliest convenience. We understand the pressing demands on your schedule and we appreciate the time and effort you took to participate in this important work.

Sincerely,

D. Erik Felten, Editor
A Shining City

The Honorable William J. Clinton
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, District of Columbia 20002

Thank you, Mr. President for participating in this project. You submitted a great tribute. Erik

Dear Contributor:

You have written a tribute to Ronald Reagan as a contribution to the book entitled A SHINING CITY: THE LEGACY OF RONALD REAGAN (the "Book") which I am editing and which Simon & Schuster intends to publish.

For good and valuable consideration, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, you hereby irrevocably consent to the publication of your contribution and to the use of your name in any editions of the Book for the full term of copyright in all languages throughout the world, and in the advertising and promotion of the Book. You further consent to publication of your contribution in newspapers, magazines and other print media, whether before or after publication in book form, and in audio editions and electronic text versions of all or portions of the Book, and in other derivative versions of the Book. You shall be given credit as the author of your contribution wherever it is published.

You waive any right to inspect the Book, and waive any claim in connection with the above use or uses including, but not limited to, claims relating to defamation, rights of privacy or publicity, confidentiality, copyright or otherwise. You represent and warrant that you have full right, power and authority to execute this agreement.

If this letter sets forth your understanding, kindly sign the enclosed copy and return it to me.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Eric Felten
