MEMORANDUM FOR:

THEODORE C. MARRS

FROM:

FERNANDO E. C. DE BACA

SUBJECT:

Tuesday at The White House
Meeting

As you are probably aware, we had to cancel our proposed Tuesday at The White House meeting for August 19, 1975 due to the absence on summer vacation of several of our principal participants.

We had originally planned to hold a Tuesday meeting on minority contracting and the SA program when we discovered that the Commerce Department and SBA have a Task Force working on the problem. It was suggested that we defer our meeting until the Task Force had had the opportunity to conduct a thorough review of the problem.

We then had hoped to hold a substitute meeting on the Spanish Speaking Program with a view toward formulating final plans for National Hispanic Heritage Week (scheduled for September 14-20, 1975).

Unfortunately, due to the absence of so many of our Spanish Speaking Program Coordinators from the city this week, we were unable to hold this meeting.
