THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 19, 1975

Dear Colleague:

We are so appreciative of your participation in the recent White House Meeting on Bilingual Education. The meeting stimulated many thoughtful comments and recommendations for improving our multilingual and multicultural education efforts.

I am sure you are aware of recent actions taken by the U. S. Office of Education and by NIE in direct response to many of the issues and concerns raised by participants at the March 4th meeting.

I am now pleased to forward a list of all meeting participants and to enclose a group photograph taken in the Rose Garden at the time of your visit to the White House. This splendid photograph comes with the President's best wishes.

Thank you for making this first meeting such a fine success.

Yours sincerely,

Fernando E. C. De Baca
Special Assistant to the President
