THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN

Dear Mr. President,

I just wanted to let you know how proud I, along with countless others, are of President Ford. The honest and courageous campaign you fought shows the kind of man you are; in that respect, you have found much victory.

Without doubt history books will find you as the leader that, in only two years, was able to regain respect for his party and restore public confidence in our government. Many thanks Mr. President - for what you did for our country and for the personal way in which you always responded to my communications.

To you and your family I wish you the very best over the holidays - you all deserve the best.

Warmest personal regards,

Bob
