Dear Mr. Stern:

The Leadership Conference on Civil Rights will hold its annual Hubert H. Humphrey Civil Rights Award Dinner on Tuesday, May 14 at the Hyatt Regency Washington on Capitol Hill, 400 New Jersey Avenue, N.W. The reception will begin at 6:30 p.m. with the dinner following at 7:30 p.m. This year's honorees are Mrs. Myrlie Evers-Williams and the Honorable Kweisi Mfume of the NAACP and former Congressman Norman Y. Mineta.

You are invited to be our special guest at this year's event. More than 1,000 civil rights, political, corporate, labor and legal leaders attend this bipartisan dinner each year. Now in its 46th year, the Leadership Conference is the oldest, most broadly based coalition in the nation with a membership of more than 180 major national organizations representing minorities, women, labor, persons with disabilities, older Americans, gays and lesbians, and major religious groups. Over 50 million Americans belong to these LCCR organizations.

Please let us know by returning the enclosed form if your schedule will permit you to be our special guest on May 14th. If you need any additional information, please call Natalie Shear, our Dinner Coordinator, at 202-466-3311. We look forward to welcoming you to the dinner and to sharing the evening with you.

Sincerely,

Richard Womack

RIAA

THE RECORDING INDUSTRY ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA'S

THE HONORABLE CARLOS MOORHEAD AND THE HONORABLE PAT SCHROEDER

The association will present its premier Public Service Award, which recognizes public servants whose careers have made a significant impact on public policy affecting the music industry, to the Honorable Carlos Moorhead and the Honorable Pat Schroeder. This special presentation marks nearly 50 years of their joint dedication and leadership in Congress -- leadership that has had a profound impact on our culture and our music.

JACK VALENTI

Jack Valenti, president and CEO of the Motion Picture Association of America, will receive the coveted RIAA Cultural Award for his many contributions to the arts and entertainment community. Known around the world as an "ambassador" of American culture, Jack Valenti has for 30 years promoted the U.S. film industry's interests -- in Washington and abroad. He has championed international trade, freedom of speech and intellectual property protection. He has also led the fight against video piracy, and is known as the "father" of the widely recognized movie-rating system.

21st Cultural Award Celebration

The RIAA requests the pleasure of your company, along with a guest, at our 1996 Public Service and Cultural Award Celebration, recognizing the Honorable Carlos Moorhead, the Honorable Pat Schroeder and Motion Picture Association of America President and CEO Jack Valenti.

Politics may divide the parties, but there is one thing that both Democrats and Republicans agree on—there's no guide to Washington insiders that's more up-to-date and convenient than The Capital Source.

From government offices to the corporate world, from professional associations to the media—whatever listing you need, you're certain to find it in The Capital Source. Phone numbers. Fax numbers. Even e-mail addresses.

And with 1996 shaping up to be a momentous election year, The Capital Source lists all of the candidates' headquarters, plus key convention contacts for the Democratic and Republican host cities.

What it all comes down to is access. And by having convenient listings to the most influential people in Washington, you're already ahead of the game.

So call 800-356-4838 today to get your copy of The Spring 1996 Capital Source. And find the one indispensable guide that lets politicians of all parties finally see eye to eye.

Dear Friend,

I am writing on behalf of the Invitational Committee to invite you to attend a special event of The Washington Times Foundation. The occasion is an address by the founder, the Reverend Sun Myung Moon, who will speak on "God's Providence: A Vision for the Third Millennium," Tuesday, April 16, 1996 in the International Ballroom of the Washington Hilton Hotel in Washington, DC. There will be a reception at 6:00 pm, with dinner following at 7:00 p.m.

Leaders worldwide grow increasingly concerned about the trend toward immorality and violence. Although twentieth century technological development has created the infrastructure for a global village, the increasing use of drugs, the AIDS epidemic, families split by divorce and teen suicide are among the issues that need to be addressed in terms of their impact on every society. As we prepare to leave the old century behind, the future of human existence itself has never been in greater peril.

The keynote address by Reverend Moon challenges individuals to establish a deeply personal relationship with God and to solve even our most pervasive social problems through God-centered families.

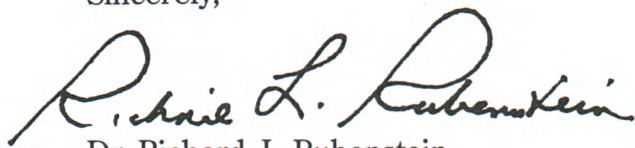

A special highlight of the evening will be a delightful performance by the Kirov Ballet of St. Petersburg, Russia and members of the Kirov Academy of Ballet of Washington.

In addition, the National Service Awards of The Washington Times Foundation will be presented to individuals who have given selflessly of themselves to promote the integrity of the family, encourage the peaceful resolution of conflict, contribute to the moral betterment of society and support youth in the achievement of worthwhile goals.

The Washington Times Foundation is a not-for-profit organization established to encourage the highest ideals in cultural values, public-mindedness and conflict resolution. This program will be an inspiration to all people who appreciate the importance of belief in God and stable families as the foundation for a healthy society.

Again, I cordially invite you to join with over 3,000 government and business leaders, members of Congress, clergy, scholars, diplomats and other dignitaries in our nation's capital to hear Reverend Moon's inspirational message and honor our National Service Award recipients.

Sincerely,

Dear Esteemed Friend,

I am writing to you about the forthcoming visit of Rev. Sun Myung Moon who will be speaking on the topic, "God's Providence: A Vision for the Third Millennium," in a dinner at the Washington Hilton on April 16th as part of his world ministry to strengthen the family unit as the cornerstone of world peace.

As founder of the Washington Times, The Summit Council for World Peace, the Kirov Ballet Academy and numerous other foundations, I believe he is a visionary and a man of vast energy who has demonstrated his unique ability to work with people of all nations and ideological persuasions to establish practical projects which affect positive change and improve the human condition around the world.

I hope you will be able to take time from your busy schedule and attend this event. I feel certain it will be a warm and thought-provoking evening. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Dear Todd:

The National Presidential Gala and Leadership Conference are scheduled for May 8, 1996. This is the most important event we have scheduled since President Clinton took office, and it will be the largest fundraiser in the history of the Democratic Party. Our top supporters from across the country will come to Washington to discuss the 1996 election and celebrate the accomplishments of this administration. Peter Knight has agreed to chair this important event. We have invited members of the Cabinet, Democratic Senators, the Democratic leadership of the House, and senior officials of the Administration to join me for this important show of Party unity.

I hope you will agree to attend the National Presidential Gala as our honored guest.

I understand your schedule is quite busy; however, your participation is absolutely critical to the success of this event. We are facing well-funded opponents and it is crucial that we raise as much early money as possible to meet the challenge ahead. I hope you will make every effort to attend this event and show your support for the President and the DNC.

I have asked Susan Ochs, DNC Finance Scheduling Coordinator, to follow up with your office on this request. If you or your staff have any questions before that time, please feel free to call me at 202-863-8121. Susan may be reached at 202-863-8031.

Thank you in advance for your participation.

Carol -- I appreciate your handling all this stuff for me. One small point -- could you make sure to ask me before you make inquiries about things. Social Office called this evening to say Jennie and I were only invited to the reception, not the Kennedy Center. But we didn't want to go to the Kennedy Center in the first place, and indeed couldn't have gone because we have a wedding. Had you asked me before calling to check, I would have told you that.

No need to have the Social Office think we're asking for something (i.e., places at the Kennedy Center event) when we're not. Thanks.

Social office called re the WH Reception on the 27.

There will be transportation (bus) provided from the White House to the performance at the Kennedy Center.

I'm assuming Todd will park his car on West Executive Ave.

She said there is parking inside the grounds, entering at the East Entrance, but that cars cannot be left there while people are at performance at Kennedy Center.

CAN YOU check one thing?? She didn't specifically say about bus transportation back to the White House and I didn't think about it until I started to type this note.
