Number 273 - March 26, 1975

Minister of Defense General Oscar Bonilla Bradanovic died in a helicopter crash as he was returning from a vacation at Romeral in southern Chile. The news of the accident provoked widespread sorrow especially among the poor who received a great deal of attention from General Bonilla when he was minister of the interior. Three days of mourning were declared by the Government. The funeral mass, celebrated by Cardinal Raul Silva Henriquez, was attended by the nation's highest officials and by thousands of Chileans anxious to pay their last respects to the general. General Herman Brady has been appointed the new minister of defense.

VISIT OF SECRETARY ROGERS

Assistant Secretary of State for Interamerican Affairs, William Rogers made a trip to Chile recently to arrange for the upcoming visit of Secretary of State Henry Kissinger. During his stay, Rogers met with President Pinochet and also with the ministers of foreign relations, finance and economy.

EXCHANGE OF AMBASSADORS

In accordance with the new Charaña agreement between Chile and Bolivia, both countries have appointed ambassadors. The Bolivian ambassador to Chile will be Mr. Guillermo Vea-Murgía and the Chilean ambassador to Bolivia will be Mr. Rigoberto Diaz Gronow.

COUNTRY REVIEW OF CHILE

The Permanent Executive Committee of the Inter-American Social and Economic Council (CEPCIES) recently analyzed Chile's financial and economic situation and arrived at the following conclusions:

1. The economic policies of the Government should result in a favorable balance of payments.
2. Chile is making considerable effort to increase its domestic savings capacity and improve the allocation of its investments.
3. Favorable reaction to non-traditional exports as well as the potential productive capacity of the mining industry portend a large increase in the country's total exports once international markets return to normalcy.

The CEPICIES experts also reported that considering the present internal situation, good credit conditions exist for public or private international organizations wishing to grant medium and long-term credits to Chile and the prospects are good for direct investment as well.

The group also made recommendations to the multinational organizations that they expedite the analysis and approval of loan applications submitted to them by Chile. And finally, the report states that the renegotiations of Chile's foreign debt at the next meeting of the Paris Club is a necessity.

INTERNATIONAL MONETARY DEVELOPMENTS

1. The International Monetary Fund has approved a stand-by arrangement for the Government of Chile authorizing purchases of currencies up to the equivalent of 79 million special drawing rights (SDRs) over the next twelve months. The arrangement is in support of an economic and financial program designed to reduce sharply the rate of inflation and contain the balance of payments deficit.

To achieve the program's goals of reducing inflation and keeping the balance of payments deficit at a manageable level, the Chilean authorities are seeking to pursue an adequate exchange rate policy and tighten fiscal and credit policies. The authorities plan to continue their efforts to achieve a better resource allocation and improve the public enterprises' financial position by the implementation of a price policy involving a system of free price determination for most goods and services and the avoidance of subsidies on items subject to control. To contain demand pressures, the Government is implementing a major tax reform, has introduced a number of new revenue measures, and proposes to observe greater austerity in spending. The authorities plan to maintain the degree of exchange and trade liberalization achieved so far despite the somewhat unfavorable prospects for Chile's terms of trade in 1975.

2. The Inter-American Development Bank granted the Chilean Development Corporation (CORFO) a $10 million loan to assist in financing a program of industrial improvement that CORFO will undertake in the near future.

3. The Government of Argentina has granted a loan in the amount of $3.78 million to the Chilean Government for the purchase of wheat from Argentina. The Chilean Central Bank authorized a $14 million credit negotiated by Compañía Minera Andina with Sumitomo Metal Co., a Japanese firm, for the expansion of the Rio Blanco copper mine. The Central Bank also authorized Compañía Sudamericana de Vapores to negotiate credits totaling $12 million with private banks in the U.S. for the purchase of new ships.

4. Nitrate Mining Company (SOQUIMICH) has established an $8 million credit with Grace Company for the purchase of heavy mining equipment for extracting nitrate.

INCREASE IN PRODUCTION AND EXPORTS

1. Chilean wine producers exported $3.3 Million in wine in 1974, an increase of 10 per cent over 1973. During the present year exports to Europe and America are expected to double.

2. SOQUIMICH announced that in 1974 it contributed $120 million to Chile's trade balance. This represents an increase of approximately 50 per cent over 1973.

3. Exports in fruits to international markets increased by 50 per cent. A million boxes of different fruits were shipped to the U.S., Europe and Latin American countries.

4. The electronic industry increased production by approximately 15 per cent in 1974.

5. The production of rice in the southern provinces of Chile is expected to increase approximately 29.4 per cent this season compared to last season.

LATIN AMERICAN CODE

From the first to the tenth of March the Drafting Commission of a Criminal Code for Latin America met in Santiago. Fifty well-known criminal lawyers and professors attended the meetings. Chilean criminologist Miguel Schweitzer said that the purpose of the meetings was to achieve a unified penal code. In its first session the delegates celebrated the first 100 years of the Chilean Criminal Code.

VISIT OF ROTARY PRESIDENT

At the invitation of the Rotary Club of Chile, the president of Rotary International William Robbins and his wife visited Chile recently. During their stay Mr. Robbins met with President Pinochet and also talked to the heads of several local charitable institutions which receive assistance from Rotary. At the conclusion of his visit, he was decorated with the Order of General Bernardo O'Higgins in the rank of commander.

ENERGY CONSERVATION

Eduardo Simian, vice president of ENAP (State Owned Oil Co.) said that Chile saved approximately $20 million because of a decrease in the consumption of oil. This conservation policy will be intensified during the current year.

LIBERALIZED RULES FOR RETAILERS

Under a new law retail establishments will be able to set their own schedules of opening and closing times. The law, liberalizing previous regulations, is expected to result in more competition among merchants and additional job opportunities for part-time workers.

FACTS ABOUT "OPERATION RETURN"

According to the Chilean news magazine "Qué Pasa," 17,200 Chileans who had been residing in other countries have returned to their native land since September 11, 1973. This figure is based on the number of exemptions from import duties granted by the Government to those returning to Chile through February 1975. The magazine also analyzes the alleged "brain drain" after September 11, 1973, and points out that according to information provided by the National Commission for Scientific and Technological Investigations (CONICYT), the figures supporting the allegation are not accurate.

For example, one report stated that 30 per cent of all professionals who have left institutions of higher education are engineers. The fact is that only about 8.5 per cent of these have emigrated. The balance, 21.5 per cent, have remained in Chile and have simply changed jobs. Additionally, the Intergovernmental Committee for European Migrations (ICEM) that has been helping to locate Chileans abroad is also cooperating in the return of Chileans to their native country. This committee has been responsible for the return of 353 families to Chile. Of this number 80 per cent of the heads of the families are professionals from the scientific area and the remaining 20 per cent are technicians and skilled workers. A representative of this committee explained that many skilled Chileans cannot return for another year or two because of work commitments they have in other countries. In his opinion the number returning will grow because of the international economic crisis and the favorable prospects of industrial expansion in Chile.

Dear Guido:

I appreciate very much your keeping me informed on the progress of the Latin American Teaching Fellowship Program at the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, Tufts University.

I have been in touch with the State Department about this program, and I am pleased to be able to advise you that the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs intends to continue its support and funding of L.A.T.F. participants in Guatemalan universities in fiscal year 1976. I am sure you will agree that these types of programs serve to strengthen and reinforce advancements in technology among all nations within our continent.

Many thanks for keeping me informed about this important program, and be assured of my continued interest and support for its objectives.

Ford to Discuss Oil Find With Mexico Leader

By George C. Wilson

Washington Post Staff Writer

President Ford's scheduled meeting with Mexican President Luis Echeverria Monday will provide an excellent opportunity to discuss Mexico's total between 10 billion and 15 billion barrels. Estimating oil reserves at the exploratory stage of drilling is far from a precise art.

The other day I sent you a copy of the letter I had sent to John Warner, the President of the Bi-Centennial Commission, and now I am sending you a copy of the speech I gave on the same subject of Hispanic (this includes Spain, Mexico and Cuba) participation in our War of Independence. I hope that you will find it interesting.

Let me know if there is anyone else you suggest this be sent to. I have already sent it to the Hispanic members of the Congress.

Dear John:

Thank you for your note of October 16 and for your previous letter in which you enclosed a copy of your speech before the International Rotary Club in Mexico City.

I had fully intended to write to you earlier to express my appreciation for your thoughtfulness in sharing your splendid treatise on Don Bernardo de Galvez with me and to congratulate you on your efforts to set the record straight on the Hispanic contributions to our nation's War of Independence. Unfortunately, my travel schedule has been so hectic that I had been unable to get to your letter until now.

You will be happy to know that your suggestions were immediately put to work and that, thanks to your efforts and research, we were able to prevail upon the President to issue a Proclamation on National Hispanic Heritage Week in September incorporating Galvez's contributions to the success of our War of Independence.

The Proclamation received much publicity in the United States as well as in parts of Latin America and in our military installations in Europe and the Far East. Hispanic Heritage Week was marked by local celebrations in San Antonio, El Paso, New York City, Los Angeles, San Francisco, San Diego, Denver, Houston, Midland and in many other parts of the country.

We are deeply indebted to you for your effectiveness in publicizing Hispanic contributions to our nation's history and for your pursuits in seeking greater recognition for the cultural contributions of this significant group of Americans.

You may count on me for help in your efforts to secure the dedication of statues in Galveston, Pensacola and New Orleans in honor of the memory of Don Bernardo. I will

APPROVED FOR DISPATCH

May 19, 1975

Dear Lic. Bonet:

As the President's Special Assistant for Hispanic Affairs, I am pleased to share with you President Ford's high esteem and strong enthusiasm for the Optimist International Organization and its work in helping to shape the lives of youth throughout the world in becoming better citizens.

Recently I had the pleasure of meeting with Mr. Pete Rios, Lt. Governor of Zone I, Optimist International, San Diego, California, who informed me of his plans to visit with you on the possibility of establishing an Optimist International Club in your city.

Mr. Rios and, indeed, all members of the Optimist International Organization have devoted many years of their lives to the development of youth through Optimist International Club activities. These gentlemen bring with them the warmth and friendship of the people of the United States. They have always sought to promote friendship and goodwill between our two countries. I know you will greet them warmly as they pursue their ideas with you for enhancing border relations through the Optimist International Organization.

With the President's best wishes, I remain,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Fernando:

First of all, let me extend my personal thank you for your tremendous contribution to the success of our installation dinner on May 26, 1975. Your presence at any gathering of Spanish Speaking people is a great morale booster. In a sense it is an inspiration. You are living proof that our democratic system works, that anybody has an opportunity to achieve greatness, limited only by their own individual abilities. To the non-spanish speaking it helps to relieve their anxieties.

Fernando, as you recall, I mentioned to you that Optimist International has no representation in Mexico. The organization has been in existence since 1913; we have over 3900 clubs in the United States and Canada, but none in Mexico.

Recently I started talks with Mayor Jorge Moreno Bonet of Ensenada, Baja California, Mexico; Mr. Gerardo Valenzuela, President of the Ensenada Chamber of Commerce and Mr. Nico Saad, San Nicolas Resort Hotel. They are very impressed with the idea of forming clubs in Mexico and they want to be the first.

I showed them the picture of the President (enclosed) and they were very impressed. They asked me to have the president write personal letters to them, similar to the one Mayor Wilson (enclosed) wrote endorsing optimism. Since the president is an optimist himself, I know that personal letters would insure, beyond a doubt, that we can start this very needed organization in Mexico.

It would be very appropo if we could install at least this one club at our International Convention to be held in San Francisco, next month. Maybe we could even persuade the President to be a guest speaker. However this would have to be directed to our International President.

Dear Lic. Bonet:

This letter will introduce to you three distinguished citizens of San Diego representing the Optimist International Organization. Mr. Pete Rios, Lt. Governor of Zone 1, Mr. Dudley Williams, Vice President of Optimist International, and Mr. L. D. Tool, Governor Elect of Optimist International are visiting your city to explore the possibility of establishing an Optimist Club. The Optimist Clubs are oriented toward helping youth.

These gentlemen bring with them the greetings and friendship of all the people of San Diego. I hope you will accept the goodwill which they so richly carry on their visit and any courtesies which might be extended them would be greatly appreciated.

As Mayor of the City of San Diego, I would like to extend my own personal greetings and sincere best wishes and my invitation to visit our city.

Dear Fernando:

On October 10 to 12, 1975, the National Conference of Puerto Rican Women will hold its third annual meeting here in Washington, at the Sheraton Park Hotel. This year's program will focus, from a non partisan perspective, on the "Political Rights and Responsibilities of Puerto Rican Women in the United States."

We believe it is essential for our women to be well informed about the issues that affect us both as women and as members of a minority group of the importance of participating actively in the political process if we are to effect any substantial changes in the policies that govern our everyday lives. To our knowledge, this is the first time a Hispanic organization in the nation is devoting its annual meeting to this important subject.

On the evening of October 10, we are having as our first official activity, a briefing on recent and pending legislation in the U.S. Congress of special interest to the Latino community in the U.S. or to women in general. The briefing will be followed immediately by a "Rums of Puerto Rico" reception. We would like very much to have you attend these two activities of our Conference as a special guest. Both the briefing and the reception will be held in the Gold Room of the Rayburn House Office Building, from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. Please let Jenny Perez know by October 6, (Telephone 370-9626) whether you will be able to be with us on this occasion.

I am enclosing a copy of the preliminary program and a pre-registration form. You or a member of your staff would be most welcome to attend the entire conference.

Sincerely,

Paquita Vivo

Dear Teresa:

Harry Wells called yesterday about my urgent calls for help on the new youth project (covered in a letter to Sandra Willett) and other matters and I asked him to have you call me about the mobile unit celebration. I thought he said you would call yesterday or today, but maybe he didn't reach you. Anyway, as a result of a shutdown on phone calls, I decided to drop you a letter.

The Governor's office says the mobile unit celebration is definitely on, and for May 30th. That ought to make it a great week end for whoever comes. It is scheduled for 5PM in the Plaza las Americas, the big shopping center in Hato Rey, a part of greater San Juan. One good thing about the location is that there will be plenty of people. If Mrs. Knauer and De Baca come, we would naturally expect them to speak, probably 10 to 15 minutes each. Because the location is so close to our office, I am wondering if we can make arrangements for them to visit our offices that day. Its a question you might raise.

I hope you will be successful in getting them down here, and maybe you could tag along!"

Cordially,

Don Elbersen

Dear Mr. Sanchez,

As Mr. De Baca is not in Washington at this time, on his behalf I acknowledge the receipt of the kind invitation from the representatives of The National Puerto Rican Business and Marketing Association, Inc. to attend the official inauguration of your Chicago Regional Office on Thursday, May 29, 1975 at the McCormick Inn in Chicago.

He will answer for himself, of course, upon his return. But it's interesting, Mr. Sanchez, that this invitation to be keynote speaker at the ceremonies is an honor following so closely upon his participation a few days ago on behalf of President Ford at a number of civic and economic and political affairs in Puerto Rico!

Thank you for for your letter.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. DeBaca:

On behalf of the Chairman of The Board, Pascual Sanchez, M.D., and the National Director, Mr. Dennis P. Garcia, I would like to invite you to the official inauguration of the Chicago Regional Office of The National Puerto Rican Business And Marketing Association, Inc. The ceremonies will take place on Thursday, May 29, 1975, from 4:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. at the McCormick Inn, 23rd Street and Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, Illinois.

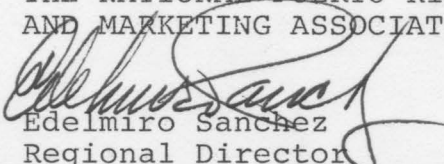

Knowing you have always been an advocate for economic development, seeking to foster the concept of the free enterprise system among the minority groups, your presence at this event as a key-note speaker will be a determining factor in its success.

The Chicago Regional Office has been in operation since January of this year and we are presently working on projects which will have a very positive impact on the economic conditions of our minority groups in the Midwest.

We will be delighted to have you present at the ceremonies, with certainty that this will be of mutual benefit. In the meantime, with best regards, I remain.

Sincerely,

Dear Fernando:

I much appreciate your having added your own telegram of congratulation to the message so thoughtfully forwarded by President Ford.

As I discharge the duties of National League of Cities President, I can assure you that I shall do everything in my power to be worthy of the admiration and respect of the millions of Hispanic Americans with whom I share not only the cherished bonds of common citizenship, but also the precious heritage of our Spanish language and culture.

You described my election in Houston earlier this month as an "historic moment for our Hispanic people." While I thank you for those kind words, I wonder too if perhaps the election wasn't really, in a sense, an historic moment for all the American people, marking yet another milestone along our Nation's steady course toward the full realization of those humanitarian principles that have, for almost two centuries now, inspired its finest hours.

Looking forward to a close association with you in the coming year, and hoping to see you personally on one of my forthcoming trips to Washington, I remain

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr. Reynolds:

We have again been in touch with the First Lady's office with respect to the possibility of having the Coro de Ninos de San Juan sing for President and Mrs. Ford, and have again been advised that there is no way this can be worked out with the heavy scheduling of the President, which grows with each day now with the election year and the Bicentennial year so near.

We are very sorry; and disappointed, of course, and as soon as we heard "officially" from the scheduling office --earlier today--we wanted you to know the decision.

And so it is with great regret that we are not in a position to do anything other than forward the word that the background material on the Coro will be kept in file and at some later date it may be that the social/scheduling office of the President will be in touch with you.

Yours sincerely,

SUBJECT: Coro de Minos de San Juan

As you requested we checked our files for the Mayor's letter to the President and were unable to locate it.

In view of the long standing nature of this request, I would suggest we ask Maria Downs to either write to Mr. Reynolds or phone him and see whether there is a time when the group is again planning to be in the area, as they were when they were en route to their August 4, 1975 engagement to Temple University's Music Festival. And perhaps their timing will fit in with the President and Mrs. Ford's schedule at some time to the convenience and benefit of all.

I appreciate your interest.

Dear Mr. Reynolds:

My secretary tells me I missed you again today when you called. That's the way it's been going for me since late-summer--the most immediate and pressing appears to be taking up my time.

However, I have spoken to Mr. Farrell, who is responsible for assessing the various proposals that come to the White House for the President's participation so that there will be coordination and smooth scheduling. He is interested in the Coro de Niños de San Juan and their willingness to come to Washington to sing for President and Mrs. Ford. I have sent him the background material--the letters, memoranda, and the news reports as well as photographs pertaining to the Choir, along with my full endorsement.

He will be getting in touch with you directly, or through this office, as I asked for his comments and recommendations. He has your phone numbers and address. I would think that a decision would be forthcoming before very long now, and you will be hearing soon.

I am certainly looking forward, myself, to hearing these talented young people sing and I sincerely hope that it will fit into the President's schedule at a time that will be suitable and convenient for their scheduling.

Sincerely yours,

My understanding is that the Puerto Rican Children's Choir would like to come to the White House to sing for the President and Mrs. Ford at an appropriate White House evening or even daytime function.

This proposal has my full endorsement. I'd appreciate your review of the attached material and your consideration of the value of such a program.

I would also appreciate your comments on how best to proceed with this matter.

SUBJECT: Request for San Juan Children's Choir to sing for the President

The attached material was forwarded by the Press Liaison Officer, Protocol Office, Department of State.

These children would be very happy to sing for the President when in the Washington area on their way to Philadelphia for an August 4, 1975 engagement by Temple University Music Festival & Institute. The press officer said on the phone that the children aren't asking for special treatment, they're asking only to sing for him if he would want to hear them. [May I suggest that this Coro de Ninos de San Juan might well be creating some of the best work ". . . that our society has to offer."]

Among these papers are comments you might find interesting by a New York Times critic; and for your quick perusal, I have underlined phrases in two letters by the Director of the Music Festival, David Kanter.

Mr. De Baca will be interested in your office's action.
Thank you very much.

Dear Joe:

Referring to our conversation about the Coro de Niños de San Juan which translated to English would read San Juan Children's Choir, following is a brief description of this very enjoyable group.

The Choir is composed of over 20 Puerto Rican children from the ages of 9 to 15. The Director, Mrs. Evy Lucio de Llobet, maintains such discipline and professionalism that nothing but high accolades have been received regarding the performances of the Choir.

A few days ago Mr. David Kanter, Director of the Temple University Music Festival, came to San Juan at his own expense to find out first hand about this Choir which he had heard was excellent. Mr. Kanter was so greatly impressed that an immediate invitation was given for the Choir to participate in the next Festival to be held in August 1975 in Philadelphia. As a matter of fact, Mr. Kanter has also recommended the Choir to participate in other national music festivals that are now being organized to commemorate the bicentennial anniversary of the United States of America. There are attached two letters received from Mr. D. Kanter which speak for themselves.

In addition, Mr. Howard Thompson, the internationally noted music critic of the New York Times, has also expressed himself very highly about the Choir. Also attached you will find a synopsis of his acclaim.

I am attempting to interest a group of business people in San Juan to support the Choir, and we hope that this will greatly improve the image of Puerto Rico. On March 7 we are having a benefit concert to raise the funds to finance the Choir's trip to Philadelphia to participate in the Temple University Music Festival this year.

Two things would greatly help this Choir:

1. What funds are there available from Washington that could help this great Choir?
2. To improve Hispanic relations, could we arrange for the Choir to perform at the White House for President Gerald Ford, preferably on the weekend of August 1, 2, and 3? It would be ideal because on August 4 the Choir is supposed to be in Philadelphia to perform there that night.

I would appreciate anything that you could do to help us out.

Best personal regards.

Most respectfully,

Jack

I would like to express my gratitude to you for rescuing me from a state of boredom and making my last two days in Puerto Rico absolutely enchanting. I hope I can be as successful with entertaining you when you get here as you have been with me in Puerto Rico.

Now, down to our project. Enclosed are copies of letters to festival managers. Just as soon as you receive any requests for performances, please let me know, and I shall try to devise a tour for you, however, right now for our proposed engagement here, I could offer you August 4 or August 11.

Would you kindly let Miss McLean know about these two proposed dates. In the meantime, I hope that both of you will get together and devise a program.

Give my regards to the Doctor, and tell him that I understand what it means to sacrifice a golf session and drive me around old San Juan for which, again, I am deeply grateful.

Dear Mr. Gingras:

I have just returned from Puerto Rico and I have had the good fortune to witness two masterful performances, one by a Choral group named Coro De Ninos De San Juan, a magnificent and sensitive group of children far superior to the Vienna Boys Choir, the other, an exciting and entertaining dance company called "Areyto". Both of these companies are subsidized by the Puerto Rican Government and can be obtained for reasonable fees.

The reason I am engaging them is because together in one evening and one show they make up an exciting and entertaining attraction, secondly, since we in Philadelphia, have an enormous Puerto Rican population we owe it to our citizens to bring truly authentic Puerto Rican attraction. If you have a Puerto Rican or Spanish speaking community in your city I strongly urge you to consider engaging these groups.

I am hoping to work with all our Spanish speaking citizens in Philadelphia, and develop a real Puerto Rican day. If you are at all interested in this project please write directly to the following two Directors:

Coro de Niños de San Juan

El Coro de Niños de San Juan se compone básicamente de 4 grupos: Primaria, Elemental; Aspirante; y Coro de Concierto. Hay actualmente cincuenta estudiantes entre las edades de 4-1/2 y 14 años, con la excepción a Jenny Suarez que comenzó su entrenamiento a la edad de 1-1/2. Los niños se escogen de escuelas del área metropolitana o por medio de audiciones 2 veces al año. Son educados a la manera del Coro de Niños Cantores de Viena. Además de canto reciben instrucción en música, idiomas, piano y guitarra.

En sus comienzos (1967) estaba integrado por Niñas solamente pero en el año 1970 se admitió el primer grupo de varones. Esta combinación de voces da al Coro un timbre y sonido muy particular y muy dulce.

Además de sus actuaciones en programas locales (Televisión, Teatro Tapia, Teatro La Perla, Museo de Arte de Ponce, e Instituto de Cultura) ha participado en:

1. "La Boheme" — Opera '68
2. "Angelitos de Puerto Rico"
3. Documental que ganó la Medalla de Oro 1973
4. Gira Artística a Bogotá, Colombia
5. Carnegie Hall en New York, con Fiesta Puerto Rico
6. Concierto Homenaje Póstumo al Maestro Pablo Casals en La Fortaleza.

Pablo Casals felicitó el Coro por su afinación, interpretación, dulzura y repertorio en varias ocasiones.

Howard Thompson, crítico del New York Times se expresó:

"Superb purity of tone and deliver... Must these children return home? They are simply wonderful."

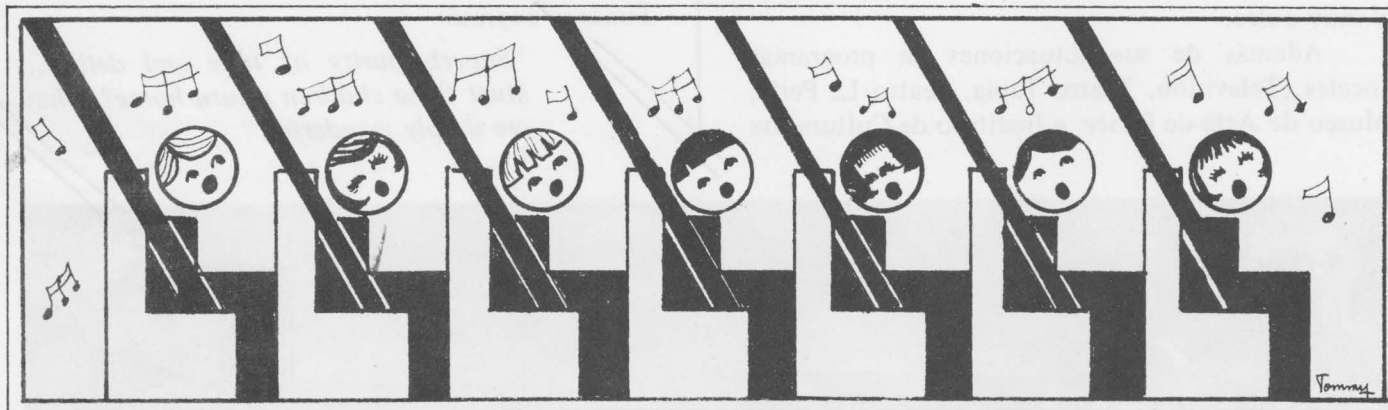

BOGOTA, COLOMBIA — 1973

El Coro de Niños de San Juan les saluda en nombre de la juventud optimista y precavida. Optimista en el futuro y precavida en conservar vida y salud.

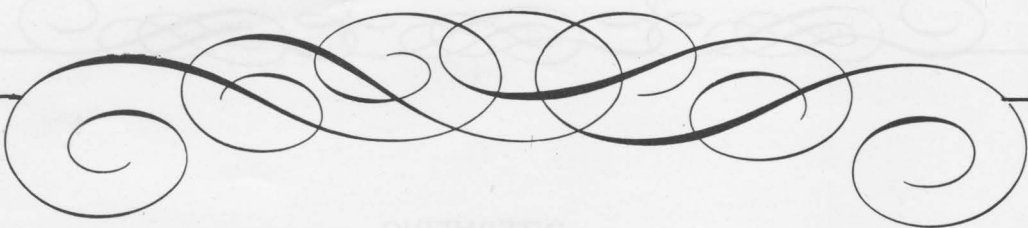

El regreso feliz al hogar luego del concierto compensa por las precauciones tomadas. El uso diario y adecuado del Cinturón de seguridad es un canto a la vida y a la felicidad.

Críticas del viaje a Nueva York 1973 – CARNEGIE HALL

"To one listener, the real surprise and thrill of the evening was the superb purity of tone and delivery by a children's group, the Coro de Niños de San Juan, ranging from ages 7 to 12 and nimbly directed by Evy Lucio de Llobet. Must these children return home? They are simply wonderful."

HOWARD THOMPSON – New York Times

Certainly a brightness in the evening is the Coro de Niños de San Juan, boys and girls between 7 and 12 years of age, who sing with a lovely clear ensemble tone as well as precise pitch, tempos and dynamic control. The direction of Evy Lucio de Llobet is so emphatic 2nd crystal-clear that some of us in the audience who have music in our systems are almost compelled to join in."
