BURKE, Thomas Chief
Division of International Communication
Department of State
May 29, 1941 "

Wrote to Gen. Watson enclosing a copy of a letter from Mr. John W. Elwood, Manager, International Division, National Broadcasting Company, Inc., NYC, in regard to the plan of the Uruguayan broadcasting station, El Espectador, to present to the President an album containing the signatures of many of its listeners, such presentation to be made possibly through the American Minister to Uruguay on the Uruguayan Constitution Day, July 18. Radio station would be grateful if the President could make a brief statement by means of short wave radio. -- Mr. Early replied on June 5, 1941, advising the Gen. Watson will be glad to receive the album for the President, and that the President will be unable to comply with the request for a broadcast. -- Attached is Gen. Watson's memo of June 3, 1941, to Mr. Early re this. -- Also attached is inter-office memo of 6/26/41 to Miss Barrows re this.

Wrote to Miss LeHand--says the Society wishes to present to the President an engraved bookplate for his philatelic collection. Describes it in detail and says the engraver for the proposed plate would be Mr. F. Charles Blank of Massachusetts, Vice President of the Society. - - - There is attached letter to Mr. Early from Archibald Macleish, The Librarian of Congress, 7-22-41, in response to Mr. Early's memo of 7-10-41 asking for Mr. Macleish's opinion concerning this request. Mr. Macleish says that while the Society is apparently a perfectly reputable one, there are obviously circles within circles within the whole proposal and recommends that the offer be gently but firmly declined and, in saying this, he does not reflect in any way on the Society. Says they have no doubt but that the National Archives possesses, or can readily secure, sufficient bookplates for the Library at Hyde Park.

My dear Mr. President:

This little birdie flies to you with a little message - - a message that does not need decoding, nor is it anything unusual. He only wants to tell you, Mr. President, that the sender is one of the great mass who is for you 100%, PLUS.

This little birdie wants to be able to continue flying about this good old U. S. A. without the fire of anti-air craft guns and the rumbling of tanks and field guns, and would rather see our country at war, than at peace with maniac Hitler, and his stooge, Il Duce.

So, Mr. President, this is not a bird of peace, but a bird full of love for freedom, full of fight, and bubbling over with the ideals that U. S. A. stands for.

He is ready to stand behind you in whatever you think is best. He hopes that you will like him, and if you do, please give him a little food and water, and let him perch some place where he can look at you.

THE PRESIDENT,

framed

Mr. President:

L.P.P. 7
9-17

I am sending herewith a photograph of the "V" for Victory Knot, the original of which I am sending you under separate cover, as a token of my admiration - knowing full well that you would be the one person to appreciate such work, as only a mariner could. The curved bars on this knot are made to represent the country, as a whole, and - as Victory calls for Speed - the right swing of the "V" shows the vacuum pull of that speed.

As I have, unquestionably, originated more knots than any other person, I think it fitting that I should give to you, Mr. President, the one I believe very appropriate at this time of unrest and trouble and when the whole world is clamoring for VICTORY. As an American citizen, I am hoping for VICTORY for the U.S.A.

To The President

Dear Mr. President:

About four years ago, while I was in the hospital, in San Francisco, for an operation on my eyes, to remove cataracts on my eyes, a Social Worker brought up some work for the patients to occupy their minds, namely belts and suspenders. In making them I was totally blind. One of the belts I made ^{for} especially President Roosevelt. The reason I did not send it at that time, was that I was hoping all these years that I could make the trip to Washington, and present it to you personally. However, as I have not been able to do so, I am sending it now by mail, with my sincerest good wishes, as a gift to the President.

The belt is made up of separate pieces, and if it is too large, some of the pieces can be removed, and if it too small it can be stretched.

I am also a cripple, and have been in a wheel chair for the past six years.

It was indeed kind of you to take the time from the weighty problems with which I know you are at all times overwhelmed to write a word to me.

I prize your letter deeply and shall preserve it for my grandchildren.

From the time your name was first suggested for President I have been delighted to follow wherever you have chosen to lead; and the greatest blessing I can hope for my country is that its destiny may be guided through the coming years by a leader as nearly like you as can be found within her borders.

I am taking the liberty by this mail to present you an autographed copy of my book, "Random Thoughts and the Musings of a Mountaineer". If when the problems of these dark days shall have been lifted from your shoulders you find time to read any part of the book I shall feel distinctly honored.

May God spare your life and give you strength to lead us through the dark days that lie ahead of us.

Thanking you for your kindness and with my best wishes for your health and happiness, I remain

Sincerely your friend and follower,

Felix E. Alley

Dear Mr. President:

In commemoration of the amendment of the Neutrality Act and in dedication to the principle of the 'Freedom of the Seas', may we present to you, on behalf of Gordon Grant, ~~the~~ signed original lithograph which has just been created by this grand old man of sea art.

This lithograph depicts the U.S.S. Pennsylvania. It is our hope that you will see fit to add it to your collection - particularly since the man who executed it has thus turned for the first time to modern American battleships, after more than 60 years depicting the Australian grain ships, the great old clippers, and all the boats that have gone before our time.

This lithograph is being made available nationally through our program. We hope that its display in the homes of many Americans will increase the power and meaning of the words 'The Freedom of the Seas'.

Dear Mister President:

The noble and expressive features of your mother's face inspired in me the desire to portray it on canvas. Unfortunately,
I never had the honor and pleasure of seeing her in person, and I had to be content with a photograph.

May I, Mister President, present you with the results of my efforts, in all my gratitude to this great country which gave me refuge. Please accept it as a humble token of my utmost respect for you as a great leader, whose concern for humanity, and whose wisdom remain as a beacon of light in a darkened world.

I feel quite concerned over the possibility that the limitations of a black and white photograph may have led me to mistaken interpretation. Your vivid and accurate memory of your mother will undoubtedly detect any such inaccuracy. I would, therefore, consider it a great privilege to carry out any change you may desire.

I remain,

Most respectfully yours,

John Arnhold.
