WASHINGTON, D.C. 20520

Mr. Ronald L. Ziegler
Special Assistant to the President
The White House Office
Washington, D. C. 20500

Dear Mr. Ziegler:

The U. S. National Commission for UNESCO would be pleased and honored if you could join a group of distinguished representatives of the mass media for dinner at Airlie House, Warrenton, Virginia, on Monday evening, May 19.

The dinner will be the key event in a three-day consultation sponsored by the Commission with the cooperation of the Foreign Policy Association. Participants in the consultation will explore in depth what many observers feel to be a resurgence in our nation of some of the isolationist sentiments of earlier years. While it is surely an oversimplification to speak of "isolationism" vs. "interventionism", the terms suggest some of the important issues upon which discussion will be focussed.

Among the questions to be considered are: (1) Has public support for American involvement abroad really ebbed?; (2) What are the issues in the expert debate about "over-commitment"? (3) What role has the mass media played -- and should they play -- in interpreting and influencing official policy, expert opinion and public attitudes?

Following dinner, a special panel will briefly sum up the results of the discussions and then invite frank "off the record" comment and opinion from all those present. Dr. Arthur S. Flemming will chair the entire consultation.

Airlie House is a pleasant one-hour drive from Washington. Directions are given in the enclosed pamphlet.

Would you be so kind as to have your office telephone the Commission (383-2672 or 383-4501), indicating whether you can be with us and whether you will need transportation?

I feel certain these important members of the press will bring a new dimension to our thinking on the issues mentioned and that you will find the evening a stimulating one.

Sincerely,

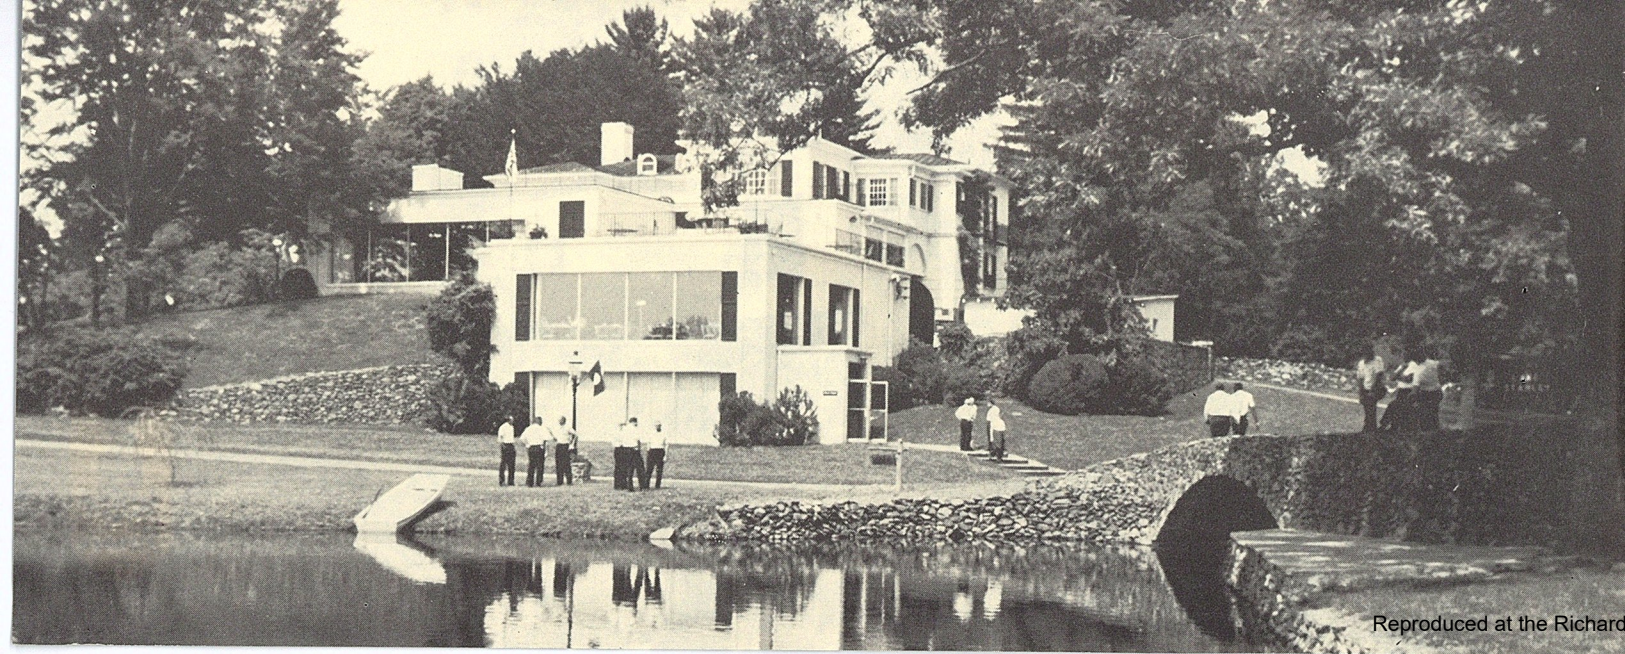

Alvin C. Eurich
Chairman

Airlie House, is operated by The Airlie Foundation, a non-profit corporation chartered by the Commonwealth of Virginia.

The facility is a conference center, designed to provide a forum for the exchange of ideas in the public interest and the discussion of problems within our society.

Over the years AIRLIE has achieved international distinction in the conference field.

Outstanding groups of academicians, scientists, industrial-business leaders, government officials, students and diplomats from all over the world have met, studied and conferred here.

Removed from busy offices and urban distractions, AIRLIE is a working conference center. It has been called appropriately "an island of thought" . . . a place where conference participants live, work, relax together; where an effective, productive conference is achieved through total concentration on the subject matter.

A successful conference requires special skills in planning and a special atmosphere to achieve its purpose. The staff at AIRLIE has a wealth of experience in providing the necessary elements for serious conferences. The Foundation itself has been designed specifically to offer visitors the privacy and freedom from interruption that allow them the time and the atmosphere in which to think and to exchange ideas.

Several large conference rooms for groups of up to five hundred people and a number of smaller rooms for group sessions and smaller meetings are available. Because of the physical relationship of the conference rooms, several groups may meet simultaneously in privacy without interruption.

Projectors, tape recorders, public address systems, audio-visual aids are available, as well as staff photographers and secretarial assistance.

The AIRLIE staff is prepared to structure a conference independently or to assist the conference director in scheduling, planning and programming.

It is requested that each conference director make a personal visit to AIRLIE to plan his conference in order that the arrangements will be wholly satisfactory.

The AIRLIE table is varied but tends toward food native to Virginia.

The coffee and social hours can be planned out-of-doors or beside open fireplaces, depending on season.

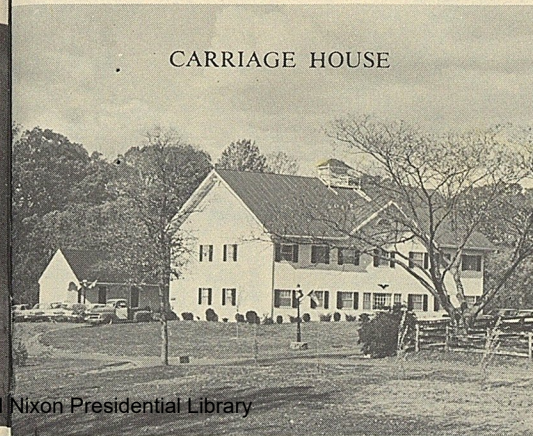

The mild climate permits cook-outs six months of the year.

The unique dining facilities and the really fine cuisine highlight an AIRLIE conference.

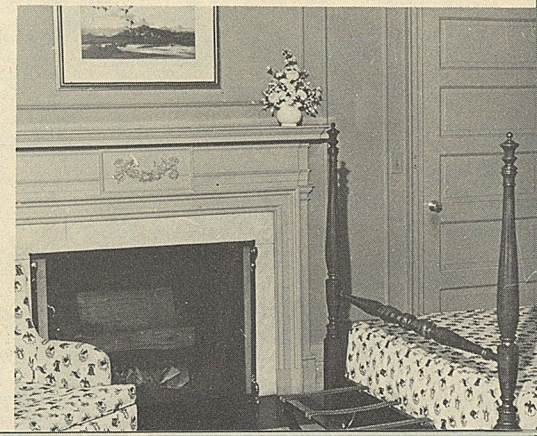

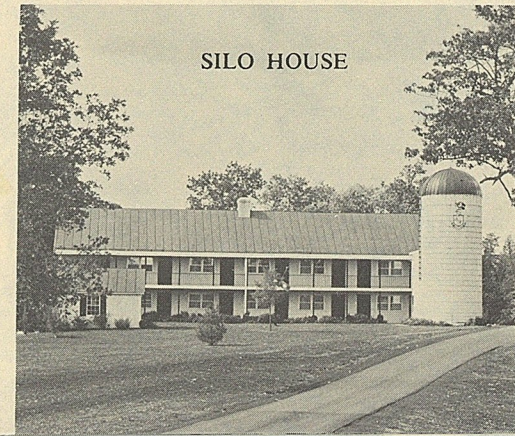

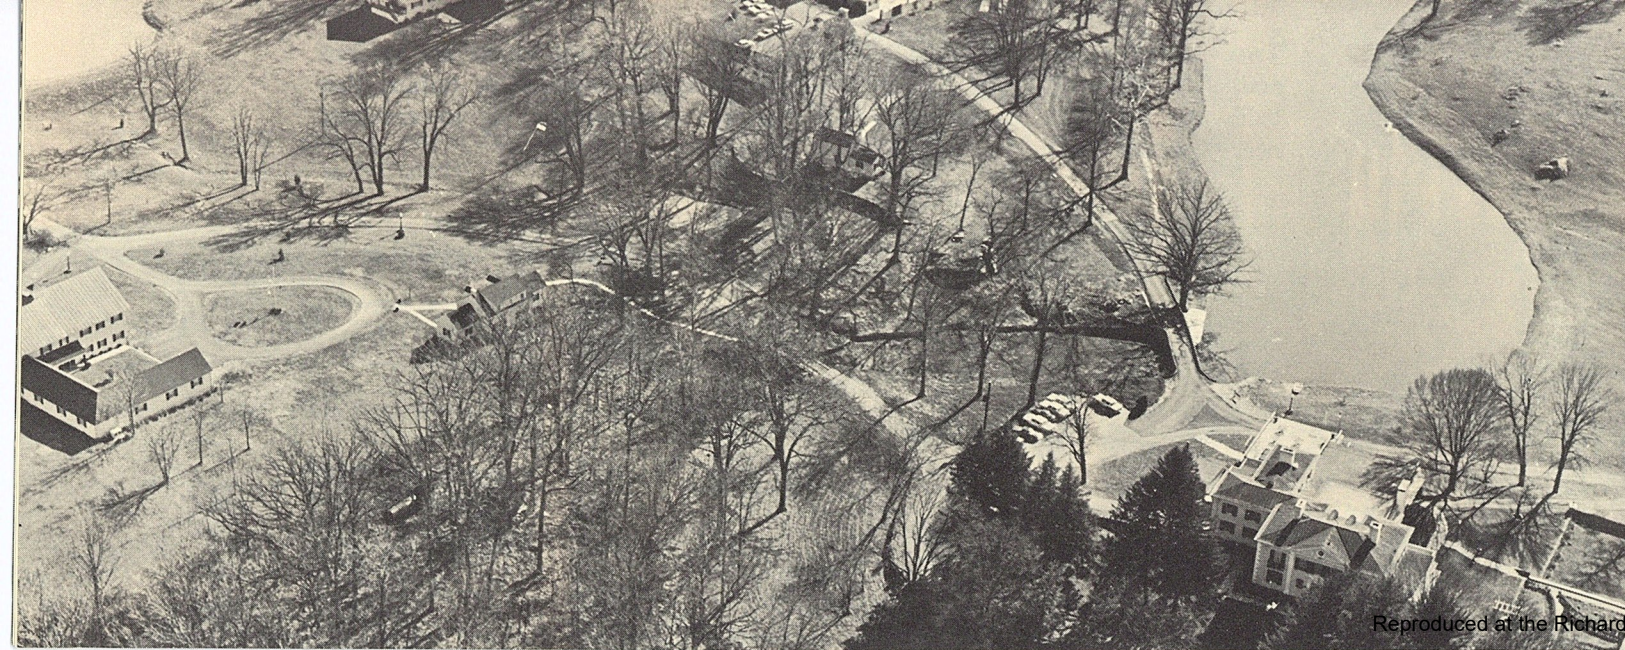

Two hundred guests can be lodged at AIRLIE. The guest rooms are modern and air conditioned. They are furnished in a simple, comfortable fashion that befits the country. Additional guests can be accommodated in an excellent nearby motel.

CARRIAGE HOUSE

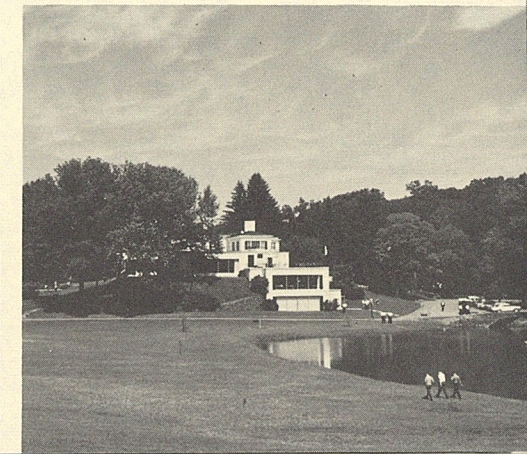

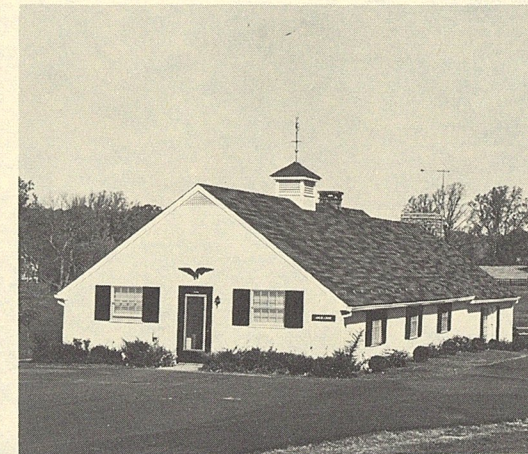

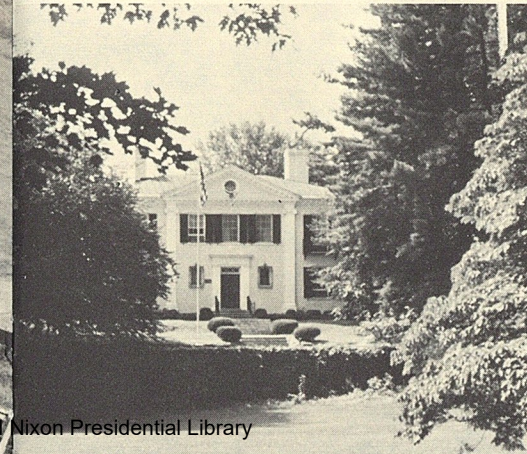

SILO HOUSE

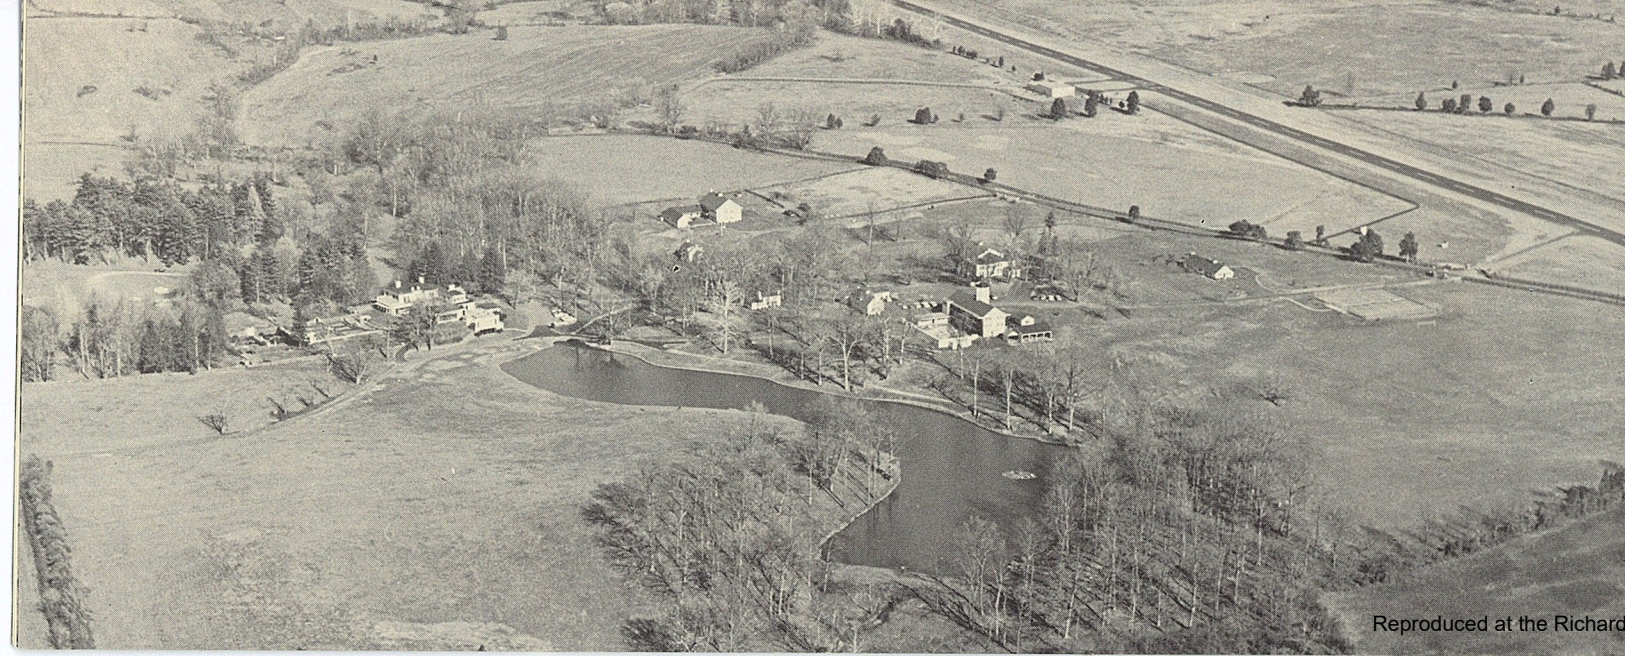

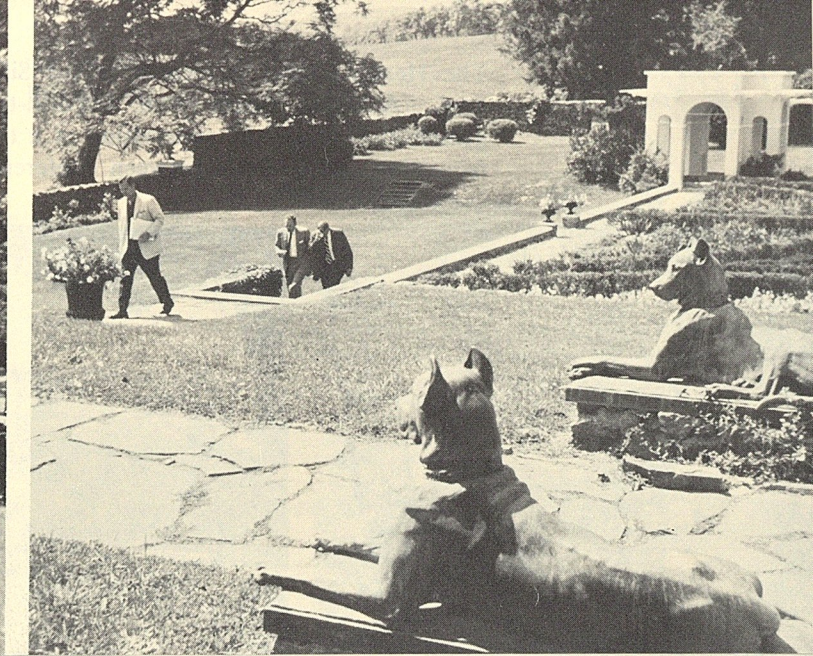

The traditional atmosphere of early Virginia has been preserved through the careful restoration and remodeling of the original Georgian manor houses and farm buildings.

Reproduced at the Richard Nixon Presidential Library

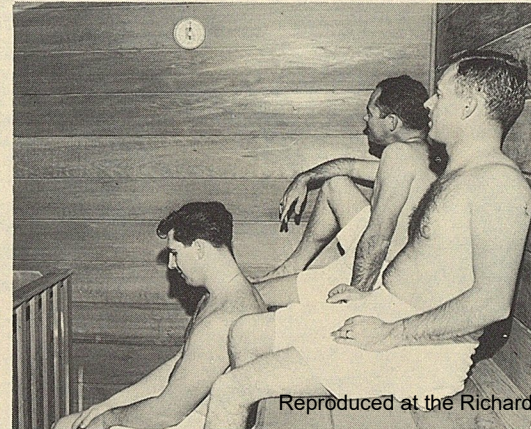

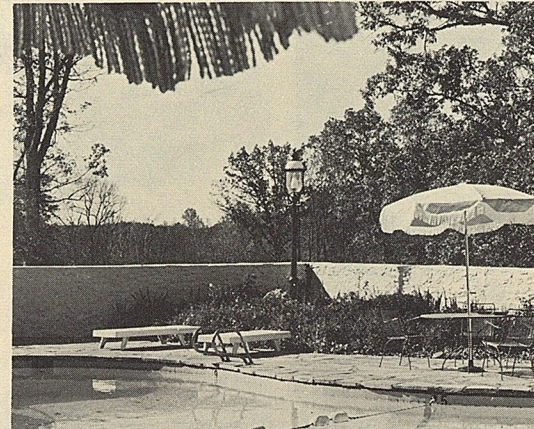

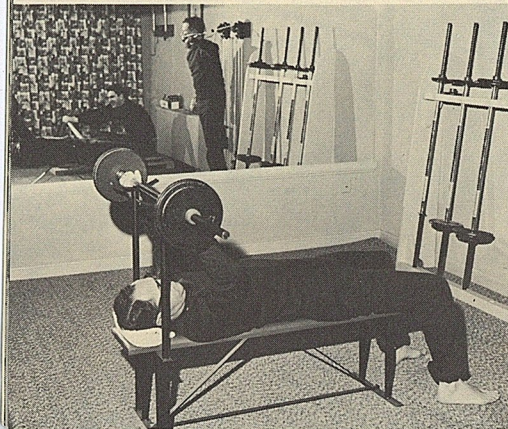

AIRLIE occupies 1,200 acres of Virginia countryside, in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains.

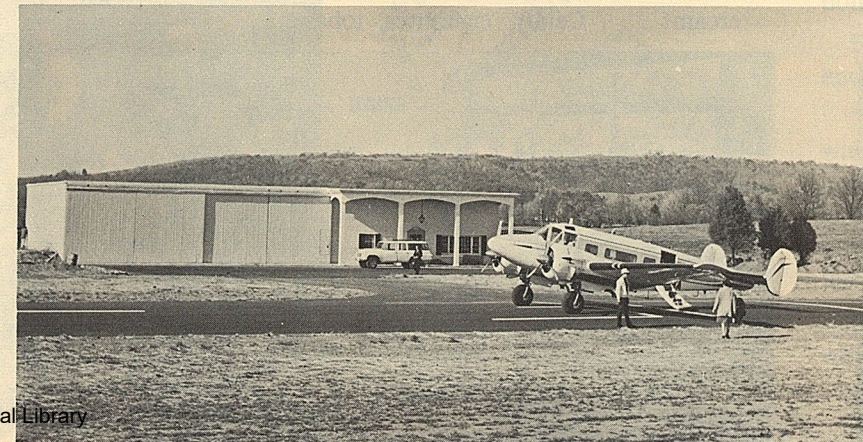

The Health Center is located in the Silo House, just off the heated swimming pool. A Sauna, steam room, Swedish-type massage and a completely equipped gymnasium, under the supervision of a trained attendant, afford AIRLIE's guests recreation and exercise between conference sessions.

Reproduced at the Richard Nixon Presidential Library

AIRLIE's hard surfaced, lighted airstrip can accommodate and service executive aircraft. Private air transportation is available upon request.

A collection of gifts, typical of the Blue Ridge Mountain region, is on display at the Country Store.

- Native deerskin articles, country hams, mounted game birds, books on Virginia cookery — houses — antiques . . .

- AIRLIE-designed items, i.e., ashtrays, mats, cocktail matches-napkins, also AIRLIE-labelled preserves, honey and other foodstuffs.

- Sundries: tooth paste, razors, shaving creams . . . Candy, cigarettes, tobaccos.

Report from AIRLIE
"Far to Go"

Through AIRLIE Productions, a division of the Foundation, documentary films may be planned and produced for training, broadcast and private audience viewing.

Candid and portrait photography may be done by our staff photographers.

Publication and reproduction of conference reports and abstracts may be arranged.

"Report from AIRLIE," the award-winning series of special, half-hour color presentations has appeared in major cities, at prime time throughout the country. These documentaries cover a wide range of subjects, dealing with problems of our time.

Other films are produced in cooperation with appropriate sponsoring institutions.

RECREATION INCLUDES:

Health Center — Supervised Sauna, steam room and gymnasium. Also Swedish-type massage by a trained therapist . . . all located in the Silo House.

Swimming — A heated pool permits excellent swimming eight-nine months a year.

Tennis — New all-weather courts are adjacent to Health Center.

Shuffleboard — Two courts overlook the lake.

Game Preserve — A large, private preserve provides six months of excellent upland shooting (October through March). Guides, dogs, guns and ammunition are available.

Skeet Range — Equipment and attendant provided.

Golf — Two courses are available. Transportation is provided.

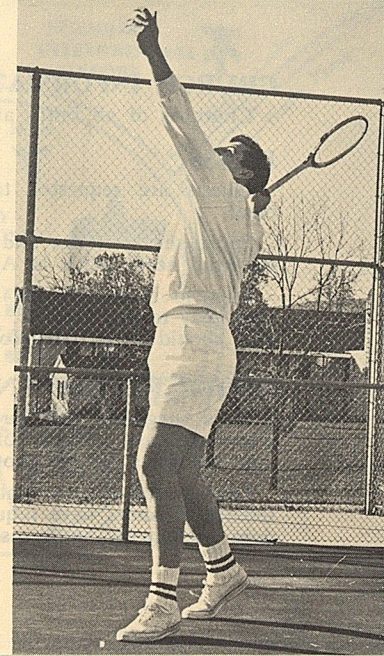

Fishing — Lakes and streams provide fine fresh water sport.

Riding — Quarter horses are available for trail riding with a choice of English or Western tack.

Hiking — The countryside is ideal for a quiet walk or for hiking through open rolling fields.

Bicycles — AIRLIE has six miles of hard-surfaced roads, excellent for cycling. Bicycles are available at the Country Store.

Side Trips — Trips to the many historic shrines of Virginia may be arranged. The Manassas Battlefield, Thomas Jefferson's "Monticello," Colonial Williamsburg and the Virginia Tidewater country are all accessible from Airlie. The Skyline Drive and Shenandoah National Park are less than an hour away. The city of Washington, with its endless opportunities for sightseeing is forty-five miles away.

CHURCH INFORMATION

Churches of all faiths are located in nearby Warrenton.

DRESS

Guests are requested to wear jackets to the evening meal.

Sport shirts, slacks and outdoor apparel will fill your informal needs while at AIRLIE.

Plan to bring suitable clothing, if you wish to swim, ride, play tennis, fish, etc. A pair of old shoes and a raincoat should be included for a trip to the country.

OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS

It is suggested that guests bring cameras to AIRLIE. The landscape, charm of the restored buildings, offer unusual vistas to the photographer.

Due to the requirements of a successful meeting, conference directors have requested that no small children or dogs accompany conferees.

LOCATION AND TRANSPORTATION

AIRLIE is located forty-five miles west and south of Washington, D. C., three miles north of Warrenton, Virginia. The Center is accessible throughout the year via new Interstate and State Highways from Washington as well as from Dulles International, Washington National and Friendship International airports. A heliport and a private airstrip are available on the grounds.

AIRLIE limousine service and chartered buses can be arranged. Public buses are regularly scheduled between Washington and Warrenton.

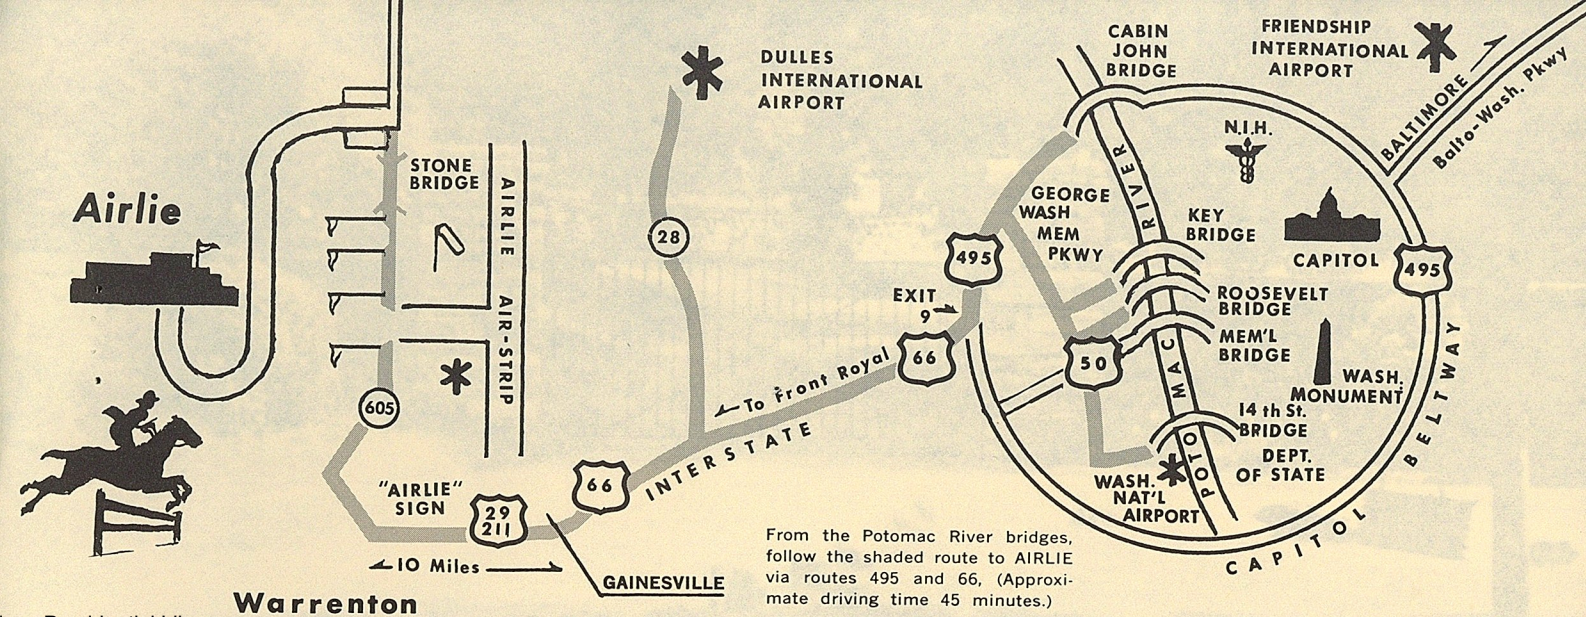

Driving time is a short hour from the Potomac River bridges.

Dear Mr. President:

At its annual meeting held in San Francisco on November 23, 1969, the U. S. National Commission for UNESCO unanimously adopted a resolution supporting the UNESCO Convention Against Discrimination in Education and its ratification by the United States.

In 1960 the Eleventh General Conference of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization adopted the text of this Convention.

The United States, while supporting the principles involved, has not ratified the Convention. In recommending ratification, the U. S. National Commission for UNESCO emphasized its belief that such action by the United States during the coming year would be an appropriate, positive contribution to International Education Year (1970).

In accordance with the wishes of the Commission I have the honor to transmit to you a copy of that Resolution.

Sincerely yours,

X
Honorable A. Marvin Braverman
Chairman, The United States National Commission for UNESCO
Washington, D.C. 20520

Dear Mr. Braverman:

The President and Secretary of State have asked that I reply to your letters of September 23 concerning the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the Specialized Agencies.

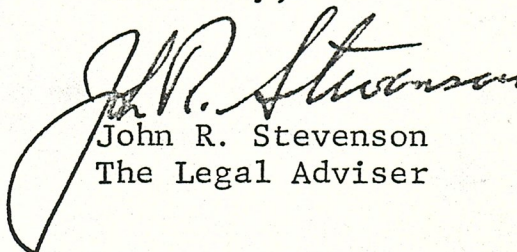

The opinions and suggestions contained in the resolution of the National Commission for UNESCO are most appreciated. I should tell you in all frankness, however, that there is very considerable resistance in the Executive Branch to any further extension of privileges and immunities to aliens who may reside or briefly visit the United States. Both the Departments of Justice and the Treasury have recently made quite clear their across-the-board opposition to the submission of further treaty instruments on this subject. At the time the Secretary of State asked for the approval of the Departments of Justice and the Treasury for the submission of the general Convention on Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations, we were told that although approval would be given in that case we should bear in mind the general attitude stated above.

Similarly, at the time of the hearings before the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations in March this year on the general Convention on Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations, we saw distinct reluctance to consider treaties dealing with privileges and immunities matters. We were pleased that the Senate in due course unanimously gave its advice and consent to the general Convention but we nevertheless came away from this experience with the conclusion that only in the case of the most serious and demonstrable need where the interests of the United States were directly and importantly involved would we properly make a positive recommendation to submit another privileges and immunities treaty to the Senate.

We do regret that, because UNESCO regulations do not permit the holding of expert or other non-governmental meetings in countries where these privileges and immunities are not guaranteed, the United States may for the time being not be chosen as host for such meetings. However, I hope you can agree that under the situation outlined above we cannot recommend submission of this Convention to the Senate at this time.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. President:

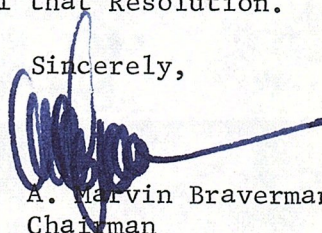

H
At its annual meeting held in Washington, D. C. on September 17-18, 1970, the U. S. National Commission for UNESCO unanimously adopted a resolution supporting the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the Specialized Agencies.

This Convention was adopted by the General Assembly of the United Nations on November 21, 1947 and accepted by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization at its third session of the General Conference in February 1948.

The United States, while supporting the principles involved, has not ratified the Convention. In recommending ratification, the U. S. National Commission for UNESCO emphasized its belief that such action by the United States during the coming year would help remove one of the major impediments for a greater U. S. involvement in the activities of the Organization.

In accordance with the wishes of the Commission, I have the honor to transmit to you a copy of that Resolution.

Sincerely,

34th Meeting in Washington, D. C.
September 18, 1970

WHEREAS, the U. S. National Commission for UNESCO has long emphasized the importance of holding UNESCO-sponsored international meetings in the United States;

WHEREAS, the failure of the U. S. Government to ratify the Convention on Privileges and Immunities for the U. N. Specialized Agencies has impeded the convening of such meetings;

WHEREAS, the Senate recently unanimously ratified the Convention on Privileges and Immunities of the parent United Nations;

WHEREAS, the Executive Committee of the National Commission at its meeting of June 22-23, 1970 adopted a recommendation urging the State Department to submit the Specialized Agencies Convention to the Senate for advice and consent to ratification as soon as possible;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that this Commission concurs with the Executive Committee's recommendation and requests that it be implemented as quickly as possible;

BE IT RESOLVED further that copies hereof be transmitted to the President of the United States, to the Secretary of State and to the Congress of the United States.

ARRANGEMENTS^S WERE CONFIRMED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE FOR REPRESENTATIVE HAWKINS TO LEAVE WASHINGTON FOR PARIS ON TWA FLIGHT 810 AND A FIRST² CLASS TICKET WAS ISSUED TO HIM. AFTER HE HAD ENPLANED AND THE FLIGHT WAS READY FOR TAKEOFF, REPRESENTATIVE HAWKINS WAS PAGED

AND WAS ADVISED THAT HE WAS ONLY ENTITLED TO A "TOURIST CLASS" TICKET INSTEAD OF THE "FIRST CLASS" TICKET WHICH HAD BEEN PROVIDED. YOUR CONGRESSIONAL TRAVEL OFFICE HAS SINCE ADVISED ME THAT SOME INDIVIDUAL FROM YOUR DEPARTMENT HAD CONTACTED THE AIRLINE AT THE LAST MOMENT INDICATING THAT REPRESENTATIVE HAWKINS SHOULD HAVE BEEN BOOKED AS A "TOURIST CLASS" PASSENGER, AND HE WAS ASKED TO VACATE^C THE FIRST CLASS SPACE.

REPRESENTATIVE HAWKINS WAS JUSTIFIABLY OFFENDED AND EMBARRASSED AT THIS ACTION AND AS A RESULT ASKED THAT HIS SPACE BE CANCELLED AND HE WITHDREW FROM THE ASSIGNMENT.

I AM DOUBLY DISTURBED--FIRST THAT MY COLLEAGUE SHOULD HAVE

BEEN PUT IN THAT UNHAPPY POSITION THROUGH A BLUNDER
BY THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE, AND SECOND THAT OUR DELEGATION
SHOULD HAVE LOST THE PARTICIPATION OF A MEMBER OF THE EDUCATION
AND LABOR COOMITTEE WHO IS KNOWLEDGEABLE, ENTHUSIASTIC, AND ARTICULATE IN MATTERS OF EDUCATION AND ALL HUMAN ENDEAVOR WITH WHICH UNESCO CONCERNS ITSELF. THE DISCOURTESY, WHETHER MALICIOUS OR INADVERTENT, WITH WHICH HE WAS TREATED, IS INEXCUSABLE, AND MANIFESTS A LACK OF THE MOST ELEMENTARY DIPLOMACY. THE
3 DECISION TO DOWNGRADE CONGRESSMAN HAWKINS' AIRSPACE AT THE MOMENT OF DEPARTURE IS A SHAMEFUL REFLECTION UPON THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.

2 I AM ASKING THAT YOU MAKE AMENDS TO REPRESENTATIVE HAWKINS
IMMEDIATELY AND FULLY. I AM MOST ANXIOUS TO HAVE HIM PARTICIPATE.

IN THE PARIS MEETING OF UNESCO AND EXPECT YOU WILL MAKE EVERY EFFORT TO FLY HIM TO PARIS FROM WHEREVER HE MAY BE TO TAKE PART IN THE MEETING UNDER CONDITIONS THAT WILL BE
IN KEEPING WITH THE IMPORTANCE OF HIS MISSION. THIS IS AN OUTRAGE
TO CONGRESSMAN HAWKINS AND TO THIS COMMITTEE THAT OUGHT CERTAINLY
