Dear Allan:

By all means we must get together when you are in Washington this month. I would suggest sometime October 20, since I shall be out of town on the 19th.

Dear Paul:

I am going to be in Washington on Monday and Tuesday, October 19 and 20, and I would like very much to see you while I am there. I feel the need of getting a little closer to the heart of things than is possible sitting out here on the sidelines.

I hope that you are going to be in Washington on the days I shall be there, and that you will have a little time to spare for the propagation of the faith.

With best regards,

Sincerely,
