Dear Mr. Blackwell:

I have received a copy of a letter from Mr. Cooper Brown, NAAV General Counsel, dated February 15, 1983, in which he asked for a personal meeting with the President. I agree with this concept whole-heartedly, and I personally believe the President would benefit by the meeting.

We feel that a meeting with the President, will allow him to be more in tune with the issue since he will hear the other side of the story first hand.

Sincerely,

Gene Curbow
