THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

July 9, 1996

The Honorable Eli Segal
2315 Bancroft Place, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20008

Dear Eli:

When I saw this, I immediately thought of you and of all that you sacrificed and worked so hard for during the last three and a half years. If not for your brilliant, dedicated leadership, the Corporation for National and Community Service never would have become a reality and countless young people would not have been given the opportunity to serve their country here at home.

There's great wisdom in what Albert Schweitzer had to say about service to others -- you should be forever happy, friend. Thanks for helping make one of my greatest dreams come true.

Sincerely,

Bill
