THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN...

Dear Mr. President:

As the new year begins, I want to take this opportunity to express my deepest respect and admiration for you personally and as President of our Country. Your tremendous leadership will be greatly missed -- this Nation sorely needs your guidance as we face the difficult times ahead.

You gave me great inspiration as Minority Leader, and I patterned a lot of my day-to-day efforts as a result of observing the way you accomplish your goals. I was extremely pleased when you became Vice President, and it was an honor to recommend you for this high office. Needless to say, I stood much taller as an American when you became President.

You took over during one of the worst crises our Country has ever experienced and succeeded in restoring credibility to the Office of President. Your efforts reassured the people of the United States that our President was a man of the highest integrity and capability and allowed us to turn our efforts to dealing with other serious problems.

Your knowledge and ability as President have turned the United States around and put us back on the road to stability and improvement in every respect. The ideas and principles you have demonstrated are shining examples for others to follow.

It has been a privilege for me to know you and work with you over the years, and it is one of my happiest and most rewarding reflections as a Member of Congress.

Again, you will be deeply missed, and I feel very strongly that you should be our President for the next four years.

Sincerely,

James H. Quillen
