SUBJECT: setting up a meeting

Can you work on setting up a meeting a week from Thursday, anytime after 2 pm on declassification of POW/MIA documents. People to be invited: Nancy Soderberg; Bill Leary (NSC); Stanley Roth (NSC); Andy Sens or Fred Dohse (NSC); General James Wold (DOD); Michael Kurtz (National Archives -- 301-713-7000).

When you call Kurtz, could you please ask him to fax me another copy of the General Wold letter that Kurtz faxed me on Oct. 10. I have misplaced my copy. Also, Kurtz should be able to give you a direct line for Wold so you're not hunting around the Pentagon.

Thanks.

SUBJECT: my schedule

FYI -- tomorrow I have a 9 am budget meeting in 472 OEOb; a 3:30 pm meeting in Harold's office on speeches; and a 4:15 pm "walk-through" in the Correspondence Dept. Along with the other stuff you already have.

The budget meetings may become fairly regular. I'll keep you posted. In general, you should figure me unavailable (except for obviously important stuff like meetings with Leon, Erskine, etc.) around noon Tuesday and Thursday and around 4 to 5:30 Wednesday. Don't need to put anything on the schedule -- just leave it open at those times. Thanks.

Re: January 5-8, 1996 Winter Consumer Electronics Show

Dear Mr. Stern:

On behalf of the Electronic Industries Association (EIA) and the Consumer Electronics Manufacturers Association (CEMA), I am pleased to invite you to attend the 1996 Winter International Consumer Electronics Show (CES)* held from Friday, January 5, through Monday, January 8, in Las Vegas, Nevada.

With some 1700 exhibitors, 2000 editorial press and over 80,000 trade attendees, CES is the nation's largest trade association produced show and it is the mega-event for the $55 billion consumer electronics industry. You will be able to see, hear and touch the future of home entertainment, computing and personal communications. You will talk with CEOs, entrepreneurs, and inventors whose products are being exported around the world. Sponsored, produced, and owned by EIA, the CES is the marketplace at work. All the products that link consumers to the so-called National Information Infrastructure will be on display.

You will arrive in Las Vegas Thursday evening, January 4, in preparation for a full agenda. On Friday morning, January 5, the show will officially open with addresses from Eckhard Pfeiffer, President and CEO of Compaq Computer Corporation and industry leader Joe Clayton of Thomson Consumer Electronics. We invite you to attend this opening session. You will also be given a tour of the CES show floor and the opportunity to speak directly to top industry executives. Saturday evening your visit to CES will conclude with a government and industry dinner held in honor of our guests and attended by select industry representatives.
