JIMMY CARTER

February 6, 1998

To President Bill Clinton

I enjoyed and appreciated my visit with you, Secretary Albright, and Vice-President Gore on January 23rd. I am greatly honored by having the next Seawolf class submarine named for me, and I look forward to its construction and commissioning.

I want to follow up on the primary issue we discussed, my interest in exploring possibilities for resolving some of the remaining issues in Korea. This is based on some special relationships I have with key leaders. As you will remember, Kim il Sung made a number of significant commitments to me in June 1994, which he then confirmed in writing to you. One of the most important was willingness to meet directly with President Kim Young Sam. Both sides subsequently confirmed this, but all arrangements were aborted by the unexpected death of Kim il Sung a few days before the scheduled summit meeting.

Since then, on several occasions and on his own initiative, Kim Jong Il has sent me word that he intends to fulfill all the promises his father made to me. Also, the North Koreans have issued press releases and confirmed this with direct messages to me that I have an invitation to return to Pyongyang "at an appropriate time."

The other pertinent factor is my own long-standing personal relationship with President-elect Kim Dae Jung, whose death sentence was commuted after we interceded strongly with President Chun in 1980. Kim called me after his recent election and asked me to come to Seoul to discuss relations between North and South Korea.

To take advantage of what might be a real opportunity for progress, I need your approval. I will be very careful to coordinate each step of my efforts with your designated NSC and State Department officials.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Bill Clinton

Hon. Bill Clinton
President of the United States
White House
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear President Clinton:

As a life long 44 year old Democrat from the mid-west, I wanted to take this opportunity to thank you for being the President of the United States. It takes a special person who can tolerate all the distractions and still lead our country. You make Americans proud to be Americans and have restored faith and confidence in our government.

As most Americans, I am appalled at our critics who would devote time, energy, and taxpayer money to discredit you. In Pike County, you have our 100% support and we wish you Godspeed as you lead our country so nobly into the next century. With greatest respect, I remain

Very Sincerely yours,

Rick Orr

Mrs. Betty Currie
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Mrs. Currie:

I have always believed President Clinton to be the best President of our times. The current controversy is still another example of how the President's critics will go to any length to discredit him.

For some time, I have held a Official 1997 Presidential Inaugural Invitation and Photo which I am entrusting to you. I have not had this professionally framed because I always felt that I would be able to meet the President and have him autograph the invitation for me. I thought that time was coming last week when the President visited Champaign, Illinois. I was to receive VIP tickets from Senator Durbin's office, but unfortunately, became very ill and was unable to attend the event.

I know your office has to be extraordinarily business handling affairs of the world, but I would greatly appreciate if you might be able to slip this invitation under the President for him to autograph. That would be the greatest collectible I would ever own.

Your time in this matter is so graciously appreciated. My best wishes to you and to the President.

With warmest personal regards,

Rick Orr
