

The original documents are located in Box 2, folder “League of Mexican-American Women” of the Fernando E.C. De Baca Files at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Gerald R. Ford donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Hi Tommy:

Enclosed is the article that came out in the Arizona Daily Star.

I spoke to Ofelia Vargas who is treasurer for the League of Mexican American Women and she was very glad to hear that if we need any help we have someone in Washington to help us. She took the opportunity to ask me to ask you to find out for us how we go about applying for funds for scholarships, because she read where the government had appropriated about 150,000.00 for scholarships thru Hispanic Affairs, so if you can find out for us and let me know as soon as possible we will appreciate it very much.

My love to Shirley and the babies,

love,

Zerry

