Honorable Fernando E.C. De Baca
Special Assistant to the President
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

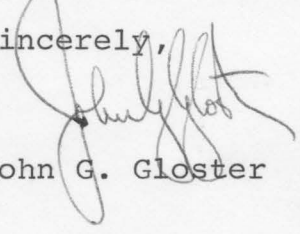

Dear Mr. De Baca:

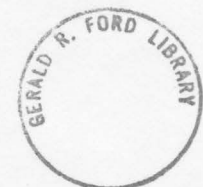

On behalf of the Board of Governors of Opportunity Funding Corporation I would like to invite you to attend a luncheon at noon on Monday, May 5, 1975, in the South American Room of the Statler Hilton Hotel.

The luncheon will be followed at 2 p.m. by a briefing and question and answer session on new OFC program developments for a select group of high level government officials, including Donald Rumsfeld, who, you will recall, was Director of OEO when OFC was created.

We believe that because these programs represent new and innovative approaches to minority and community economic development you will find them particularly interesting. We hope that your schedule will permit you to join us.

Sincerely,

John G. Gloster

The Concert and Dinner benefit the United Nations Association of the United States of America. The United Nations Association is the only organization in the nation working full-time to advance the ideals of the UN, to produce practical solutions to its problems, and to advance that sense of the oneness of humanity embodied in the UN. UNA/USA is supported entirely by contributions from individuals, foundations, business, industry, and labor organizations; by dues from its members, and by income from its publications and conferences.

The twentieth century's vast technology has opened up many new frontiers. Today we cross the barriers of earlier ages, exploring the earth's poles and ocean depths, the galaxies, even in some senses the past, through radiocarbon dating and other scientific means. What we are finding on these new frontiers is the subject of this year's Frank Nelson Doubleday Lectures, which end looking toward explorations yet to come.

The continuing Frank Nelson Doubleday Lectures on Frontiers of Knowledge are made possible by a grant from Doubleday and Company in honor of the founder of the publishing house.

Dear Mr. DeBaca:

I am pleased to invite you to join me and several members of my staff for cocktails and dinner on Monday, March 24, in the Monticello Room of the Madison Hotel, beginning at 7:00 p.m.

We are interested simply in getting to know White House officials better in an informal setting, and Bill Barody suggested your name to us. Obviously, we have many areas of mutual concern over the problems facing us as a nation. We feel it would be beneficial to share information and ideas about possible solutions to the problems. Certainly, understanding each other will assist us in seeking common goals.

I look forward to being your host next week. Please call Chuck Olson of my staff (833-5411) to let us know if you can be with us.

The Figueroa Quintet, official quintet of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, under the auspices of the Institute of Puerto Rican Culture.

Besides its undeniable musical quality, the Figueroa quintet has the unusual characteristic that all its members are brothers, belonging to the most distinguished musical family in Puerto Rico. The five brothers studied in Madrid and Paris under the guidance of famous musicians who helped them create their own aesthetic vision and extraordinary techniques. This gives the quintet a rare musical homogeneity.

José (violin). Studied at the Royal Conservatory of Madrid where he obtained the Sarasate Prize, performing by royal decree before Queen Victoria Eugenia. He continued his studies at the Ecole Normale de Paris where he was appointed violin professor and concertino of the Chamber Orchestra conducted by Alfred Cortot. He has performed as a soloist and first violinist with the Paris Symphony Orchestra and at Nadia Boulanger's concerts. In Warsaw he was awarded a prize at the Weinawsky Centennial Contest. Later played with the American Arts Orchestra, the National Symphony of Washington, the New York Symphony Orchestra under Stokowski. He is currently a professor of violin at the Music Conservatory of Puerto Rico.

Narciso (piano). Won first prize in piano and chamber music at the Royal Conservatory of Madrid. After playing in Spain, Portugal and North Africa, he pursued his studies at the Ecole Normale de Paris under Cortot. He has performed together with Thibaud, Milstein, Suggia and Neveau, and played at Town Hall and Carnegie Hall in New York. A distinguished composer, who has been awarded various prizes in contests in Puerto Rico, he is now a member of the piano faculty of the Conservatory of Music of Puerto Rico.

Kachiro (violin). Studied at the Madrid Royal Conservatory of Music. Upon graduation he was awarded the Sarasate Prize. He later attended the Ecole Normale de Musique, in Paris, where he studied under Thibaud and Cahilley. He was a conductor of the orchestra of the Institute of Puerto Rican Culture.

Guillermo (viola). Studied at the Ecole Normale de Musique, with Thibaud, Cahilley, Enesco and Flesch. He was a member of the Chamber Orchestra under Cortot and the quartet of the Ecole Normale. Currently, he is teaching at the Music Conservatory of Puerto Rico.

Rafael (cello). Followed his brothers footsteps to the Ecole Normale where he studied under Pierre Fournier, Maas, Boulanger, Dandelot and Messiaen. He played with the Symphony Orchestra of the City of New York; is currently a member of the Symphony Orchestra of Puerto Rico.

Dear Fred:

I'd like you to be my guest at a small, informal dinner party on Tuesday evening, June 3, beginning with cocktails at 7:00 p.m. in the Monticello Room of the Madison Hotel here in Washington.

I have no agenda for the evening. I simply feel that an exchange of ideas, concerns, and information cannot help but be useful as we all seek solutions to serious problems that confront us as a nation. Moreover, I believe that NEA should be more involved in the political processes if we as an organization are to contribute fully to solving these problems.

I hope you can join us on June 3. Please call me or Diane Barrett in my office to let us know if you can attend.

Sincerely,

Stanley J. McFarland
Director of Government Relations

Dear Frank:

I regret that I was unable to attend the dinner given in your honor by the Argentine Ambassador last evening.

Unfortunately, my flight was delayed and I was unable to get back to Washington in time to join you and Edwina for this well-deserved tribute.

Please accept my apologies as well as my eternal thanks for including me in your circle of friends. I will look forward to getting together with you in the near future.

Cordially yours,

Fernando E. C. De Baca

Dear Ada and Ed:

Thank you for your kind invitation to the reception which you are hosting in honor of our distinguished friend and colleague, Alex Armendaris. I can think of no one more deserving of this honor and I join you in paying tribute to Alex for his many fine accomplishments and contributions to our people, and in particular to the Hispanic Business Community.

Unfortunately, I will be away from the city on the 19th of April and unable to attend this marvelous function. Though physically away, however, I will be with you in spirit.

Buena suerte and best wishes for a pleasant and enjoyable evening.

Atentamente;

Fernando E. C. De Baca

Gentlemen:

Mr. De Baca has asked me to answer with his regrets your kind invitation to attend the Spanish-Speaking Businessmen's Conference of the West at the Ambassador Hotel on May 3-4, 1975 in Los Angeles.

We are sorry to be so long in replying, but Mr. De Baca kept hoping until just now that he would, somehow, be able to help you honor Mr. C. Mack Higgins at the testimonial dinner, and to attend the seminars.

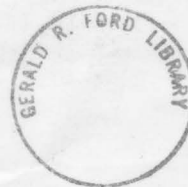

On behalf of Mr. De Baca, please accept best wishes for a successful conference to the hosts of this fine occasion, The National Economic Development Association and The Small Business Administration.

Sincerely yours,
