Dear Mr. President:

I am sorry the election turned out as it did, but I just want to tell you how much I admire and respect you for the marvelous job you have done for this country. In my opinion, you are one of the greats of the United States.

I send all best wishes to you and your family who deserve the best of everything for the future.

I recall with feeling and pride the day I played center against you in 1934 in the Chicago-Michigan game. I hope that in the future I will have an opportunity to see you.

With many thanks for all that you have done for all of us and warmest regards,

Sincerely,

Pat Patterson
