Dear Jess,

I want to take this opportunity to thank you for the many courtesies extended to me during my recent visit to San Diego as a guest of the Spanish Speaking Political Association.

I want to especially congratulate you and all of the incoming officers of the SSPA on your new term of office. SSPA has accomplished much under your dynamic leadership but much work remains for all of us. I am sure that working together in a spirit of true brotherhood we will respond to the challenge that lies before us.

Please convey my regards to your charming wife, Briget, to Pete and Penny Rios, to Tony Rios and to Dr. Fernando Boyando, and express my sincerest congratulations for the most successful function that I have had the pleasure of attending during my many years of public service.

With the President's best wishes, I remain

Yours sincerely,

Fernando E. C. De Baca

Dear Ray:

It was good seeing you at the SSPA banquet in San Diego this past weekend.

I want you to know how much I appreciate your thoughtfulness in hosting the Sunday morning breakfast. I found it most enjoyable and helpful in exchanging views on the pressing issues of the day.

Again, many thanks. I hope that I will have the opportunity to host you and your charming wife at the White House someday soon.

Sincerely,

Fernando E. C. De Baca

Dear Penny:

I want to take this opportunity to formally acknowledge your recent letter so graciously inviting me to speak at your Fourth Annual SSPA installation Dinner on April 26, 1975 at the Hilton Hotel in beautiful San Diego.

As I mentioned to you in our recent telephone conversation, I am honored to accept your invitation and look forward to returning to San Diego for this marvelous annual event.

I plan to arrive in San Diego on the evening of the 25th of April, staying through late morning on the 26th. I will call you as soon as my exact travel arrangements are firm.

I hope you will convey my sincere appreciation to your hard-working husband and partner, Pete, to Jess Macias and to each of the other officers and members of your wonderful organization.

Thank you for making me a part of your very special occasion!

Sincerely,

Fernando E. C. De Baca
