MUSIC IN AMERICA

CELEBRATING OUR INDUSTRY'S DIVERSITY

WASHINGTON, DC • MARCH 25, 1996

The music of America emerges from a rich and dynamic TRADITION: the harmonies of musicians of DIVERSE backgrounds, the inspiration of powerful words set to stirring music, words and music given life by artists of extraordinary vision. Today, superb recording TECHNOLOGY makes music of magnificent quality available to a greater audience than at any point in history.

America's sound recording industry—the artists who create music, the manufacturers who produce the recordings and the retailers, wholesalers, and distributors who bring music to the MARKETPLACE—is a vital part of local ECONOMIES throughout the United States. And, beyond our own shores, American music has emerged as a truly GLOBAL phenomenon, reaching every corner of the world.

On this very special evening, we will bring TOGETHER the music and the voices and the faces of our industry in SALUTE to America's rich musical HERITAGE: a heritage that weaves the threads of pop and soul, country and classical, R&B and rock, into a rich and varied tapestry.

Only in America.
