National Hispanic
Crusade Committee
to Conquer
Inflation

Dear Dr. Sandoval:

It seems that we have been unable to get together by telephone so I thought I would take this opportunity to bring you up-to-date on recent developments with respect to Cabinet-level participation for the proposed Economic Stabilization Assembly planned for August 9, 1975 in Washington, D. C.

Unfortunately, neither the President nor any of the Cabinet officials to whom invitations were extended will be able to attend due to previously scheduled commitments. I understand also that some of the hoped-for participants from New York-New Jersey area have indicated that they will not be able to attend due to summer vacations and other reasons.

In view of the above, I would strongly recommend that the Washington, D. C. function be cancelled in favor of local meetings designed to demonstrate community support for the President's economic and energy programs (if that be the wish of your group).

On behalf of the President, I want to thank you for your strong and continued support of the President's policies and programs for solving the problems of America.

Yours sincerely,

SUBJECT:

People's Patriotic Unity

Economic Stabilization
August 9

In keeping with your request, I have today notified Dr. Miguel Sandoval, head of the National Hispanic Crusade to Conquer Inflation, of the President's busy schedule and his resulting inability to attend their function on August 9.

Since you will probably be hearing from Dr. Sandoval in relation to other matters in the future, I would recommend that you refer him to my office. Dr. Sandoval is a Cuban American who heads up a small but vocal splinter group of Hispanics in New Jersey. He is a loyal Republican and an active member of the Republican Heritage Groups Council of the RNC. He has an active imagination and has been seeking ways to involve the Hispanic community in New Jersey in support of the President's programs but, unfortunately, does not enjoy the support of the principal Hispanic leadership in the New Jersey/New York area.

This has reference to the recent letter of invitation sent to the President by Dr. Miguel A. Sandoval, President, National Hispanic Crusade Committee to Conquer Inflation. Dr. Sandoval's letter requested the President's participation and the participation of various Administration officials at a Washington, D. C. grass roots rally on August 9, 1975, to demonstrate support for the President's economic and energy proposals.

I have recommended to Dr. Sandoval that local rallies be held as opposed to a national gathering due to numerous logistical problems. The Washington, D. C. function has, as a result, been cancelled.

Dear Fellow-Americans:

Please join President Ford's Patriotic WIN National Program.

Let us work together in friendly teams. When the teams WIN, all Americans across the country happily WIN.

I am calling together all concerned citizens to support President Ford's Comprehensive Economic and Energy Proposals.

Let us stand up and be counted by attending the PEOPLE'S PATRIOTIC UNITY NATIONAL ASSEMBLY FOR ECONOMIC STABILIZATION, which will be held in Washington, D. C. on June 14, 1975 sponsored by (C.U.B.A.N.S.) Cuban Unity for a Better America National Society and its National Hispanic Crusade Committee to Conquer Inflation.

Miguel A. Sandoval

President of Cuban Unity for a Better America National Society.

He is extending his Helping Hand.

THE TOUCH OF THE MASTER'S HAND

'Twas battered and scarred, and the auctioneer
Thought it scarcely worth his while
To waste much time on the old violin,
But held it up with a smile:
"What am I bidden, good folks," he cried,
"Who'll start the bidding for me?"
"A dollar, a dollar"; then, "Two!" "Only two?
Two dollars, and who'll make it three?
Three dollars, once; three dollars, twice;
Going for three—" But no,
From the room, far back, a gray-haired man
Came forward and picked up the bow;
Then, wiping the dust from the old violin,
And tightening the loose strings,
He played a melody pure and sweet
As a caroling angel sings.

The music ceased, and the auctioneer,
With a voice that was quiet and low,
Said: "What am I bid for the old violin?"
And he held it up with the bow.

"A thousand dollars, and who'll make it two?
Two thousand! And who'll make it three?
Three thousand, once, three thousand, twice,
And going, and gone," said he.
The people cheered, but some of them cried,
"We do not quite understand
What changed its worth." Swift came the reply:
"The touch of a master's hand."

And many a man with life out of tune,
And battered and scarred with sin,
Is auctioned cheap to the thoughtless crowd,
Much like the old violin.
A "mess of pottage," a glass of wine;
A game—and he travels on.
He is "going" once, and "going" twice,
He's "going" and almost "gone."
But the Master comes, and the foolish crowd
Never can quite understand
The worth of a soul and the change that's wrought
By the touch of the Master's hand.
