Dear Peter:

Thanks immensely for your good letter of June 23. It was certainly good to see you and other members of the Dinner Club Monday night.

You will find enclosed a copy of the letter I have sent to some of the universities and also a commencement address which deals with some of the same problems.

Regards,

Paul W. McCracken

Dear Paul:

It was both very pleasant and very informative to talk with you last night. All of us enjoyed it and all of us send best wishes, I am sure.

If there is anything that I can do personally to be of assistance, please arrange to let me know.

Continuing best wishes and good cheer!

Sincerely yours,

Dear Lynn:

On Monday evening, June 22, it is necessary for me to be in Ann Arbor for personal reasons. If by chance you were to have a little time that afternoon, I would like to take an earlier plane and chat with you a bit about things in general.

I shall be in Europe the early part of this week, but perhaps your office could call as to whether this might work out.

Regards,

Paul W. McCracken

Dear Paul,

The next meeting of the Economic Discussion Group will be at my home on June 22nd at 6:30 P.M. instead of June 15th.

Paul McCracken, who is to be our speaker, will be in Europe on the 15th, hence the change in dates.

Sincerely,

Cliff

Am looking forward to your visit.

Dear Cliff:

This is in response to your note of May 12 and your invitation to try again on the dinner group. On June 15 I shall be in Europe, but the 22nd as of now is free on the calendar. I would be delighted to circle that date if you are willing once again to live with a margin of uncertainty about the final outcome.

Regards,

Paul W. McCracken

Dear Paul:

We were all very disappointed that you were unable to be at Gene Power's dinner last evening.

As you know, the June meeting (of which I am the host) is the last one of the season. If you would be our speaker and guest of honor, it would make our final dinner the climax of our year.

I hope either the 15th or 22nd of June can be fitted into your busy schedule.

Sincerely,
